

Herrected. drive closer, descended and unlocked GOLD MINING IN CHINA. the gate with her own hands. All was When Mary Ann Dollinger got the skule dsown Ten Thousand Human Creatures Who Dig Three Ounces of Gold a Day. still; only the echoes welcomed them, Their feet awoke more upon the stairs; they made Donna Anna verv-ous, Donna Mora was as brave as a I was glad, for I like to see a gal makin' her I heard some talk in the village abaout her Byin' high. Tew high for the busy farmer folks with chores ter dew ter fly: But I puid no sorter attention ter all the talk They inspected every room, they the bridal chamber and saw the dust of the gold mining in Shanghal. It Bhe came in hor reging beardin' mound ter visit with us a spell. Mr Jake an hor had been croutes ever since the bridal chamber and saw the dust in this tails. Mr Jake an hor had been croutes ever since the bridal chamber and saw the dust in this tails. An it this tails. Jake an' tr be hand at grammer, though he whole story—all that was known. And for the first time Donna Mora heard of the gold mining in Shinghal. It says: There are gold mining in Shinghal. It says: The assent work: The assent work of the doin's says: The assent he was belindhand with the doin's are induced by a shift of the ones. Mal show and he should allos asy, "them at." An 'she said he should allos asy, "them at." An 'she said he should allos asy, "them at." Mu Mary Ann kep' at bim stiddy, mornin' an core table. The basen to poon his mouth for fear o' table. The basen the in the basen of the asystem to poon his nouth for fear o' table. The basen to poon his mouth ers," said Donna Anna. And Donna Mora said: 'Bid her come in." of method. The P'ing-tu gold mines, on the Shantung promontory, employ about 10,000 persons, and the workold quince tree, When I heard Jake's voice a-sayin', "He ye willn' ter mary me? An' Mary Ann kerrectin'—"Air ye willin' come in." Then passing between the smoking brothers, who scarcely looked up, and by the little dog, who growled, en-tered an old woman, shriveled and yel-tered an old woman, shriveled and yelyeou sh'd say." Our Jake he put his foot daown, in a plum, de-cided way. "No wimmen folks is a-goin' ter be rearrangin' Hereafter I says 'craps,' 'them is,' 'I calk'late,' low, who courtesied and said, "May ent state of things at the Amur gold the good stars shine for the pretty mines. When Profect Li assumed the fired a whole battery into his ear. nn' 1 be." Ef folks don't like my talk then they needn't hark ter what I say; But I aln't a golo' ter take no sass from folks from folum Bay; I ask you free and final, 'Be ye goln' ter marry senoritas and the brave senors. I direction six months ago the working have heard that the lady who is to be of these mines was commenced with mistress here has come, and I am old sudden and wonderful energy, and a and may not live to see her a bride, subsidary mine was opened at Kli-kan An' Marry Ann sez, tremblin' yet auxious-like, and would fain welcome her. nd would fain welcome her. Then Donna Mora answered "I am had worked at their forbidden mines -Florence E. Pyatt. the lady. e lady." "Then may I offer a few wild flow-tered by the Chinese Government A SPANISH BLUEBEARD ers." said the gypsy, "and my good troops, gold mining is now actively wishes for the senor has been my bene-There was once a Spanish gentleman of high rank, who led a very wild and dissolute life. but now desired to setfactor. A poor gift, lady, but do not scorn it. She held the flowers toward Donna Mora, who took them and put them last ten days of the third moon (April tle down to his own estate and take to himself a wife, who would preside over down upon the table. his household in a fitting fashion. Be "Donna Anna," said she, "bring my both mines was between lifty and sixty ing rich and handsome, his wickedness dog here. Brothers seize the gypsy." ounces of gold dust. There are from 500 to 600 miners employed, and each woman was held in a strong grasp, and Donna Mora, holding her dog in her hap, pressed the flowers to his pected that before many mora months smile, and dropped a coin into the gypsy's hand. As she entered the door he bent her lovely head and inhaled the perfume of the flowers.

nostrils

The servants remembered the ac-tion, and her smile, as she passed into her apartment, leaning on her hus-band's arm, for it was the last they ever saw of her. An hour after she lay dead, and all the doctors in Madrid could not tell what had killed her.

