

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Rev. G. W. Giboney preached in Oregon City Sunday.

M. A. Miller invites everybody to come and see his holiday assortment.

Hurray for Miller's display of holiday goods. The paper mill is no where.

J. M. Ralston and wife, of Albany, passed Thanksgiving with their friends at Lebanon.

W. G. Brown, of Woodburn, was in town this week to witness the marriage of his sister.

J. Brown has purchased a lot near Wm. Retherford's and is building a dwelling on it.

A. G. Williams has rented and moved into the building just north of Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick's.

Three new buildings are going up this week, and we understand more will be commenced next week.

Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick and Mr. J. Wesson left on last Tuesday for Seattle to look at some real estate in that city.

A concert will be held in the M. E. Church Friday evening, Dec. 6, which promises to be a rare treat. All should attend.

A party of ten surveyors who have been at work above Sweet Home, came out last week on account of the bad weather.

Mrs. Riley and Mrs. Carr have given up the dining room of the Exchange hotel, and Mr. J. Nixon now has charge of it.

Rev. Bishop, of Portland, spent Sunday in town. He preached at the C. P. Church at 11 o'clock. His many friends at this place are always glad to see him.

On last Thursday the ladies of the First Presbyterian church gave a sociable at the residence of Mr. J. J. Swan. All who attended report having had a nice time.

Mr. Brown has our thanks for a plate of wedding cake. If there is anything more than another will make the eyes of our devil look like new moon, it is wedding cake.

There are more than 40,000 Chinese in San Francisco. They form nearly one-seventh of the city's population, and it is computed that they send $12,000,000 a year from their earnings to China.

More work for the census takers and one more addition to the population of our town—a real live baby at Mr. Menzie's, who is all smiles and says he is now papa. Mother and baby doing well.

Sixteen Polk county farmers have brought suits amounting to $16,000 against the Southern Pacific railroad for loss sustained by their grain being burned last summer, alleging the fires to be started from fires from locomotives.

J. B. Huddleson, of Waterloo, filed a complaint against Al. Fielding, charging him with shooting a cow. The constable arrested Fielding last Tuesday and brought him to Lebanon. By the advice of friends the parties settled the matter without allowing it to come to a suit.

The action of the inspector of hulls in allowing the Fearless, wrecked at the mouth of the Umpqua last week to go to sea is very generally condemned by the people of Gardiner and vicinity as the fact that she was not seaworthy was notorious. The inspector had forbidden her to go to sea, but afterwards countermanded the order, and thus caused the death of at least nine persons.

Tuesday noon at one o'clock was the time set for the hearing of a petition subscribed to by Miss Lena Drubulle in County Judge Blackburn's court, of a somewhat sensational nature. The petition alleges that Mrs. H. C. Hubbard has treated her child, a little girl three years old, in a cruel manner by beating her. The petition further asks that the child be taken away from its parents and given into the custody of some charitable institution. A writ of arrest was issued for the child, which was given into the custody of Mrs. Fred Blumberg pending the suit, and the parents were cited to appear and show cause why such petition be not granted. The latter filed an answer denying every allegation and alleging that the child had been kindly treated. The case was postponed until 9 A. M. to-day.

NEWS ITEMS.

Holiday Books at Miller's drug store.

Miss Fannie Griggs spent the latter part of this week in Albany.

The ball at Union Hall last evening was a success in every particular.

Christmas is coming, and you want to secure one of those nice presents at M. A. Miller's at once.

Rev. F. H. Calder preached the Thanksgiving sermon at the M. E. Church at 11 o'clock yesterday.

Mr. Ed. Oncil left this week for California to make arrangements to start to work to put in the paper mill.

Robert Montague and Charlie Ralston, who are now attending school at Albany, spent Thanksgiving at their homes in this city.

Chicken Bristle was again heard from this week, through the columns of the Democrat, much to the sorrow of one of our young drug clerks.

The supper given by the M. E. Church Thanksgiving eve was a grand success, the ladies realizing a handsome profit from the proceeds.

A pleasant party was given at the residence of Mr. Jas. Davidson last evening, which was heartily enjoyed by all present. May we have many more such social gatherings.

It is said by our local hunters that deer are far more plentiful in this county now than they were two years ago. This happy state of things is simply the result of a well observed (not enforced) law.—Prineville News.

An auction sale of jewelry, musical instruments and notions—all very cheap goods—is being held at the old stand of Peebler & Buhl, and as usual people are buying these goods. It is strange people will trade with these or any other traveling salesmen when they can patronize our home merchants, from whom they know they are getting good reliable articles.

