

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

J. W. Menzies has been quite sick, but is now convalescent.

Last Saturday Joseph Buhl bought of J. Nixon the Exchange hotel.

Mr. Springer has moved into his new home on the Kirkpatrick addition.

Mr. Charles Parry and sister, of Glasgow, are visiting their cousin W. C. Peterson.

T. C. Pedler has rented the barroom of the Exchange hotel, and will use it for his real estate office.

The mercury reached 11 degrees above zero one morning this week, the coldest weather we have had this winter.

The Jefferson Review is the name of a new paper just established at Jefferson. This is the fourth paper started in Marion county in twelve months.

Continued meetings in the M. E. Church. Every one should attend and try to make them a success. Let all, especially who profess to be Christians let it be known.

The meetings at the M. E. Church are still in progress and are growing in interest very much. Rev. Elworthy of Brownsville has been here the most of the week assisting the pastor.

Dr. C. H. Duckett has moved his dental office from the room over Hackleman's to a more convenient place, on Main street near Cotton's grocery and Peterson and Wallace's real estate office.

Rev. A. LeRoy's lecture last Friday was much enjoyed by all who attended. He will deliver another one of his lectures in the C. P. Church next Monday evening, which will well be worth your time to attend, so come out and hear him.

The following officers of Lebanon Lodge No. 47, I. O. O. F., were duly installed by District Deputy Stanish, of Brownsville, Saturday, January 4, 1890: S. A. Nickerson, N. G.; G. H. Bland, V. G.; J. M. Settler, Recording Secretary; Joseph Wasson, Permanent Secretary; W. C. Peterson, Treasurer.

There were 145 marriages in Linn county for 1889, as shown by the records in the County Clerk's office. The number shows an increase in keeping with the real estate market, building, etc., the increase being fifteen over 1888, and thirty-three over 1887. As in the past October was the banner month for marriages.

Saturday evening as Dr. B. C. Hill was walking along one of the streets in Albany he stepped off a step and fell headlong, bruising himself up considerably. His son, Dr. J. D. Hill attended him and sat up with him all night. He being an old man of eighty-two years of age, it is hoped his injuries will not prove serious.

A tramp broke into the section house at Jefferson one day last week, and was about to steal the contents when he was discovered by a Chinaman, who ran to the section boss and gave the alarm. The tramp was given into the hands of the marshal and held over, after having been given a preliminary examination, to await the action of the grand jury charged with grand larceny.

Mr. W. H. Greenwood, the photographer, informs us that his wife left his home on New Year's day to go to a neighbor's, and since then has not been seen. He reports everything to have been amicable between them. Mr. Greenwood's version is that when in a hysterical mood, to which she was subject, she went off on one of the trains, perhaps with the idea that she would go to her parents in Nebraska. The fact, though, that she took no extra clothing and very little money makes it look mysterious to Mr. Greenwood as well as the public generally, and any information as to her whereabouts will be thankfully received by Mr. Greenwood.

Died, January 7, 1890, Mrs. S. A. Ridgway, aged 63 years. Mrs. Ridgway was born in Ohio, July 11, 1822. She came with her family to Oregon in 1864 and located in Lebanon in 1865. She leaves an aged husband, six sons and four daughters. Deceased was a great sufferer. For the past five years she has been confined to her bed with paralysis of her limbs and hips. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Calder at the C. P. Church. She has passed beyond this sphere of pain and disappointment and suffering. May angel spirits administer to her in that same bright clime where parting will be no more.

NEWS ITEMS.

Ben N. L. New, of Bilo, will fill the pulpits Sunday.

Remember the lecture at the C. P. Church next Monday night.

W. J. Guy had four wagons running nearly all night last Wednesday, storing ice for summer.

A. B. Cyrus, now of Astoria, is in town this week visiting his family and selling Astoria property.

J. Born, to the wife of Clifford Cooper, at Wrensburg, Jan. 7, 1890, a boy, weight nine pounds. Mother and child doing well.

