A SUICIDE AVERTED.

Two men met at the edge of a precipice. One said to the other: "What are you doing here bothering me? I am going to drown myself; I am a wood worker and am discontented—going to put an end to my career by jumping from this bluff. What are you doing here bothering me?" "I am going to do the same thing, for I am a blacksmith and am disgusted with the people; they are bothering me to death. I can't make them happy by doing their work satisfactorily or any other way. Unless I can get the help of some good wood worker I must surely jump from the cliff." "Don't, brother, for I will quell the storm. Brace up now, and we will do better than ever." So they went to work with a will. Look at the result—there was never a more economical piece of work put on the field than the "Common Sense Harbin Harrow," put up by Joseph Harbin, Red Front Shop, Lebanon, Oregon.

How to Cure La Grippe.

Mr. George Tennant, of this city, in conversation with a representative of the Mail and Times, one evening this week, said: "Yes, I took this prevailing influenza. I gave up work and went to bed. I had a dreadful cough and was very sick, but am all right now." We ventured to ask what remedy had proven successful in his case. "O, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I used a whole bottle; it brought me out all right; I feel first-rate now. We are never without Chamberlain's medicines in the house.—Des Moines mail and Times.

This testimony is only one of many that might be given to show the value of these preparations. Those who are afflicted with this malady would do well to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If used as directed it will be found effectual. Fifty cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

A Good Cough Syrup.

There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown upon the market. The best is none too good. Be sure and get Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup. We keep it on hand at all times. M. A. Miller, Druggist.

Our goods reach us direct from the manufactory and every pair of our boots and shoes are fully warranted. When you need any boots or shoes look over Montague's large new stock.
