he holidays are over and you must lean on your political pot as it will soon be brought into use. A full set of county officers, a state senator and representatives, are to be elected, besides the state officers. So our citizens had better begin to think who would make good candidates.

There is more talk than anything else about war in Central America. Every petty village row or neighborhood squabble is called a revolution, and every fight between roving bands of ruffians or outlaws is magnified into a war.

A man died in Fayette county, Georgia, last week, who had lived sixty-one years in the same house, and was the father of thirty-two children, seventeen by one wife and fifteen by another, and grandchildren and great grandchildren "too numerous to mention."

Language is hardly strong enough to express my admiration of the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the best remedy for croup and whooping cough I have ever used. During the past eighteen years I have tried nearly all the prominent cough medicines on the market but say, and with pleasure too, that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best of all. Thomas Rhodes, Bakersfield, California. For sale by M. A. Miller.
