

SOUTHERN RACE TROUBLES.

There are three distinct causes of irritation and disturbances at the South. These are political, social and moral, and the first is a greater source of evil than all others combined. There can be no satisfactory adjustment, no permanent peace between the two races at the South, until the negro abandons politics and bids farewell to political glory in these states.

A persistent effort on the part of the negro to attain that which he never can attain will inevitably lead to a conflict, the horrors of which are unimaginable. It is a foregone conclusion that the colored element can never become a ruling class in any of the southern states, no matter how much they may predominate in numbers in white communities. Every political leader of the race knows this to be an undeniable fact. It is this relentless persistency on the part of the one race to be, and the relentless persistency on the part of the other to prevent it from being—and prevent it they will at all cost—that causes the trouble. It is no use to deny these facts; it would rather be wise if we would recognize them in time to avert the evils that must follow every futile attempt in that direction.

It is unreasonable for the people of the North to expect that of the people of the South which they themselves do not accord the negro. It is unreasonable for any people to expect the wealth, intelligence and refinement of a community to yield passive obedience and become submissive to the domination of its ignorant and more illiterate class, and so long as there is a persistency in this direction, encouraged by unprincipled politicians for sinister motives, so long will there be serious conflicts between the two elements. The negro must abandon politics for a time and strip himself of all delusive and visionary ideas of political honor and preferment in those states and turn his attention to the industrial pursuits that mark the prosperity and progressiveness of every other race around him.

We call especial attention to the new ad. of Barrows & Seales, of Albany. They are both gentlemen of large and varied experience in the mercantile business; having each travelled for years over the greater part of the United States, and now they have located at Albany with goods at rock-bottom prices. Call and see them.

Language is hardly strong enough to express my admiration of the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the best remedy for croup and whooping cough I have ever used. During the past eighteen years I have tried nearly all the prominent cough medicines on the market but say, and with pleasure too, that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best of all. Thomas Rhodes, Bakersfield, California. For sale by M. A. Miller.

Last winter Mr. H. E. Kinkade, collector for the United States Express company, at Des Moines, Iowa, was severely troubled with chilblains. The swelling and intense itching of his feet was a great annoyance to him. He tried several remedies without benefit, but fortunately bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says he only applied it three times until his feet were entirely well and free from itching and swelling. For sale by M. A. Miller.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office.

NOTICE is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber land in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory,"

PETER FARRELL, of Vancouver, county of Clark, territory of Washington, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement 1777, for the purchase of the sels of sec. 33, in Township 12 South, Range 2 East, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Monday, the 2d day of March, 1890.

He names as witnesses John Flanagan, W. W. Probstel, A. Probstel and David Madden, all of Vancouver, Clarke County, W. T.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 2d day of March, 1890.
