Stanford, Crocker, Colton and Hopkins, the projectors of the Pacific railroad, had not among them all money enough to buy a supper when they started, but by the success of their magnificent enterprise, they became railroad kings, with a fortune of twenty millions apiece.

M. Jules Simon, the eminent French statesman, has quiet dignity, ease, a cool head, and the faculty to simulate warmth and genuine emotion. As a speaker he steers clear of declamation, and can draw at will on veins of irony and sarcasm which he gently infuses and as if in a casual way.

Noadiah M. Hill, an old gentleman who died near Albany, N. Y., recently, read and understood Hebrew, Arabic, Mogrebin Arabic, Persian, Armenian, Turkish, Hindoostan, Oranburg, Tartar, Estrangleo, Transcaucasian Tartar, Greek, Latin, German, French, Italian, Spanish, Dutch, Flemish, Anglo-Saxon and many other tongues.

An old farmer on the coast of Maine, in the vicinity of Bar Harbor, watched with deep interest the projects of a wealthy land owner, who had built an elegant summer cottage and was buying up real estate right and left. "I declare," exclaimed he, "I don't believe but what he won't be satisfied till he buys up all the land that jines him."

A woman accustomed to preparing food for the sick found it necessary to support herself. She tried sending cake to the women's exchange, but was not successful. She then thought of delicacies and tempting tidbits for invalids, and she has been so successful in this undertaking as to reap a rich harvest. The rich and the poor both patronize her, and the comfort to hotel and boarding-house residents can hardly be told.

"A LITTLE NONSENSE."

Many college boys can scan Latin verse who can not Scandinavian.

Train robberies are becoming so frequent that when the conductor shouts "Tickets!" all the passengers hold up their hands.—Chicago News.

A hen off her base way to hatch. A ship a hatchway has to match. But while the hen one egg can lay, The ship can lay to every day. —Iowa State Register.
