 Lebanon is the place to get goods cheap.
 M. A. Miller made a trip to Halsey this week.
 Firemen's tournament at Tacoma next week.
 Several of our people are on the sick list this week.
 It has been quite frosty for the past few mornings.
 Read the supplement this week; it contains many items of interest.
 Miss Zoe Marks has a felon on her hand which causes her much pain.
 All, or nearly all, of the hops in this vicinity have been picked.
 Quite a number of our citizens went to Portland to attend the races this week.
 Litchfield the humorist played before a fair sized audience at Band Hall last evening.
 Rev. F. H. Calder will preach at the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening.
 Help to boom our town. Now is the accepted time; help now. Delay is doing errors.
 The large amount of goods being received daily by our merchants is a sign of prosperity.
 Wm. Elered, of East Portland, has leased the Fountain House of Soda-ville for the coming year.
 Miss Maud Ralston on Saturday returned from Portland, where she had been visiting relatives.
 Rev. Lee of the United Brethren church will preach in the First Presbyterian church on next Sunday.
 There will be another wedding in town before many days, and probably two of them. Let the good work go on.
 H. C. Klepper is having lumber hauled to his lot in the Kirkpatrick addition, where he will build a neat residence.
 Robert Montague left on last Monday for Albany, where he intends entering school for the coming term. We wish Bob a pleasant as well as a profitable time.
 Rev. F. H. Calder, who has been appointed pastor of the M. E. church at this place for the ensuing year by the conference of that church, arrived in town with his family on Wednesday evening.
 Wm. Rethertord is having the store room between Cotton's and Peebler & Buhl's fitted up for a bar room, and it is rumored that another will be placed in the one he is about to vacate, making three saloons in town.
 J. A. Beard, John Hope, Charles McKnight and Wm. Klepper leave for Tacoma to-morrow, to join the Corvallis hose team, and will compete for the different prizes which will be awarded at the firemen's tournament at Tacoma. We wish them a success.
 On last Saturday afternoon while Mrs. D. Andrews and little children were out driving the horse became unmanageable, breaking first in a trot and then in a gallop, and as it turned to go into the gate the buggy was overthrown and they were precipitated from it. Frank Miller and J. Moss-holder ran to their assistance. Aside from being considerably bruised they sustained no serious injury.
 Born to the wife of D. Harte yesterday, a son.
 Mr. Joe Harbin has a new boarder that arrived at his house last Friday after deliberate consideration he decided to keep him. He is seemingly a nice young man and weighs about 8 lb.
 Mr. Jas. Slater, of Prineville, was in town a few days this week. He goes from here to Ohio.
 If the bustle is being discarded all over the country as it has been in Corvallis during the last month or so it will soon be a rare curiosity. It is said that in the country, however, it is dying hard. An observer has noted that five miles from Corvallis the bustle of mammoth proportions is still to be met with, but from that distance as the county seat is neared, the size gradually diminishes and finally disappears entirely.—Times. Yes, we have heard that the cream of society are discarding the appendages called bustles. Probably Mrs. Harrison made the start, but we had no idea that your town was so far advanced.

