

MARRIED.

SLATER-BALLARD-On Wednesday evening, Sept. 11, 1889, at the residence of the bride's parents in this city by Walton Skipworth, minister of the gospel, Mr. John B. Slater of Stevens county, Washington, and Miss Florence Ballard of Linn county, Oregon.

The bridegroom was formerly a resident of Lebanon. He spent much of his early life here and laid the foundation of his education in our schools. He now occupies the honorable and responsible position of Judge of Stevens county in the young and thriving state of Washington, and is a young man of promise, with bright prospects before him in his chosen profession, the law. The bride was one of Lebanon's most excellent and accomplished young ladies, universally respected and loved in all circles of society. Slater is to be congratulated upon winning the heart and hand of a lady of such rare qualities to be to him an helpmeet through life. Mr. and Mrs. Slater will make their home in Colville (Washington), the county seat of Stevens county. May they be prosperous and happy in their new relation of life and have granted to them many years upon the earth. The kindest and best wishes of THE EXPRESS and of a multitude of friends and acquaintances follow them.

The popular house of G. W. Simpson, of Albany, has recently been remodeled and fitted up in elegant style. Farmers, mechanics and everybody will find it to their interest to call and examine his goods before going elsewhere in Albany.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended at once. One bottle of BEGG'S DIARRHOEA BALSAM will do more good in cases of this kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. M. A. Miller, druggist.