The young widower was very sad for a long time, but by and by he began to was lovelier than the first, though not so rich. Her predecessor's fate did not alarm her, for she was strong and full of health. Death seemed to be very far from so radiant a creature, as she stood before the church altar and plighted her troth to the man with whom she hoped to pass her life; but those who remembered the first wife's fate shuddered as at the fall of eventide she entered the gates of her husband's villa. The same old gypsy who

Minister Denby has sent to the Sinte Department, in a recent report, a trans-lation of an article which recently ap-peared in a native newspaper pub-lished at Shanghal, giving an account proceeding under the sanction and encouragement of the government. At old 'un. first the output was very small, but it 20-29, 1889), the joint production of ounces of gold dust. There are from there will be 3,000 miners working "If he lives, free her. If he dies, there and producing 300 onnees of gold have her arrested," she said quietly, Donna Auna hid her face. The brothers sternly regarded first the woman, then the dog; the latter had be-gun to tremble. In a moment more he uttered a whine, long and terrible to listen to. Donna Mora dropped the domain draw and the Si Kin Shan worthy of being named beside the California of the to listen to. Domina atora cropped the flowers. The poor creature lay mo-tionless across her lap. He was dead. "Have the woman arrested," said Donna Mora, again. "It is she that has murdered those two poor women with the second seco with her poisoned flowers, as she 400 to 600 II long, which if properly would have murdered me." worked will yield us incalculable But to the Senor, when they met wealth, and is now only waiting for once more, she said this:

capitalists to come forward to supply "I know the ways of gypsies, and their art of poisoning flowers. I know also that an injured gypsy girl is al-ways averged by her tribe. He who the working capital. It must be con is false to one woman let no other wo-man trust. Adieu. -N. Y. World. ors, but now we may hope that more confidence will be felt and that these noblemin smay be properly developed. "According to the first clause of the It has just leaked out that a poor old Russian treaty the range of hills called It has just leaked out that a poor old crippled Hebrew from Persia, who could speak no language but Persian and ancient Hebrew, was recently put into an insane asylum here and cruelly treated, says a Globe dispatch from San Francisco. His story reads like a country readed here and cruelly in the north of that range. The mines number Prefect Li's superintendence are constructed in the story reads like a Baid. San Francisco. His story reads like a romance. Chaskel Halevy was a poor man in Bagdad when two years ago of the order in Bombay set was crippled by paralysis. He contact that his brother in Bombay was wealthy, so he set out for India. At Bombay he found his brother had gone to Hong Kong, and at Hong Kong he learned he was in Yokohama. There he found his relative, but so poor that Chaskel determined to return to Bag.

A Poor Jew's Wanderings.

MAGNER'S STANDARD STOCK BOOK. DON'T DELAY IN SECURING TERRITORY Finest Book on Earth for the Farmer, Stockman and Blacksmith

LARGEST PROFITS!

307 Sansome St., San Francisco, Qal G. L. PEABLEE,

CAMP-MEETIN' JOHN. A Little Story Told of Allen of Missiaslppt by His Colleague.

will make vou more Representative Allen, of Mississippi, doesn't have it all his own way. Con-gressman Burrows, of Michigan, has got even with him for once. He got

"When Atlen was saving Connecti-cut last fall," said Burrows, "he had STAR COMPOSITION CO. an appointment in Windham county He was met at the depot by an old fel Printers' Rollers. low with a baid face and a fringe of yellow-whitey whiskers springing up from his collar-bone over the edge of his collar, like witch grass in the angle

'This is Mr. Allen, is it?' asked the "It air." responded the Captain.

meet'n' Without further ado the Captain climbed into the wagon. It was one of the kind saved in the ark. It had a rocker body set on thorough braces and with wheels two inches across the ounce of gold every day, and it is ex- tire. The shafts were straight and peeted that before many more months run up from a low axle to the horse's neck. The horse was a rat-tailed buckskin mare which cantered behind and ambled in front. She wore an oldfashioned collar and hames, cut decolette and stuffed with straw. Allen tried to stir the old man up by talking politics, but the patriarch didn't seem very enthusiastic for the Democracy, and preferred to talk about foreordination and the mortal certainty ninetynine in a hundred had of being damned. "Finally they reached the place of meeting. There was a good crowd, more women than usual, but a terrible solemn lot all around. The hall looked more like a meeting-house than most places, but Captain Allen was accustomed to expect anything. Old Gal-ways escorted him to the platform, where solemn - looking mugs shook hands with him and didn't utter a word "Gad,' thought the Captain, "this looks like a funeral. I'll have a job warming them up.' "Finally one of the solemn parties walked to the edge of the platform and Bretheren and sisters: It is my solemn pleasure to interjuce to you tonight, a man whose name is a house-hold word from Maine to California-

of a rail fence

Roller Composition. "Wall, I've come to take ye to the PADDING CEMENT ETC.

