Mr. E. Goan sold his residence property to Joe Nixon this week. Consideration, $1200.

Remember your duty as a citizen and parent and vote for the school-house to-morrow.

Eugene has a coal excitement. It is believed that the article has been found near there.

A good way to bring people to your town is to send THE EXPRESS to your friends in the East.

It having rained on Easter Sunday, tradition says it will rain for the seven succeeding Sundays.

Quite a number of our people went to Albany last Saturday to hear the famous cornetist Levy.

As evidence of our town's growth we publish in another column some recent transactions in real estate.

Mr. D. Andrews, of the popular firm of Andrews & Hamilton, Sweet Home, went to Albany this week.

Married, March 28, 1890, by Rev. A. E. Lee, Mr. A. H. Frum and Miss A. E. Williams, both of Plainville.

The chastisement which Nemo gave Uncle Sam last week quieted his rage and the mails are on time.

Mr. Cadwalader, of California, bought property near town this week and will build a residence soon.

Remember you get a washboard free with every tub purchased of Cruso & Menzies in the next thirty days.

Mr. C. E. Starnard, H. McFarland and Louis Galbraith, all of Brownsville, were in to see us this week.

The weather outlook is very favorable, but we shall not jeopardize our reputation by doubtful prophecies.

Dr. Leavett, of Jefferson, was in town yesterday. We hear that the Dr. is looking for real estate in Lebanon.

So many improvements are being made in East Lebanon that we have no space to particularize.

Who ever saw a successful business man who didn't advertise? The men who advertise do the business.

It now takes two coaches to accommodate the traveling public between Lebanon and Albany, and three trains daily.

Mr. Harrison Johnson has been seriously afflicted with the neuralgia, but has so far recovered as to be about again.

Mr. G. T. Cotton has just received a fine lot of plain and fancy candles. He never tires of telling folks to keep sweet.

If you have not planted garden wait until the "man in the moon" shuts one eye. Always plant in the dark of the moon.

Anyone desiring lodging can be accommodated by calling on Mrs. H. E. Parrick, one door north of THE EXPRESS office.

J. K. Weatherford and Jeff Mayers, two of our rising young men, were nominated by the democrats for the state senate.

Mr. Z. T. Bryant, of this place, has the contract for building the hotel at Sodaville. He is framing the building in Lebanon.

The heavy loads of lumber coming into town daily are indicative of a healthy business pulse and a season of rapid growth.

Our devil is taking deep interest in his work. When we came home Monday he was in ink up to his eye brows. Deep enough.

If you know anything new that would interest the public (and you do), stop at THE EXPRESS office and un-bosom yourself.

Prof. Hickman has tendered his resignation as principal of the public school. Prof. R. N. Wright will teach the unexpired term.

Dr. Barker & Co. have returned from their prospecting tour. They brought with them about thirty pounds of quartz that assays high.

At Cruso & Menzies.

Mr. J. F. Walton met with a painful accident last Friday. His hand was caught by a small circular saw, which almost severed three fingers.

Mr. Boyle, who lives near the planer, has laid a new walk in front of his dwelling and is now enclosing his property with a neat picket fence.

Miss Belle Kirkpatrick went to Brownsville Monday to enter the art studio at that place which is under the supervision of Rev. A. Leroy.

We learn that there are some newcomers in town who are desirous of engaging in fruit-raising. No better locality than this can be found.

Mr. E. Goan purchased six lots of M. A. Miller this week. Mr. Goan intends to build a dwelling, a new furniture store and furniture shop.

Mr. John Donac, Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Manched, the delegates from Sweet Home, left Tuesday for the republican convention at Albany.

Mr. H. H. Chasner, formerly of Cottage Grove, has purchased a saw mill and shingle mill at Crawfordville, and will run them this summer.

Mr. Thos. Kay, formerly Supt of the B. W. M. Co., of Brownsville, but now at the head of the Kay Woolen Mill Co., of Salem, called on us lately.

Why not organize an amateur dramatic club in our town? The entertainment at the Academy Friday night proves that dramatic talent is not rare in Lebanon.

Mr. L. C. Rice, who runs a farm ten miles from here on Beaver creek, has some very good crops of coal which may lead to some valuable discoveries in the future.

J. A. Beard, C. C. Haekleman, C. D. Montagne, S. O. Wallace, E. E. Hammack and E. C. Keebler are delegates from Lebanon to the Democratic county convention.

If people persist in tormenting our little "devil" we shall unchain his majesty, rough-shoe the cloven foot and open up pandemonium on Main street. Fair warning.

Words by town assessor; music by the people:
I would not live away,
I don't intend to stay
Where every public Highway
Is taught but mine and clay.

The Brownsville Cornet Band will furnish music for the Odd Fellows' celebration at Brownsville. The Lebanon band, although they made application, were not eager for the engagement.

The entertainment at the Academy last Friday night reflected credit upon teacher and pupils. A lengthy programme kept the audience until near midnight with little or no abatement in interest.

The other day a skeleton was found imbedded in the bank of Thomas creek, near A. R. McDonald's, east of Solo. It was half decayed, and looked as though many years had passed since life had departed.