The snow has fallen so deep in the Cascade mountains that the contractors on the Oregon Pacific have been compelled to cease work for the present.

Mrs. Sarah Lane, mother of J. H. Lane, of Halsey, died at her home at that place on the eighth inst at the advanced age of 89 years. She came Oregon from Indiana in 1838, and has lived for many years in Linn county, where she had many warm friends.

People who have visited the Willamette valley, or resided here for a time and returned to the east, generally come to the conclusion that this valley is far ahead of any other place they have found. For scenery, variety climate and opportunity, no place equals it. California may be a nice state, but taken the year round, western Oregon is far ahead of her.

Last week there was a light fall of snow and a slight freeze, and on Sunday night there was more snow, which made about five inches on a level. On Wednesday night a strong south wind and some rain fell, and all of the snow will be gone in a day or two.

Monday was election day at this place. Everything went off quietly and without much excitement, but above all good men were elected to fill the different offices; men whom we think will advance the interests of Lebanon as much as possible. Below are the names of the officers elected: D. Andrews, president; W. C. Peterson, recorder; J. A. Rolieris, treasurer; F. M. Miller, marshal; C. C. Hackleman, W. B. Donaca, J. S. Courtney and J. J. Swan, councilmen.

Beard & Holt have the finest albums in the city.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to Cruson & Menzies, be kind enough to call and settle at once.

The best job work is done by the Express.

Pure blood Wyandotte chickens for sale by R. S. Roberts.

One good four-year-old horse for sale cheap—well broke—apply at this office and get a bargain.

First-class work at McClure's barber shop.

Wheeler is running his saw-mill at full blast is ready to fill all orders.

For sale, a fine young horse, four years old, well broken in. Apply at this office.

Cruson & Menzies are prepared to furnish you with doors and windows cheaper than anyone else in Lebanon.

We call especial attention to the new and of Barrows & Seales, of Albany. They are both gentlemen of large and varied experience in the mercantile business; having each travelled for years over the greater part of the United States, and now they have located at Albany with goods at rock-bottom prices. Call and see them.

Mr. E. P. Levejoy, a large dealer in general merchandise at Wabuska, Nevada, says: "I have tried St. Patrick's Pills and can truthfully say they are the best I have ever taken or known used." As a pleasant physic or for disorders of the liver they will always give perfect satisfaction. For sale by M. A. Miller.

Two Insane Patients. Deputy Misener reached Salem by the overland last night from Portland bringing with him a couple of patients for treatment in the asylum for Insane. One was a man named J. M. Parsons, aged 27 years and violently insane. The other was Dr. David W. Odell, aged 60 years, who has once before received treatment at this institution. He is not violent, but is at times unmanageable. He was quite happy at the thought of being returned to the asylum. Mr. Misener had no assistance in coming from Portland with these unfortunates.—Salem Journal.

We are reliably informed that the above-mentioned Dr. Odell is the physician who practiced at Sodaville last summer.

OBITUARY.

He C. Kees was born in Linn county, Oregon, on Dec. 25, 1860. Her father, B. F. Carter, died, leaving her mother, who was an invalid, with five children. Nellie being at that time ten years of age. The loss of the father threw the care of the mother and rugged battles of life upon those of tender years, and in a great measure deprived the children of the advantages of securing an education, the eldest sister marrying when Nellie was about fifteen, her girlhood developed those traits of character that made her a favorite with all who knew her.

Always turning to the bright side of every cloud, during her last illness of some nine weeks, five of which were spent on a bed of pain and great suffering, which she bore without a murmur, often speaking cheerfully to those who ministered to her wants.

Nellie C. Carter was married to A. A. Kees on September 28, 1882, and from that time to her death on December 31, 1889, she proved a loving and devoted wife. The birth of their only child crowned her with the richest diadem—a mother's love. She was converted some four years ago. While not uniting with any particular branch of the church she lived a consistent Christian. A short time prior to her death she said: "If my Saviour calls I am ready to go." She leaves a mother, two brothers, one sister, a husband and a little daughter four years of age, and a large circle of relatives and friends, for she was a friend to all who knew her.

