

LOOK SHARP!

Ah there, boy, stand out of the way! Don't you hear! I want you to know I am the editor this week, while the boss is gone to the Press Association at Newport. Call me Mr. Davis, sir! I am known as the "inky devil" when the boss is at home, but now hold the editorial chair and attend to the books, so please edit in and pay your subscription. We will give the greatest discount for cash that has ever been offered, and will do job printing almost at your own price, provided you pay cash in advance. We will not take potatoes, wood and such like on this proposition! Money is what we want and must have—at least enough to get some ice cream and put in the missionary box next Sunday. This offer will close to-morrow evening unless we get enough work to do us Sunday, in which case it will be good until Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, but no longer, as we will have to be sobered up when the editor returns and have all job work out, or he is liable to make more "pi" than we can digest in a week, and then—Raise our wages, did you say? No, no; not much! He will raise us, and as the fireman stands in on all but the last and allows us but a small per cent. of the profits you will please not mention this to the boss when he returns, but take advantage of this grand offer. If you see anything like barn doors on the table, do not be alarmed; it is only our feet. Be sure and edit on us.

Respectfully yours,
T. H. EDDON,
Formerly the "Imp."

The question of the grave yard seems to have died down again, and it appears that all that can be said will not cause some kind of a move to settle this matter. The question has been asked many times why the directors did not make the explanation which was asked, but we do not know. This looks a little queer to us, but they may have some good reason which they are keeping to themselves. You need not think we are going to let this matter die down, for we are not, and so long as that old grave yard stands as it does just so long will we continue to remind you of it and let the public know what an old, dilapidated, neglected grave yard is at our beautiful town, Lebanon. We may be wrong in this, but think that the people of this town and vicinity would willingly turn out and help fix it up and make a nice cemetery of it if they were only asked by the public. There are several nice monuments in this cemetery and it is a shame to let them stand in the midst of the weeds and bushes, which are higher than a man's head.

Why it is that so many people go off to do their trading we do not understand, but it is true they can get just as good bargains here as at any other place in the Willamette valley. Some men will go to our merchants for favors from time to time, and as soon as they are a dollar or two ahead, go off to Albany or some other place to spend it. They will then come back and expect the home merchants to continue granting favors to them by taking their produce, and credit, and to be under the same obligations as before. Now don't you feel mean to come through town with a bundle under your arm which you paid the cash for at Albany, while you are running an account with some merchant here? If you don't, may the Lord have mercy on you! Another class are those who live and do business here and send away from home for hands to do their work, when there are plenty in their town who are competent to do the work laying idle. This is no way to do. We can never build up our town in this way, and if we wish to see her prosper we must help to make it better. Every dollar left here helps to improve the town that much. By helping each other we help ourselves.

Eastern capitalists are investing considerable money in this state. If we will properly advertise Lebanon and vicinity considerable cash will be turned loose here before the year 1890 is ushered into existence.

If every citizen of Lebanon would allow himself to be assessed 20 per cent of what he is worth and the amount applied to putting up a paper mill and sawing factory he would find himself 100 per cent better off in less than 12 months.

WATERLOO.

August 21, 1889.

Again Mistletoe takes pencil in hand to fill a portion of our splendid paper, THE LEBANON EXPRESS, although it isn't too late to hear from our little town, Waterloo, and the correspondent isn't dead yet.

The Waterloo bridge is completed, and a great many teams have passed over it during the past week, and very certain it is the people of Waterloo and vicinity and in fact every one who has passed over it is well pleased with it. The honorable county board received the bridge on Tuesday week.

There have been a large number of visitors at the soda springs this season seeking recreation.

Miss Jennie Booth, of Salem, who has been spending the summer with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Case, of this place, returned home Tuesday. We regret her leaving us greatly, and hope she may soon return, but Waterloo's loss is Salem's gain.

There will be preaching at this place on Sunday at two o'clock in the afternoon by Revs. Skipworth and Case.

Mr. J. G. Gross and wife returned from the bay two weeks ago.

Mr. S. A. Haddison, wife and mother, went to Albany and Jefferson on Thursday.

Mr. C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, has moved into his house in Concordia, just across the river.

There has been some talk of the moss growing on the bridge by not being used, but it doesn't look very much like it, as the farmers have continued to haul grain across to the warehouses.

There will be a grand ball given by J. G. Gross at this place in the Waterloo hall on Friday, Aug. 30, 1889. Every one is invited to take part in the social.

J. G. Dollarhide is running the dairy owned by R. A. Clark on the Elkin's ranch.

Quite a number of the boys of this place and Sodaville started from here to the mountains, Saturday, for a good hunt and recreation.

Boat riding is a favorite enjoyment for the young folks of evenings.

Mr. H. H. Klum moved away last week. Sorry to lose him from our midst.

Items are scarce this week, but will give a few more in the future.

MISTLETOE.

Governor pennoyer, it appears, is determined not to allow the law forbidding the taking of salmon from the rivers during certain months in the year to be violated, and should be upheld in his efforts to have the law enforced.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle

MONTAGUE'S COLUMN.

Montague's freight bills for the past month have been unusually heavy, owing to the large quantities of

New and Elegant Spring and Summer Goods.

Being received daily at his MAMMOTH STORE and at the One Price Cash Store.

The stocks of these establishments are full and complete, and an experience of nearly twenty years in the trade at Lebanon enables me to select such goods as will meet the wants of the people. As I buy for cash, a careful inspection will satisfy anyone of ordinary intelligence that MONTAGUE'S PRICES and the superior quality of his goods fully merit the liberal patronage he is receiving, and for which he returns his profound thanks.

In Montague's DRESS GOODS department will be found many new and elegant designs purchased at very low figures of one of the largest importing houses in America. The goods will be sold correspondingly low, and we respectfully invite the ladies to examine them before purchasing.

Montague has been selling a great many wedding dresses lately, and will take pleasure in furnishing complete outfits to parties contemplating house keeping.

Our CLOTHING DEPARTMENT needs but little advertising, as the goods sell themselves. We keep native Oregon manufactured clothing as well as fine lines just received from New York and Chicago. A look through our stock will convince you that we can fit you in any kind of suit you may desire at prices lower than a good many merchants can buy their goods. We have good serviceable suits at $5.75, $7, $8, $9 or $10. These prices are 25 per cent lower than the goods are usually sold in any town in Oregon.

FOR THE BOYS.

Boys, it will interest you to know that in selecting his mammoth stocks of clothing, he has just laid in the largest assortment of Boy's Clothing ever brought to this city. Have your Papa and Mama bring you in for a new suit, so you can attend camp meeting and the picnics, and we will fit you out very nicely. Always insist on having them go to Montague's for their goods, as in his establishment you will get 100 cts. worth for every dollar expended.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

In addition to a large stock of Leather goods, Montague has purchased an immense stock of the celebrated Buckingham & Hecht make of boots and shoes. Every pair warranted. When you need anything in that line drop in and see us. The goods and prices are ALL RIGHT.

THE ONE PRICE Cash Store is an immense success; the sales are very large and increasing rapidly. It is true the profits are very small, but as we can turn the money many times during the year, I find that in the long run it pays much better than the credit system. We all must come at last to a cash basis in all our business transactions, and the sooner the better. Come on with your money, make us know when you are looking at goods that your intended purchases MEAN CASH DOWN, and you will find Montague ready to meet you with prices that defy successful competition.