CUT THIS OUT

Roller Casting a Specialty.

1107 Fourth St., East Portland, Or

CLIFF DWELLERS.

Marvelogs Discoveries in Southern Colo-rado by Two Hartford Explorers.

Messrs. Frederick IL' Chapin and Charles P. Howard of this city, says the Hartford Courant, have recently returned from a most interesting and turned from a most interesting and fruitful exploring expedition in south-ern Colorado. They made a special search for and among the various cliff dwellings in the Mancos canyon. They are experienced climbers. Mr. Chapin is a member of the Appalachian club; has climbed Mount Blanc and the ex-tense of diagent Bathhare at Zermett tremely difficult Rothhorn at Zermatt, and has published numerous articles in the Appalachian and other magazines. Mr. Howard climbed Mount Blane with Mr. Chapin, and made the ascent of the Matterhorn by himself. They went out to the Mancos canyon mainly to take photographs of the interesting objects there, but they also made many discoveries themselves. The pictures Mr. Chapin makes are perfect, and he has brought from this trip a collection that are simply 'mar-velous and that show us more about the curious cliff dwellings than can be told in words, though the story accompanying the picture, as he tells it, makes the scenes complete. These dwellings in the Mancos canyou were discovered last December, and very few people have seen any of them. They are scattered all along the lofty walls of the canyon and its tributaries. You find them in countless abundance, yet they are almost ab-solutely inaccessible save as the steps to them are found. They are far up the side of the gorge, that can not be scaled from below. And they are down

ED. KELLENBERGER, Propr

Fresh & Salted Beef, Pork, Mutton, Sausage, Bologna, and Ham.

Bacon and Card Always on Hand.

Main Street, Lebauon, Or.

C. S. PILLSBURY,

IEWELRY, RBOWNSVILE, - ORECON

The finbacks were rarely captured before the invention of the bombiance, as they ran so fast boats could not stand the strain. Main Street, Lebenon, Oregon.

AND FREIGHT LINE From Portland and all points in the Willamette Valley to and from Sau Francisco, Cal. OREGON PACIFIC RAILROAD.

FIRST-CLASS THROUGH PASSENGER

TIME SCEDULE, (Except Sundays.) Albany 100 p.m. Ly Yaquiun 6:45 a.m. Corvallis 1:40 p.m. Ly Corvalis 10:35 a.m. Yaquina 5:30 p.m. Ar Albany 11:10 a.m. O. & C. trains connect at Albany and Corvallis, The above trains connect at Yaquina with the Oregon Development Company's line of Stram ships between Yaquina and San Francisco

SAILING DATES. Fm. S. F. Steamer. Fm Vaq'na Steamer. Farallon May 5. Wilamette V.y May 4 Willamette Val y May 9. Farallon May 14 Farallon May 14. Willamette V.y May 14 Willamette V.y May 20 Farallon May 20

This company reserves the right to change sail ing dates without notice. Passengers from Portland and all Willamette rassengers from Portland and all Willamette Valley points can make close connection with the irmins of the Vaquina route at Albany or Corval-lis, and if destined to San Francisco should ar-range to arrive at Vaquina the evening before the date of sailing.

Passenger and Freight Rates Always the Lowest .

For particulars apply to C. H. HASWELL, Gen I Ft & Fass Agt. Dregon Develpm'nt Co. 302 Montgomery St. an Francisco, Cal. C. C. HOGUE, Aof'g Gen F & P. Agt. O. P. R. R. R. Co., Corvallis, Oregon.

NORTH BOUND.

