

John L. Sullivan, the notorious prize fighter, has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment by the authorities of Mississippi. This ought to give every citizen of the United States a thrill of delight. He and his associates have been guilty of the most daring impudence. They defied all law and order, and in the face of warning carried out their brutal contest. The governor of Mississippi deserves the highest commendation for his courage and determination. Prize fighting is a beastly sport and is demoralizing in the extreme. The punishment of the world's champion "bruiser" by a Mississippi court is a triumph worth special mention. The governor of Mississippi is determined to make the accomplices feel the grip of the law, and he will be heartily sustained and applauded by all good citizens.

"Prisoner, have you any thing to say before the sentence of the court is passed upon you?"

"I have, your honor." Turning to his lawyer: "You slick-fingered, smooth-jawed puddin'-head! You billy-beld-slamm'd hunk of soap fat! You said you would clear me for twenty dollars, and took the money in advance. You hain't got sense enough to be assistant janitor of a corn crib, you don't know as much law as a Texas horned frog, and you hain't the principle of a blind owl! Go ahead judge!"

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended at once. One bottle of BEGG'S DIARRHOEA BALSAM will do more good in cases of this kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. M. A. Miller, druggist.