Rev. G. A. Blair, of Eugene, will be in Lebanon next week, and will probably preach in the C. P. church Monday evening. He is a most interesting and able speaker, and those attending will be well paid.

Messrs. Walton & Wiley are overrun with work at their planer. As orders accumulate they can only hope and pray for good weather and more lumber, which cannot be handled while the roads are in the present condition.

We received an article this week from Forest Grove on "Popular Teachers," also a communication from Marshfield, which we cannot publish on account of lack of space. We haven't room for anything much but news. Correspondents, make a note of this.

Mr. Klepper, Mr. Brown and Mr. Cadwalader went up the Santiam this week in search of homes. A great deal of very desirable land remains unclaimed in this section of country, and these gentlemen will avail themselves of the opportunity to secure good homes at a mere nominal sum.

E. S. Roberts brought to our office Wednesday an egg of remarkable dimensions. The Wyandotte hen contributes more to the perpetuation of Easter than all the common breeds of fowls which do nothing but reproduce themselves. The compass of this egg will be given to-morrow at breakfast.

The sheep of A. C. Goodrich and brother, a half mile north of the fair grounds, near Salem, were run into a north-bound freight train and four teen head were slain. This is the largest killing of mutton since the passenger train last fall ran into a flock near Turner and killed a hundred head.

Mr. John Donac, of Sweet Home, tells us that the winter just past is the severest he has ever known in Oregon. He has lost already 12 head of cattle. He bought some cats in Lebanon this week as this kind of grain cannot be had in his home town. He is a quickstep by the last-named gentleman, which he was called upon to repeat several times. The wheelbarrow was used in the contest, and Mr. Orville Thompson performed some marvelous feats with a table.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE COMING ON ALL HANDS IN BEHALF OF OUR CORNET BAND. The band made its first appearance in public last night and acquitted themselves in a creditable manner. Merit in this case deserves more than a passing recognition and friendly congratulations. Give the boys some solid token of appreciation.

A very agreeable surprise awaited Mat Scott, the democratic nominee for sheriff, on his arrival Wednesday night. The Lebanon Cornet Band played some soul-stirring music and a large constituency indulged in a two round cheer. Should a like degree of enthusiasm greet Matthew at other points he will go into office next June like a whirlwind.

If you know of anyone in Lebanon or vicinity who is not a subscriber to THE EXPRESS, please give us their names and perhaps we can save them from a Rip Van Winkle slumber. In this age of lightning presses the man who does not patronize his home paper will fall farther behind the times in five years than fall Rip Van Winkle in one hundred years.

Who kicks against the ironsheds and howls against the town?
Who roars about the new school house and cries all progress down?
Who yells against monopoly and tries the world to span?
Who tries to use the pockets of every other man?
Who makes his life a burden and tries to spend his gloom?
Who never has a garden where roses ever bloom?

Mr. J. A. Dolkins intends to erect a manure and repair shop at this place, the plant to cost not less than $2000. To this end Mr. Dolkins is soliciting aid from the citizens, who are contributing liberally to the enterprise. Only $150 of the required bonus was lacking Wednesday morning, and it is expected that this amount will soon be secured and that work will be begun on the shop in about ten days.

W. B. Blanchard & Co., of Brownsville, have run a tunnel 100 feet at right angles with the "Emman" mine, and expect to cut their lead vein in the next two feet. The depth attained by this tunnel will be about 100 feet. Ore from the surface of this claim assays $75, and the owners are expecting some rich ore at the depth of 100 feet from the surface. Their expectations are not groundless by any means.

Follow-townsman, home-seekers and speculators, if you want a bargain in town lots I have it. On account of ill health I will sell nineteen choice lots which are of extra size, ranging from 845-139 feet to 67-227 feet. Will sell from one to nineteen lots at a bargain, one-third cash, balance on time, one year or less. These lots I must and will sell within the next thirty days on account of want of time for my health. Call on R. HIATT, or Peterson & Wallace.

The One-Price Cash Store has become one of the features of Lebanon. As everything is new and fresh, and the prices are so much below that charged by the existing establishments, people who desire to buy their goods for cash naturally go to the corner, where they do not have to make up to the storekeeper for the non-paying customers who, when they can do so, buy on credit, and who are constitutionally opposed to paying for anything. Get prices at the One-Price Cash Store and ability is any reason in you that the place where you will purchase your supplies.

Mr. A. Cadwalader, late of California, bought five acres of land from town. He is a nephew of our esteemed citizen Z. T. Bryant. Our country is rapidly filling up with a desirable population. These people are coming to our country with a view to locating permanently and we welcome them to the best country yet known.

The following are the newly-elected directors of the Solo bank: Wm. Cyrus, E. Goan, J. W. Glines, P. O. Sargent and J. H. Bryant. Wm. Cyrus was elected President and J. H. Bryant Vice President. These are solid men and will do a fine business in the growing town of Solo. They contemplate erecting a new building in which to carry on their business.

Appropriate services were held in the M. E. church last Sunday. The church was tastefully decorated.