Leave Corvallis Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 6a.m. Leave Albany goo a.m. Arrive Salem, Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 3 p.m. Leave Salem, Tuesday, Thursday, Satur-day, 5a.m. 1 Arrive Portland, Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 30 p. m SOUTH BOUND Leave Portland Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 6a.m. Arrive,Salem, Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 7:15 p.m. Leave Salem, Tuesday, Thursday, Satur-day, 6a.m. Leave Allany, Tyo p.m. Arrive Corvallis Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, Martine Corvallis Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 3100 11. 111.

L M. RALSTON. L COWAN.

Bank of Lebanon, "Paul Kauvar" and his still more re-markable one of "An Arrant Knave," LEBANON, OREGON, this remarkable man's pen.

Transacts a General Banking Business. ACCOUNTS KEPT SUBJECT TO CHECK.

Exchange sold on New York, San Francisco, Fortland and Albany, Oregon. Collections made on favorable terms.

ose before her. amidst the growd. Yes, she would adopt this fourth pro-

with plaudits and bright with fame

fession

verdancy, now?"

for something quite rare."

and attic salt, and-

Detroit Free Press.

A Prolific Playwright.

lady!" she cried. "I greeted her who came before, and faded like a flower. Putting on a love of a hat and a dear, dainty little wrap that hugged her May you live until your hair is as close, she started out to purchase the necessary outfit. Reaching the book white as mine. Flowers are all I have to give. Will you honor me by taking store she looked out from under her them, lady ?" drooping plumes and coquettishly asked for a bottle of very best ink. The bride, as the other bride had done, accepted the offering, and re-When placed on the counter before her paid the gift with a coin. it was like an elixir, so many grand

She held the blossoms loosely in her possibilities flashed through her head. "And now I want a pen." On being hand, and passed into the hall. A banquet was prepared, and she par-took of it. Wine was on the board; she tasted of it. When the dance beasked if there was any make she preferred, she hesitated and then said: "Yes, but I most forgot what it is, gan none danced more gayly than the bride. It was a merry wedding and It's like vermicelli, or varioloid. No that isn't it. Could it be verdigris or when at last, in the hours of the morning, the music died away, the guests "Really, I don't know," replied the departed and the lamps were extiu-guished, the beautiful girl turned, with puzzled clerk. "You must be looking smiles and blushes to seek her place of "Yes, I am; but I've got money to rest. As she crossed the threshold of buy it if I only knew what it was." the hall she stooped and picked some-"By the way." questioned the in-spired clerk, "could it be versatile?" thing from the floor.

"My poor gypsy's flowers," she said, "I will not reject the humble token of kindness," and bending her face over them, she passed out of sight. Half an hour afterward the husband "Yes, that's it. I knew I'd find it. A versatile pen is what I'm looking "I am sorry, miss, but we have none in stock. They are very rare and we have little call for them. You see the also entered the bridal room. All was still. The lamplight fell over the points are all dipped in grey matter pi lows, but no fair head rested upon them. He looked about him; in the "Grev! Well, then I don't want one. corner of the room lap what looked like a heap of rumpled satin at first sight. He advanced toward it, and Grey isn't becoming. I never have it near me," and turning she walked away unconscious that she was rob-bing the world of a literary gem .saw a hand that grasped convulsively a little bunch of white flowers, and with a cry of horror, cast himself beside the body of his bride. She was dead; she bore no wound, no sign of injury about her. Again the physi-cians could not find the cause for the Speaking of Boucicault reminds me of how little we really know about the men who write plays and their words. Think of it! Steele Mackaye, although death, and people began to whisper tales of evil spirits who haunted this yet a young man, less than forty-five, fatal bridal chamber and did to death has written and produced twenty difthe fair beings who braved them by entering it.

ferent plays, nearly every one of which has run from lifty to a hundred nights in one locality. Besides this vast amount of work he has built Again the gentleman was a widower; again he suffered much sorrow, but it was not eternal. He began in time to three theatres and opened them with seek another bride, but in vain. No his own productions. Yet not more one would risk the fate of those other than one theatregoer in a thousand young and lovely women. No one would have this Bluebeard, the myswho will look at his wonderful play of "Paul Kauvar" and his still more reteries of whose castle were so terrible, which he recently wrote for Stuart Rolson, can recall three plays from ing, meeting the Donna Mora on her way to church, her black eyes veiled beaneth her black mantilla, he made a The Dog Had to Climb. grand impression, and was permitted ere long to offer his hand and heart We were comfortably seated around with true Spanish gallantry. the hearth at Porter Lake, in Pike county, Pa., and the spirit of story-Donna Mora, who was a widow, nstened not ill pleased.