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore. And bright in heaven's jeweled crown They shine forevermore.

There is no death! The leaves may fall, And flowers may fade and pass a way; They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May.

There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread; He bears our best loved things away; And then we call them "dead."

And ever near us, though unseen, The dear immortal spirit tread; For all the homeless universe Is life—there is no dead.

SCHOOL NOTES.

With your permission I try once more to give a few notes from our school. Hope to have my notes appear often hereafter, provided these do not find their way to the waste basket, as I fear they might.

The joys of holidays are quickly past and we are at our post again, after many "fams," we are ready for business again.

The past week has been a jolly one, for many a snow-ball has been let fly to an unsuspecting party, but quite ready for the emergency, as snow was quite convenient. But all pleasures must pass away, just so the beautiful snow melts from our vision.

Rev. A. LeRoy called around at our school one day last week, but to our great loss, school had closed.

Two new pupils have been added to our school—Miss Nellie Holt, of Eugene, and Clarence Chriver. Several of former pupils have returned.

The spelling match last Friday was very interesting, and we hope to entertain as many visitors as would like to come this Friday, by recitations and selections. All invited. R-S.

Dissolution Notice. Lebanon, Oregon, Jan. 1, 1890.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership existing between J. S. Courtney and P. R. Ballard, known as the firm of Des. Courtney & Ballard, has been dissolved, and all parties knowing themselves indebted to said firm will please settle with J. S. Courtney.

J. S. COURTNEY, P. R. BALLARD.

A Good Cough Syrup. There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown upon the market. The best is none too good. Be sure and get Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup. We keep it on hand at all times. M. A. Miller, Druggist.

What a Fortune Is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face, and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of Begg's Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. M. A. Miller, Druggist.

Bedrock prices, new goods and standard brands at both the Mammoth and One Price Cash Stores of C. B. Montague.

HERE Goes For 1890. Image of a man and a bottle.

WHILE WE RATIFY THE TERMS OF OUR CONSTITUTION FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

ON HACKLEMAN'S PART.

HE PROMISES TO PROTECT THE INTERESTS OF CUSTOMERS BY PROVIDING

The Best Goods, The Newest Goods, The Cheapest Goods,

To all persons alike, regardless of age, sex or condition. He expects on your part

YOUR CONTINUED PATRONAGE

JUST SO LONG AS YOU FIND THAT

HACKLEMAN

Gives you more and treats you better than any other dealer, wishing you a Happy New Year.

C. C. HACKLEMAN, Lebanon, Oregon.

Lebanon, Oregon.

FARMS WANTED TO SELL. E. G. Beardsley, REAL ESTATE AGENT. BROADALBIN ST., ALBANY, OREGON.

Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup. Is giving splendid satisfaction to the trade and the sales are positively marvelous, which can be accounted for in no other way except that it is without doubt the best in the market. Ask for and be sure you get the genuine. We keep it. M. A. Miller, Druggist.

Cruson & Menzies will furnish your windows and doors cheap. Our goods reach us direct from the manufactory and every pair of our boots and shoes are fully warranted. When you need any boots or shoes look over Montague's large new stock.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. United States Land Office, Oregon City, Oregon, Nov. 8, 1889. NOTICE is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 8, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon Nevada and Washington Territory."

COLUMBIA BICYCLES AND TRICYCLES ARE THE MOST Stanch and Reliable ROADSTERS ON THE MARKET. Do not fail to buy a Columbia. NORMAN SMITH, Agent, Lebanon, Oregon.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Land Office at Oregon City, Oregon, December 7, 1889. Notice is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the county judge or in his absence before the county clerk of Linn county, at Albany, Oregon, on Thursday, January 16, 1890, viz: Robert A. Cooper, homestead entry No. 1210, for the S 1/4 of sec. 8, T. 12S., R. 1W.