

SODAVILLE.

September 23, 1889.

We've had quite a rain which will start the grass in good shape; at least it is hoped on.

The school opened up at this place to-day with Miss Irvine at the helm. We wish her abundant success in her undertaking.

The genial countenance of Mr. Sims is again seen on our streets, and it bears that same good natured look as of old. The climate of southern Oregon seems to have had no impression on him. He will remain here during the winter. After all there is no better place than webfoot.

A. and Ben Parrish are away at present at work with their grubbing machine.

The Misses Westfall, formerly of this place but now of Lebanon, spent several days in our town last week visiting their grandmother and friends. It is hard to give up such a place as Sodaville. Come again ladies.

The directors of the school here procured a fine globe and a dictionary, two articles much needed in every school in the county.

Our fellow townsmen and hotel proprietor seems to have things in good shape for the sojourner as well as the traveling public.

Prof. Laukford intends organizing a class in penmanship at the school house in the near future. For specimens of his work call at the store of Frank Davis.

W. A. McGhee has charge of the school in the Ghendale district.

Born, to the wife of W. R. Hardman on Sept. 30, a son:

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch says that during the year ended June 1, 1889, out of the federal army of 22,000 men there were 2,482 desertions. These desertions cost the government $600,000.

Mr. E. P. Lovejoy, a large dealer in general merchandise at Wabaska, Nevada, says: "I have tried St. Patrick's Pills and can truthfully say they are the best I have ever taken or known used." As a pleasant physic or for disorders of the liver they will always give perfect satisfaction. For sale by M. A. Miller.

A Good Cough Syrup.

There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown upon the market. The best is none too good. Be sure and get Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup. We keep it on hand at all times. M. A. Miller, Druggist.

The popular house of G. W. Simpson, of Albany, has recently been remodeled and fitted up in elegant style. Farmers, mechanics and everybody will find it to their interest to call and examine his goods before going elsewhere in Albany.

Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers, Albany, Or.

One price and cash at the new cash store, but everything sold cheap and delivered to any part of the city.