-telling was strong upon us, because the fishing had been unusually good and the supper bounteous. The flash "I do not detest you, Senor," she said, "and I frankly tell you so, but you have had strange bridals heretoand sparkle of wit tilled the upper air fore. I do not feel tired of life, and of the room as with a fine aurora, and desire to enjoy myself a little longer. Let me know why your first wife died. You must surely know." a halo of calm bliss encircled the brow of each entranced listener. But first the drug and then the antidote. The

'On my soul, I do not!" said the cnevolent Colonel drew us down geutleman. gently from the giddy heights with a "I believe you," said the lady. "Listen to me, then. I am ready to marry you, but before I do, I must be al-lowed to inspect your house from roof to cellar. You must vacate it, and "A man and his dog went fishing in the Mississippi. In a short time the man felt a mighty pull on the line, and to centar. Four must vacate it, and give me the keys, and I must go there alone with my sister, I will discover the mystery, if there is one." "Donna Mora," said the gentleman, "do as you will. I vacate the dwellhe knew that a catlish had taken hold.

ing at once. There are the keys. The long one of steel opens that fatal chamber, which I beg you not to enbravely enough. The wily catfish, ter-the bridal chamber of my dead when he found the dog pursuing, turned upon him and terrified the dog brides. Adieu! Thanks for your promise, which I shall hasten to claim who incontinently turned tail and swam vigorously toward the dry land, when you summon me."

He kissed her hand and rode away. the catfish hotly following. Presently the dog gained the land and ran hastily, She at once made ready to seek the dwelling of which she had heard so the eat-fish madly surging after him. much. The lumbering carriage held her, her sister, two brothers, maid, The dog, sorely pressed and fearing a painful death, in his extremity climbed man-servant and pet poodle very well "Hold on!" we cried in chorus; "dogs n not climb trees." And, at last, they came in sight of the old Moorish building, and paused to n not climb trees." "Can't climb a tree?" responded the "I begin to tremble," said Donna had greeted the former bride stood Heaven and the saints bless you.

Chaskel determined to return to Bag. ment of steamers and partly by opendad by way of San Francisco. He ing of new roads to render it possible begged enough to reach here, where to bring from China everything charitable Hebrews gave him shelter, necessary for the proper working of He walked only with crutches, and one the mines and the supply of the per-days boys stole these, leaving him help-less, far from home. He begged aid of Russian roads." from a policeman, but as he tried, in Beginning to Enjoy Life.

Persian custom, to kiss the officer's Americans are just beginning to enhand, the policeman thought he was a joy life. We are not quite the sober vicious drunkard trying to bite him, and sad-cheeked race that we once and clubbed Chaskel over the head until the poor Hebrew was insensible. He were. The struggle for existence finds was arrested for drunkenness and sent one and two hundred years ago. There to the alms house. He made frantic is more abundance and comfort, less appeals in Hebrew, but no one undercold, hunger and exposure, better food, stood him. His efforts to escape led shelter and clothing. Things can be enjoyed now which could not even exist the authorities to pronounce him crazy, and two physicians certified he was here previously, for both the comforts hopelessly insane, and committed him. and luxuries themselves on one hand There his long white beard, held sacred and the margin for expenditure on the by his race in Persia, was shaven off, other have increased and come into despite his tears and appeals. Then he tried to commit suicide, but was prebeing. These have given color and interest to life. vented. Finally he was discovered by a The religious belief, too, is more cheerful. The awful deity of Puritanism rabbi, who raised money to send him back to Bagdad by the China steamer, which sailed recently. Halevy was well educated, but the police records show that he was entered under a false name, and no efforts were made to secure his story through an interpreter. He was simply railroaded into an asylum because he could not make himself understood and had no friends.

The "Swamp Fox" of Georgia.

