

INDIANS FOUND THE CURE

It is well known in the materia medica that the greatest remedies are compounded from the juices extracted from natural herbs. The humble child of the forest, whose untutored mind knew nothing of our advanced medical science, has nevertheless been instrumental in teaching the great doctors of this age the elementary principles of their profession.

PARISIAN FUNERALS.

Burial Takes Place Two Days After Death, or Even Sooner. The French method of dying must necessarily be similar to that of the entire remaining world, but the same thing can not be said of their funerals.

ing the Moorish troops in Algeria, says: that what seemed to astonish them most was the fact that if they believed in Jesus Christ they must leave their sins.

"O to be dead and done with the trouble That fills each day with a dreary pain." This is the moan of many a woman. Who thinks she can never be well again.

Anger banishes reflection, but its consequences recall it.

The Chamber of Torture Is the apartment to which the unhappy sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism is confined. Here the crisis of pain is reached, that fine period, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is used by persons of a rheumatic tendency.

The feeling of distrust is always the last which a great mind acquires.

Catarrh

Is a complaint which affects nearly everybody, more or less: It originates in a cold, or succession of colds, combined with impure blood. Disagreeable flow from the nose, tickling in the throat, offensive breath, pain over and between the eyes, ringing and bursting noise in the ears, are the more common symptoms.

"For several years I have been troubled with that terribly disagreeable disease, catarrh. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla with the very best results. It cured me of that continual dropping in my throat, and stuffed-up feeling. It has also helped my mother, who has taken it for her down state of health and kidney trouble.

Some years ago I was thrown from a horse in McLennan county, and received a frightful wound on one of my legs. For more than a year I was unable to walk. The wound ulcerated and refused to heal, and every one thought I would have to submit to amputation. S. S. S. was recommended, and I used it freely, and I shall never get through thanking S. S. S. for saving my leg, and restoring me to perfect health.
