

SWEET HOME NOTES.

SWEET HOME, OR., Feb. 1, 1890.

EDITOR EXPRESS:

It is now we enjoy, to our heart's content, a continued "Oregon mist." The snow is fast disappearing on the foothills; the face of mother earth, enshrouded for some time past with a coat of pure snow; but the wind from the south and west has brought the "magic wand," and the stock men feel relieved by again seeing the vernal garb (a happy and sure sign of an early spring), peering out on every hand. As is generally known, the people of this vicinity are as happy and contented as can be found in any part of the "Willamette valley," and as a rule they have many reasons for said condition. All nature seems to favor them, soil being productive, health unusually good, and the climate rather more genial than in many other sections, we are necessarily a contented people, but in all ages and among all men times come and events occur that cause men to mourn; such times have come many times in the past, and as such times have come many times in the past and as some have just occurred among us we stop to call the attention of those not directly, but personally interested, this entire community has two reasons to express their heartfelt sympathy to two bereaved families. On January 25 Dr. J. N. Gilbert died, leaving a wife and child. Although in one sense they are strangers among us, yet they have our entire sympathy. On January 30th Mrs. J. Shea died, leaving a husband and six children and a host of friends, in fact she was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and the family has the sympathy of the entire community. There are other friends and neighbors sick, among them Miss Alice Jackson, who has been in a very critical condition, but is reported a little better, and it is to be hoped she has passed the most critical point and will speedily recover, but many friends are anxiously waiting for more favorable symptoms, and the present heavy rainstorms are received as favorable omens and nearly everyone feels that as Oregonians we need real west-foot weather, feeling the truth of the idiom that for a climate to keep the inhabitants healthy requires the climate to which they have been acclimated, it is to be hoped that in our next article may be as much of life and joy as now of grief.

A great many cattle have been lost in the foothills and great numbers are very poor, and many will yet die if the cold rains continue.

The following names were on the roll of honor in school district No. 58 for the months of December and January, with annexed standing in deportment, punctuality and scholarship:

Eunice M. McCormick	100	100	100
Hunter F. McCormick	99	100	100
Bessie Howes	100	100	100
Paul Howes	100	100	100
Pearl L. Howes	100	100	100
Charles M. Howes	100	100	100

Wm. O. Bland is working on his homestead. He has bought the place known as the John Geisentaner ranch, and from the way he is clearing up the means business and it will not be long before he will make a good showing.

J. G. Clark is making quite a clearing on his homestead. By the way, John knows how to make a permanent showing.

S. A. Devaney will have a house on his claim within thirty days, and he hopes to have his family on it in thirty days.

Geo. W. Howes has a fine ranch and has done much hard work on it. He and W. E. Simons expect to go back to Simon's ranch trapping in a few days.

Frank H. McCormick and family are just recovering from a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. McCormick has been burning quite a number of trees to open the way for a garden and for grass.

The Rusie Brothers are making some splendid photographs, and soon as the weather opens they will be prepared to do good work.

Hugh Harris is making great improvement on his place.

A. F. Hamilton is selling goods just as cheap as they can be bought in the county, and buys all kinds of produce. More soon.

LA GRIPPE.

Language is hardly strong enough express my admiration of the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the best remedy for croup and whooping cough I have ever used. During the past eighteen years I have tried nearly all the prominent cough medicines on the market but say, and with pleasure too, that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best of all. Thomas Rhodes, Bakersfield, California. For sale by M. A. Miller.

For a lame back try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain balm and binding it on to the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, sprains, swellings and lumbago. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Filed States Land Office, )
NOTICE is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory,"

PETER FARRELL, of Vancouver, county of Clark, territory of Washington, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement 1777, for the purchase of the 26 1/2 sec. 30, in Township 12 South, Range 2 East, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Monday, the 2d day of March, 1890.

He names as witnesses John Flinnan, W. W. Probstel, A. Urnschot and David Madden, all of Vancouver, Clark County, W. T.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 2d day of March, 1890.

J. T. AFTERSON, Register.