Turning over a page of his private memorandum-book, "Bill" Jones, the detective, said to an Atlanta Constitution man: "Here's the case that gave me my for a holiday in the park, or the coun-title as Swamp Fox of Georgia." "What is it?" "In '68 a safe was blown open in Macon and about $11,000 was taken other Europeans wanting in this re-The case was put in my hands speet. and I followed the man into the swamps near where Limber City now is. I ing, more leisure, a better religion, a found him there working at the mill, growing astheticism, larger incomes and got work, too. In a short time he and I were quite friends, and were sleeping together. He had a habit of leaving the bed about daybreak every and other peoples who know how to morning, and I began to follow him. It was slow work and required several this country into a better enjoyment of weeks. One morning I'd go a certain life -- Good Housekeeping distance, and then back, and the nextmorning a little further. Finally I went to the end of his rope. I followed him into the heart of the swamp and one of the cloak-rooms of the senate sow him take a package from a stump. He handled it awhile and then put it the other day on the evils of intemper-ance, writes a Washington correspondback. I guessed what it was, and I ent of the N.Y. Tribune. I don't know guessed well. That night I went to the stump and pulled out the package, and found over $10,000 in it. That night we went to bed together, but about midnight I got up, and, securing ground. Whatever his motive in tellan officer for whom I sent, went to ing the following little story, I omit that stump. The next morning he for obvious reasons of delicacy, all came at the usual hour, and as he mention of names. Said the genial stooped to reach for the package we senator from North Carolina:

sprang upon him and he was ours." "What became of him?"

500." The Virtue of Hot Milk.

heated to as high a temperature as it alcohol never does .- Good Housekeep-

Rome, from being a city set 1. seven hills, is likely to be a seaport. The mountain is not to be cast into the sea, but a profane American company is willing, for the sum of 68,000,000 france, to undertake to bring the sea to the mountain by means of a canal eleven miles long. The scheme was suggested by Garibaldi and has since

A thoughtful-looking little gentle- below the top so far as to be out of man sat in the Girard House, of Phila- sight or reach from above, and are twan sat in the Girard House, of Phila-delphia, one evening watching the people pass in and out and listening to snatches of conversation which were wafted to his ears. He sat alone in a corner, smoking a pipe with a long slender stem. His black coat was ornamented with braid, and his grey hair was topped by a black skull cap. The gentleman is Auguste Blare, of Paris, an inventor of mechanical toys. He has spent his life in this work, and the people better off than they were the authority of Homer; Daedalus made has been supplanted by a loving one. Religion now busies itself more with good deeds and human sympathies and less with gloomy introspection. It has gathered a larger faith in the absolute benevolence as well as justice of God, and of the substantial victory of good over evil which this implies. Contact with Germans and Jews, who such inventions of which we have er of the first of these dwellings in that have migrated to this country and be-come a part of our environment, is have migrated to this country and be-come a part of our environment, is having is influence. Go to Saratoga and who among the visitors are having XIV. This consisted of a coach and years old. and who among the visitors are having four horses that started off at the four horses that started off at the crack of a whip, the horses prancing, trotting and galloping in turn. It ran along until it got in front of the King, when it stopped. Then a toy footman descended, and opening the carriage door, handed out a lady 'with born grace,' as the records tell us. The lady made a courtesy, presented a Among the work people who are out try, or on the water, the Germans show the most hearty devotion to the occasion; and neither are the Irish and lady made a courtesy, presented a petition to the Emperor, re-entered her All these influences of better feedcarriage and was driven rapidly away. Such is the description of the most wonderful automaton," concluded Mr.

Blare. "I never saw the toy itself, of course, but the description just given to you tallies almost word for word enjoy living, are bringing the people of with an authentic record. I memorized the latter at one time, so marvelous did it seem to me.'

Feeding Canary Birds. "Zeb" Vance was holding forth in

A good many people don't know how to take care of canary birds, and I, therefore, give them the following advice which I got from a bird-fancier: "Never give your bird sugar, or figs, or raisins, or anything sweet, except a small piece of sweet apple (peeled) twice a week. Put the apple in the cage in the morning and take it out at night. It should have all the rape and canary seed it wants and gravel should be kept at the bottom of the "There was a camp-meeting held cage. Avoid feeding the bird celery. Twice a week feed it on one-third of a boiled egg, using both the white and full grown cat. The cloven hoofs proclaim its position in the mammalian world beyond doubt, but it has no the effects much more satisfactory and far more lasting than those of any alco-thell, with his bald head, and drunk at horns. In the male two long canine teeth project from the upper lips, and these, perhaps, serve in their stead.

"Aunt Nina's" Appeal.

