

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Hugh Nixon is helping in the restaurant now.

Our public school opened on Monday morning with a good attendance.

Mrs. H. E. Parrish is visiting her father's family, near Stayton, this week.

The Warm Spring Indians gave a war dance in the band hall Monday evening.

Clint Gordon, who has been away for some time, returned to town on Wednesday.

A large number of Indians passed through town this week on their way back to the reservation.

Leave orders with M. E. Hearn for fresh Chinook salmon from Yaquina bay, at the depot, Lebanon.

It would be a good investment for some one to put up some cottages for rent as there is now a great demand for houses.

H. E. Parrish and J. G. Carr will have a dray for the accommodation of the public in a few days, which should be well patronized.

J. C. Bilyeu has nearly completed his new residence, which is quite a new building and will add much to the looks of that part of town.

Messrs. Kirkendall and Westfall have ordered a truck from Portland. It cost them over $300, and should be well patronized by the people.

Again would we call the attention of the property holders to the fact that you should see to fixing up your sidewalks before the bad weather sets in and the mud gets knee deep.

J. M. Ralston, who now resides in East Portland, visited Lebanon this week. He returned home on Tuesday, but his wife, who has been here for some time, will still remain.

Mr. Jas. Matchett, of Santiam, has rented from J. C. Bilyeu the house in which he now lives, and intends moving into it about the first of next month. Jake intends to occupy his new house.

Several people have been inquiring for houses to rent this week, but could find none as there is not a vacant house in town. We believe that at least a dozen houses could be rented at the present time.

Mr. Retherford has got his saloon moved into his new department and Mr. Hansard has opened another in the building that he vacated, making three saloons in town. Opposition is the life of trade.

Gus Reed, son of Wm. Reed, who has been in Cathlamet, W. T., for some time, returned to Lebanon Wednesday, where he will spend the winter. Gus has many friends here who are glad to welcome him back.

The Wirtsburg sawmill, which had the misfortune to be burned down a few weeks ago, received two large new circular saws yesterday. Other machinery for this mill will arrive soon, and it will be in operation in a short time.

Mat Drummard, of Corvallis, was tried on Friday for killing Chinese pheasants. A friend(?) gave him away for the sake of half of the fee; but he didn't get it; the jury disagreed, and the man who made enemies was the aforesaid friend.—Albany Democrat.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket for self and lady to the North Pacific Industrial Association, which opens in Portland on the 26th of this month, for which we return our thanks, and will try and be there, but if we fail to do so we trust the fair will continue just the same.

One day this week one of our carpenters said he had work engaged ahead for over three months, and could get a great deal more if he wanted it. He says it is a hard matter to get workmen at any price and it is the first time he has ever seen in Lebanon when everybody could get more work than they could do.

Samuel M. Wilson was born April 29, 1857, near Burlington, Des Moines county, Iowa, died Sept. 16, 1889, near Sodaville, Linn county, Oregon. Deceased leaves two children, a girl of 16 years and a boy of 11. The wife and mother with three children were swept away in a cloudburst six years ago in Eastern Oregon. He has been a great sufferer for more than a year and a half, yet his friends tell us that his sufferings were borne with great patience. He was an affectionate husband, a kind father and good neighbor. May he find rest and relief beyond this vale of tears.

NEWS ITEMS.

Read the supplement this week; it contains many items of interest.

Mr. Walton commenced work on his residence near the planer this week.

Mrs. J. M. Soddard, of California, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Martin Hickman, of this place.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to C. B. Montague, our live merchant, should read his gentle but firm admonition in his column this week.

Mr. D. Hickman left yesterday morning to lay out the line and establish the corners of the mineral spring which Dr. Taylor found in the mountains.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give amelon sociable this (Friday) evening at the residence of F. M. Miller. All are invited. Admission ten cents.

John Burkhardt and Ruff Hiatt have bought a fine young trotting horse which they are now training. We would give its pedigree, but have forgotten it.

We would like to know why it is that the street lamps are not lit any more. They were kept burning all summer, and now, when we need them, we are left in the dark.

Miss Hela Gilbert will be in Lebanon Thursday and Friday of each week. Those wishing to make arrangements for lessons will find her at the residence of Mr. Jos. Elkins.

Mr. Harry Singleton, who has been visiting this place in search of his health for some time, left for his home in Salem yesterday morning. Harry has made many warm friends at this place.

Dr. J. M. Taylor returned to Lebanon from the Cascades, near the line of the O. P. The doctor brought us a specimen from a hot mineral spring. He thinks he has struck a bonanza of a spring.

