

Col. R. F. Maury's experiments in the application of a very strong wash early last spring, with the object of eradicating the San Jose scale from his orchard near Central Point, was highly satisfactory, we learn, and another application will eradicate the pest entirely from his trees. Men who have the nerve to adopt radical measures deserve to succeed, and since Col. Maury has demonstrated that the plague can be effectually and safely combatted, we trust that all other orchardists will emulate his example and, armed with a spray pump and a duly approved decoction of bug medicine, reach every twig on every tree next winter, and, by vigilance and care, retain the reputation of our country as the chief fruit section of Oregon.

The kicker kicketh, and is sad. The kicker is abroad in Lebanon; this time he hath seen a copy of a large edition of a descriptive circular, issued by A. R. Cyrus & Co. descriptive of Lebanon and vicinity, and thinking it is not right, yea he vexeth his soul exceedingly; he is fearful lest the town should improve and he be left behind. We would recommend the kicker to go crawl in his hole and pull the hole in after him, and sleep for twenty years; perhaps he would wake up refreshed.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended at once. One bottle of BEGG'S DIARRHOEA BALSAM will do more good in cases of this kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. M. A. Miller, druggist.
