MASS MEETING.

Nearly all our citizens turned out Monday evening at Union Hall to hear and consider the proposition of O'Neil Brothers to build a paper mill in Lebanon. Negotiations for lands, water power and rights of way had been agreed upon the Saturday before. J. J. Swan was, on motion of R. C. Miller, unanimously called to the chair, and M. A. Miller made secretary. After several enthusiastic speeches, on motion of F. M. Miller, Esq., it was unanimously agreed to build a $50,000 paper mill, conditioned that we raise a subsidy of $5000. On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to raise the money: J. R. Kirkpatrick, chairman; C. B. Montague, Charles Ralston, Wm. Guy, Joe Nixon, Dr. L. Foley and J. M. Marks. How well they succeeded in three days, will be found in another column.

Shirt Was To Short.

A pretty joke is told of one of the young lady teachers in the Baker school. On Monday a small urchin entered the school room, with an exquisitely dirty face and hands. The teacher bade him to go and wash himself. In a few minutes the boy returned with his hands nicely washed and wiped. His face also had been washed but only the lower portion had been wiped dry, the rest of his face was dripping with water. On being told to return and wipe his face he said, "But teacher I can't." Naturally surprised, the teacher asked why he could not follow her instruction, in as much as he had succeeded in washing his face and hands and wiping them so nicely, as far as he had gone. The small boy answered, while the big tears ran down his cheek: "My shirt ain't long enough." The answer was followed by silence, succeeded by a suppressed titter the young lady was so embarrassed that she can't look at a belt of sheeting without blushing up to her ears.—Union.

Men stand in their shops waiting for the trade which does not come. Farmers hesitate about increasing their stock, or cultivated acres, owing to low prices. A pay roll made up of hundred of men engaged in manufacturing enterprise, will change all of this. Two hundred men put on the pay roll means a thousand more population with money to buy the farmers produce as well as the shop keepers goods.

The power of self-control is one of the best blessings that comes with sanctified life. He who ruleth his own spirit is better than he that taketh a city; better in the qualities of courage, endurance, discretion and dignity. And yet a thousand men are ambitious to take a city where one desires to control his temper.

BECAUSE.

I sit upon the sidewalk.
And breathe the summer air.
I sit upon the sidewalk
Because I have no chair.

A sweet girl sits beside me.
The reason is implied;
A sweet girl sits beside me
Because I'm by her side.

I ask her if she loves me
The best of all her beaux;
I ask her if she loves me
Because I know she knows.

She says she will not tell me
And as I start to go
She says she will not tell me
Because she knows I know.

Pray leave us, gentle reader;
Don't hesitate or pause;
But leave us, gentle reader
Because—well just because.

NOTICE AS TO MONEY!

Persons who owe me MUST PAY UP NOW.

I do not propose to waste much time in dunning. In fact there are some who imagine they should not be dunned at all, but it takes money to do business. Do not be surprised if you find the note or account you may happen to owe me in the hands of an officer for Very Prompt Payment.

The long, weary credit business is a thing of the past in Lebanon.