N. B. Harris and E. L. Liggett have been in town this week working up and soliciting bonds for an Educational Endowment company that has started in Portland. They sell bonds of 1000, payable in 5, 10, 15 or 20 years. They have done well at this place, some of our best citizens having taken stock in it. They have secured the services of J. R. Kirkpatrick as local agent and intend organizing a local board at this place. This, we think, is a real good thing and has good men backing it. Hon. M. C. George, formerly of this place, being its president. It offers some fine advantages to young men wishing to save money.

Do not buy any eastern trash when you can get those splendid Buckingham & Hecht goods at Montague's Mammoth store and also at his One Price Cash Store.

Commencing next week some time, Jay Denning, J. H. Stine and E. O. Chamness, will begin the publication of a weekly newspaper in Independence. The field is very small for two papers, but close application and careful cultivation may make it more productive.—West Side.

To say you can't do a thing is equivalent to saying you won't do it. With all the advantages surrounding this town, with the opportunities to produce the things that the world must have, and is willing to pay for, it seems to us that our people should drop the word "can't" from their vocabulary. We can if we will and if we say we can and will the thing is accomplished.

Men stand in their shops waiting for the trade which does not come. Farmers hesitate about increasing their stock, or cultivated acres, owing to low prices. A pay roll made up for hundreds of men engaged in manufacturing enterprises, will change all this. Two hundred men put on a pay roll means a thousand more population with money to buy the farmers products as well as the shop keepers goods.

The Oregon deer seem to be getting dangerous. A pet deer recently went after an old gentleman in Polk county, knocking him down and trampling upon him until rescuers, attracted by the old gentleman's cries, drove off the irate animal. The old gentleman would have been killed in a few minutes. That "pet" went into the venison market immediately.

Iron is rolled so thin at the Pittsburg Iron Mills that 12,000 sheets are required to make a single inch in thickness. Light shines through one of these sheets as readily as it does through greased tissue paper.

At our present rate of growth the population of the United States will be nearly up to 70,000,000 in the year of the international exposition.

OBITUARY.

BROWN — At South Brownsville, Nov. 25, 1889, aged 45 years, eleven months, thirteen days, Amelia L., wife of John Brown.

He giveth his beloved sleep.—Ps. 127: 2.

Mrs. John Brown (nee Miss Amelia L. Spaulding) was born December 12, 1846, and was the youngest daughter of Amelia and Rev. H. H. Spaulding, pioneer missionaries to the coast, made memorable to Oregon history by the Whitman massacre of early days. From injuries received, Mrs. Brown has for the past twenty years been a confirmed invalid, and although for that space of time she has been unable to move from her bed, she has, during the afflictions of this long period of suffering and sickness, passed the time with true Christian resignation and patience, without murmur or complaint. But a short time has elapsed since the demise of her eldest daughter, on which occasion her system, already weakened by confinement and sickness, sustained a severe nervous shock, from which she has never rallied, and although all has been done that wealth or the best medical attendance could do, after the last attack, which has lasted for the past month, she, on the morning of Monday the 25th inst., bid her friends adieu, and the spirit of this Christian wife and mother fluttered from its frail earthly tenement, and like a pure white dove winged its way to heaven and a happy home above. On the occasion of the funeral ceremonies, at the Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, on Nov. 26, at 10 A. M., Rev. Carpus Sperry delivered to a large assemblage an eloquent address, the deceased being accompanied to her last earthly resting place by a great number of sympathizing friends.

So He calls them in from their labors ere the shadows 'round them creep, And silently watches o'er them, He giveth His loved ones sleep.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

The following is what the Seis Press says in regard to our paper mill:

Lebanon is to have a paper mill. Her people seem determined not to be left out in the race for growth and prosperity, and at last accounts had about raised the five thousand dollar bonus demanded for the establishment of a paper mill in that city, so near, indeed, that the enterprise may be set down as an accomplished fact. This means a great deal for the handsome little city of Lebanon—it means an immediate addition to her population, new capital will be attracted, additional enterprises will be opened up, city and country realty will advance, and the communities thereabout will soon be on top of the great tidal wave of prosperity that is now so grandly sweeping over Oregon. The Press is glad to note and commend the enterprising and liberal spirit manifested by the leading spirits of Lebanon, and predict that the beneficial results in this one enterprise, in the near future, will be so marvelous as to be a matter of surprise and congratulation to her most ardent admirers. All honor to the grand men who give liberally of their substance to build up and increase the general prosperity.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned under the firm name of A. R. Cyrus & Co. is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by W. C. Peterson at the place of business heretofore occupied by the firm. Witness our hand and seals this 12th day of November 1889.

A. R. CYRUS. [Seal.]
W. C. PETERSON. [Seal.]

CONCERT.

At the M. E. Church Friday evening December 6, 1889, Miss Hallie M. Parish, the "Sweet Singer of Salem," will render some of her choice selections. Best home talent will assist in making the programme a success. Admission, 25 cents.

For Sale.

Harness shop in a growing, prosperous town, nicely situated. For particulars inquire of this office.

Also blacksmith shop and lots in a good lively town, which has good schools. For particulars inquire at this office.

Cruson & Menzie's will furnish your windows and doors cheap.

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS BY A CUSTOMER OF C. C. HACKLEMAN.

Thankful I am not a Chinaman nor a Hotentot.
Thankful that I live in Lebanon.
Thankful I am not President of the United States.
Thankful I do my trading with Hackleman.
Thankful I am smart enough to know a bargain when I see it.
Thankful I see a bargain every time I go to Hackleman's.
Thankful I am not a hard case.
Thankful times are not hard.
Thankful Hackleman is not hard to deal with.
Thankful I have some hard cash.
Thankful I am not hard up.
Thankful I have saved money this year by trading with Hackleman.
Thankful that I am thankful.
Thankful for Hackleman's new stock.
Thankful for his low prices.
Thankful Hackleman's trade is increasing.
Thankful that people grow smarter every day.

Thankful when people are smart as I am, and trade with

C. C. HACKLEMAN,

Lebanon, Oregon.

LUMBER.

All parties contemplating building, or desiring lumber for any other purpose whatever would do well to call on

R. R. HUMPHREY

At his lumber yard at this place or at the sawmill.

We have on hand a first-class stock of Rough and Clear Lumber.

Bills of all kinds filled on short notice.

Give me a call

Before Purchasing Elsewhere.

R. R. HUMPHREY.

MARRIED.

Bardwell and Brown, at the residence of Mr. Brown of Lebanon, Nov. 28, 1889, by the Rev. Geo. W. Giboney, Mr. W. G. Bardwell and Miss Anna B. Brown.

Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Foren, on Sunday, Nov. 17, by Rev. Israel Carlton, Mr. Charles Clark to Miss Nellie Foren.

Oxford and family bibles at Miller's, the leading druggist.

Now is the time to have your buggy repaired, and J. T. Harbin will fix it for you.

M. A. Miller has been putting some shelving in his store for his holiday goods.

Joe Harbin has a first-class veterinary surgeon at his blacksmith shop.

13 acres of land, good house, barn and improvements, in Lebanon, for sale cheap on Easy Terms. Inquire of Dr. Ballard.

Bedrock prices, new goods and standard brands at both the Mammoth and One Price Cash Stores of C. B. Montague.

Our goods reach us direct from the manufactory and every pair of our boots and shoes are fully warranted. When you need any boots or shoes look over Montague's large new stock.

Newport, Benton county, is talking of a National Bank.

It is something of an indication of growth in Oregon, to know that 21 of the assessment rolls filed with the secretary of state show an increase over the returns of last year.

In Chicago recently the sale of seats to hear patti sing during the season reached the snug little sum of $50,000. That kind of warbling evidently pays.

FARMS WANTED TO SELL.

E. G. Beardsley.

REAL ESTATE AGENT.

BROADALBIN ST., ALBANY, OREGON.

Farms and City Property for sale. Correspondence solicited. P. O. Box 341.

Begg's Cough Cure

Is giving splendid satisfaction to the trade and the sales are positively marvelous, which can be accounted for in no other way except that it is without doubt the best in the market. Ask for and be sure you get the genuine. We keep it. M. A. Miller, Druggist.

In a recent article in the Youth's Companion, on "How to cure a cold," the writer advises a hot lemonade to be taken at bed time. It is a dangerous treatment, especially during the severe cold weather of the winter months, as it opens the pores of the skin and leaves the system in such condition that another and much more severe cold is almost certain to be contracted. Many years constant use and the experience of thousands of persons of all ages, has fully demonstrated that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts in perfect harmony with nature, leaves the lungs, liquefies the tough, tenacious mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and restores the system strong and healthy condition. 1 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

M. A. Miller returned from Portland Saturday, where he had purchased a stock of holiday goods. He says he will open about the first of the season the largest and most complete stock of holiday goods ever brought to the city.