NEWS ITEMS.
 A peddler was on our streets this week selling soap and salve which he claims will do wonders. He calls himself Dutch Uncle.
 From our exchanges we note that Corvallis has discarded her bustle and Albany her bustles, but from personal observation we see that Lebanon is all bustle and excitement.
 A case of smallpox has been reported in Albany this week. The people of Lebanon should be careful and not put themselves in the way of contracting this disease. Vaccinate.
 Mr. S. R. Claypool has our thanks for a fine lot of grapes, four varieties, which were very nice. He had a large paper sack full, but said "the boys" got into them, but very prudently withheld their names from us.
 The weather is very windy and very dry, hence it is the most dangerous season of the year for fires. Every person should be very careful about the use of fire, matches, cigars, cigarettes etc. A stitch in time saves nine.
 Bill Vanderbilt, the railroad man, has discharged his French cook, who was receiving $10,000 a year, because he failed to cook a couple of partridges to suit Bill. It takes over half a column in most of the New York papers to tell about it.
 At last a man has been able to go over the Niagara Falls and survive to give his experience. His name is Steve Brodie. Steve says he felt a little shaky and felt like a man going to meet his death, and was unconscious until his friends had him safe on the shore.
 A law passed by the state legislature makes it compulsory for children between the ages of eight and fourteen to attend school. A violation of this law makes the parents or guardians liable to a fine of not less than $5 or more than $25 for the first offense, and not less than $25 nor more than $50 for the second and each subsequent offense.
 Our council has ordered all the cross-walks fixed up which is being done. Now every property owner should see that their side walks are put in repair. If you don't, pretty soon you will be made do it and it looks like we ought to do what we know is our duty without being made. And we would suggest that you drive down the nails too while you are at work.
 One year ago Mr. J. J. Swan had his gold watch stolen from his vest pocket where he had hung it on the fence. Last Tuesday one of his daughters happened to look out of the upper chamber window and found the watch lying a few rods south of the house on the bare ground. The watch is in a fine state of preservation and Mr. Swan is happy. Who can solve the mystery?

 Mrs. Wm. Skiff and child, of Portland, Mrs. G. F. Tucker and family, of McMinnville, and Mrs. E. F. Warren, of Oregon City, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carpus Sperry.
 State of Oregon vs. Marion Martin, assault with a dangerous weapon, was tried before Justice Hume at the city hall, North Brownsville, on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday. For the state, Justice Brink of Albany; for the defence, Attorney Wright of Albany. Charge not sustained; case dismissed.
 The new school house is fast nearing completion. The outside is receiving a finishing coat of paint and the ceiling upon the inside is nearly complete. The rooms for both primary and advance grades are large and well ventilated, and the building when complete will be an ornament in point of architecture to our town.
 Brownsville is becoming like unto her sister cities in point of attractions to pass a pleasant hour. On Friday evening the time of our meandering tax payer was divided between a street "fakir" who instantly extracted warts and simultaneously corralled quarters, and the camp unsetting on the river front. It was hard to tell which had the larger or more enthusiastic crowd.
 On the evening of September 25, at the North Brownsville city hall, Miss Henrietta Moore of New York city delivered a lecture on the subject of Temperance. Miss Moore comes to us very highly recommended as a most eloquent and entertaining speaker, and all those who desire a mental treat should be in attendance and hear this subject thoroughly and lucidly discussed, as it is a question that all should be deeply interested in. T. S. P.

HOW IS THIS FOR CORN.
 Mr. C. C. Simmons, of Irving, brought to this office last Tuesday three ears of white flint corn, two of which measured 12 inches and the other 12 1/2 inches. Each contains eight rows of corn and the largest one contains 451 well developed kernels of corn. How is that for Webfoot? Who can beat it?—Junction City Pilot. We found in Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick's corn field one stalk of corn which had four ears upon it, and each measured over ten inches, but we didn't count the grain or rows.
Why is it
 That people linger along always complaining about that continual tired feeling? One bottle of BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will entirely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. M. A. Miller druggist.

Read Our Remarkable Reasons

For endeavoring to dispose of our goods. Usually the reason given in such cases are of the stereotyped order. These are new and original. We want to sell because

We Want Bread and Butter;

That is, we want to make a living, and we can't do it you know, without making sales. Then we want to save a little and

TAKE IN THE CIRCUS

When it comes to town, and to pay the printer. We can't carry water for the elephant like we used to, and we dassent crawl under the tent.

WHAT ARE WE HERE FOR

If not to sell goods and make the world happier? The fishmonger trades for sell-fish reasons; with us business is

A Matter of Custom Only.

The more custom we get the more business we do. We must call your attention to our elegant fall stock which arrived this week, complete in all details. Our Dress Goods department was never so complete, comprising Silk, Warp, Henriettas, Tricots, Berbers and Assabet Suitings, Ribbons, Plushes, Buttons, etc. This is your invitation to imitate the good custom of your neighbors and trade with

C. C. HACKLEMAN.

 Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following, from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today; and would insist on every one I met with that terrible disease, to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." For sale by M. A. Miller.