M. A. Miller has purchased the property of F. H. Roscoe which Rev. Giboney now occupies, and will move into it soon. Rev. Giboney will occupy the new residence of F. M. Miller near the M. E. church and T. J. Swan will move into the house now occupied by M. A. Miller.

Last Monday two young men were in town who, after swearing and carousing on the streets as much as they thought best and a great deal more than should have been allowed, got into their buggy and ran through the streets twice at full speed twice, and no arrest has been made yet! Their names we did not hear.

We would call the attention of the city council to the fact that at your next meeting it would be well to see about having some of our sidewalks fixed up, as they are beginning to look bad, some, too, that are near the center of town. It would be well to order this done as there are those who will do only what they are ordered to.

First-class work at McClure's barber shop.

Old settlers say it is dryer here than they ever saw it before.

For the news read THE EXPRESS; what is not in it is in the supplement.

Round trip tickets will be sold to Portland and return Sept. 10 to 14, inclusive, on account of the races at City View Park.

BROWNSVILLE.

F. F. Croft on Monday left for Portland, in the interests of the Albany woolen mill.

F. Hancock and family, Mrs. Croft of Portland, and S. P. Barger, on Tuesday left for the Lower Soda springs.

Judging from the appearance of some of the young men who passed through town on the afternoon of Sunday last, at the completion of the races at the hop yard, they indulged in a general fistfight encounter, bare knuckles, no gloves and no Marquis of Queensbury rules.

Mrs. James Hartley and sister on Monday returned to Brownsville, after an extended trip to the eastern states.

Frank Jack finished hop picking on Monday. The yield was over average, and the product of good duality.

Ira Walker met with a peculiar accident during the past week, resulting in some severe burns upon the face, but fortunately no serious injuries. A bottle containing powder fell from the young man's pocket, striking the ground, breaking and scattering the contents, which, while he was in the act of gathering it up, became ignited from a bunch of matches also falling from his pocket. The explosion which followed threw Ira violently to the ground and will necessitate the purchase of more powder before he can indulge in hunting.

On Monday night at the camp meeting Marshal John Wilson arrested a young man; charge, shooting within the city limits.

John Brown during the past week purchased from I. W. Starr, M. D., his town property in consideration of $800.

First frost of the season on the night of Monday, the 9th inst.

Dr. I. W. Starr returned home to Albany on Wednesday.

On Tuesday evening at the North Brownsville city hall, "Litchfield, the man of 100 faces," gave an entertainment to a fair house.

W. O. Stanard on Wednesday returned from Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Skiff and child, of Portland, Mrs. J. E. Atkins and children, Mrs. G. F. Tucker and children, of The Dalles, who for the past week have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carpus Sperry, on Saturday returned home.

In last issue of the "Express" your correspondent stated that Mr. Senger, our boot and shoe maker had left for Eugene, and there would be a good chance for another "manipulator of leather." Since that statement was made he has returned to the old stand and resumed business.

School will commence at South Brownsville on Monday, the 16th inst. The North Brownsville school will commence on the 23d inst.

The services of Prof. Say have been secured for the South Brownsville school, assisted by Miss Sarah Swank.

On the 25th inst. at the South Brownsville City hall, Miss Henrietta Brown, of New York City, will deliver a lecture. Subject: Temperance. Miss Brown has the reputation of being a fluent and interesting speaker and will doubtless agreeably entertain all those who may attend her lecture.

One of the most pleasant entertainments of the season took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Grover, South Brownsville, on the 9th inst., on which occasion a number of the family friends met in celebration of the 20th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Grover, of Petaluma, Cal., at present the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Grover. The invited guests were most hospitably entertained to dinner, and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Grover were the recipients of some beautiful and costly presents.

Read Our Remarkable Reasons

For endeavoring to dispose of our goods. Usually the reason given in such cases are of the stereotyped order. These are new and original. We want to sell because

We Want Bread and Butter;

That is, we want to make a living, and we can't do it you know, without making sales. Then we want to save a little and

TAKE IN THE CIRCUS

When it comes to town, and to pay the printer. We can't carry water for the elephant like we used to, and we dassent crawl under the tent.

WHAT ARE WE HERE FOR

If not to sell goods and make the world happier? The fishmonger trades for sell-fish reasons; with us business is

A Matter of Custom Only.

The more custom we get the more business we do. We must call your attention to our elegant fall stock which arrived this week, complete in all details. Our Dress department was never so complete, comprising Silk Henriettas, Tricots, Berbers and Assabet Suitings, Plushes, Buttons, etc. This is your invitation to in good custom of your neighbors and trade with

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following, from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today; and would insist on every one afflicted with that terrible disease, to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well again." For sale by M. A. Miller.