He has spent his life in this work, and each year brings him additional in-terest in it. Mr. Blare has a marvelous fund of anecdote, especially about the wonders of automata, and takes great pleasure in talking about the latter. "Puppets and marionetts were patronized," he said, "koth by the Greeks and the Romans, and automata, which as the structure. Skeletons can be are the inventions now principally found by upheaving the debris. Whodealt in, also go back to a remote ever goes there to dig will come away period. Vulcan's t ipod on wheels has And so, too, on the plains about the moving statues; Archytas of Threntum, ranch where the travelers stopped the in 400 B. C., invented a wooden pigeon that could fly in the air. In the six-teenth century Regiomantamons made an iron fly which moved through the atmosphere, and afterward an auto-they went, why they lived as they did matic eagle, which on the arrival of while there-these things and nearly the Emperor Maximilian at Nurem- all else about them are matters for burg, flew forth to meet him. "But one of the most wonderful of ranchman of Mancos, was the discover speculation. Richard Wetherill, a years old.

Ingersoll On Crime.

Before the ninth annual convention of the State Bar association Col. Rob-ert G. Ingersoll delivered an address upon the subject of "Crimes Against Criminals," in which at the outset he demonstrated that punishment by tor-ture and death had fai ed to abate crime. The following were among Mr. Ingersoll's utterances:

Degradation has been thoroughly tried, with its mainings and brand-ings, and the result was that those who inflicted the punishment became as de-graded as their victims. It is safe to graded as their victims. It is safe to say that governments have committed far more crimes than they have pre-vented. I am perfectly satisfied that there are millions of others incapable of practicing certain virtues. There is no reformation in decodation Who no reformation in degradation. Whoever is degraded by society becomes its enemy. A punishment that de-grades the punished will degrade the government that procures the infliction. Is there any remedy? Can any-thing be done for the reformation of the criminal? He should be treated with kindness. Every right should be given him consistent with the safety of society. He should neither be degraded nor robbed. Why should these men after having been imprisoned for years be turned out without the means of support? Would it not be far better to lay aside his carning so that when the yellow of the egg. Grate up the egg; that is better than putting it in whole. Give it the egg the day before hundred dollars of his own, enough to it gets the apple and as large a piece, keep the wolf of crime from the door of the former as of the latter. Let of his heart? If we are to change the it have a bath every other day, using water with the chill taken off." | conduct of men we must change their conditions. Extreme poverty and crime go hand in hand. Ignorance, filth, and poverty are the missionaries of crime. As long as dishonorable success outranks honest effort—as long as society bows and cringes before the great thieves-there will be little ones enough to fill the jails."

How to Be a Favorite.

Brown: "How is it you are such Plumbing in Old Rome. Recent investigations in Rome show that the ancient plumbers of the Eternal city were obliged to be very particular with their work. There have been un-earthed great quantities of lead wa-ter pipe, each plainly stamped with the name of the owner of the house, the year of the plumbing, the name of the consuls for that year, and thot of the religning emperor. these, perhaps, serve in their stead. A Lively Cripple. A one-legged man whom the Seattle (Wash.) police were after the other day took refuge in a cellar, barred the door, and detied the whole force. The fire department was called out and the cellar pumped full of water. When it got up to the man's chin he surrendered. Since then he has escaped three times from jail last year in the immediate neighbor-"He got twenty years, and I got $2,- hood of my home in Charlotte. Among the many colored people present was 'Aunt Nina,' who was noted for the It is worthy of reiteration that milk length and breadth of her prayers, in which she never failed to make mencan be drunk or sipped, above 100 de-grees but not to the boiling point, is of given to drink. On this particular ocgrees but not to the boiling point, is of great value as a refreshing stimulant in cases of over-exertion, bodily or mental. To most people who like milk, it does not taste so good hot, but that is a small matter compared with the be be saved from a drunkard's grave at least, and accompanied the reference of the langest in the best to be be saved from a drunkard's grave to be best of the langest in the best of the langest in the best to be best of the langest in the langest in the langest in the langest of the langest in the least and accompanied the reference of the langest in the la benefit to be got from it. Its action is at least, and accompanied the reexceedingly prompt and grateful, and quest with this irresistible appeal: "O Lord how would it look! him in holic drink whatever. It supplies real that?" strength as well as exhilaration, which

