

EYES AND EARS!

No celebration at Solville. Anon Springer is building a barn. A. H. Marks went to Colburg Sunday. "Charley" is proud of his base ball "kids".

The new bridge, a sixty foot span, which was recently built across the canal at this place, parted under the weight of an oxen team, precipitating three yoke of oxen to the bottom of the stream, a distance of perhaps twenty-five feet. The water at this point being several feet deep it was with difficulty that some of the oxen escaped drowning.

THAT RAILROAD.

Lebanon Elated Over the Prospect of Another Standard-Gauge Road. A meeting of the representative business men of this place was held last Friday evening. The meeting was organized by the election of Dr. Foley as chairman and Judge Miller secretary.

L. C. Rice, who lives in the vicinity of Leavenworth, tells us that a recent visit to the coal mine at that place revealed a vein of good coal three feet in thickness.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to Crum & Mead's since 1890, please call and settle, as all of our accounts will soon be put in the hands of a collector.

Dr. Barker, Ben Barker and some Eastern men went up the Santiam last Friday and returned Monday. We suspect they are on the level of something rich.

Dr. Booth and family, of Altona, Iowa, have located in Lebanon. The doctor is a graduate of the Iowa State University and the Bellevue Medical College, N. Y.

Do not trust new-comers as intruders, but treat them as men, who, like yourself are seeking the most substantial and believe this to be the best place to earn it.

A card from Rev. Handleiter, who recently visited Rev. J. A. Hays at the school, states that he has no fear that very slight frosts are entertained for his recovery.

Peterson and Wallace have done a good business in real estate this week. They bought land to some Germans recently from Milwaukee.

Several men from Lebanon men aboard the excursion train to Colburg. John Barker and family, of Brownsville, will have long enough to stretch and shake the folds out of his coat.

Buildings spring up between two and three on Main street. The crowd returned Monday to find that a most market had been erected meanwhile on Sherman street.

The Lebanon chaff cutter, owned and operated by L. R. Chadwick, is no longer in use. Mr. Chadwick has sold forty cows which make the milk supply practically inexhaustible.

The good rain this week did a great deal of harm. Items pointed early in the week, awaiting the dry weather, were not available, and our copy had a horrible, mutilated appearance.

A large force of men filed out toward the flour mill Wednesday morning. The crowd returned Monday to find that a most market had been erected meanwhile on Sherman street.

The rains this week caused a squelching in our potato patch; the little potatoes were all crushed out by the larger ones. Such wild-spread spoilage is rarely seen in so short a time.

R. W. Moss visited Lebanon for the first time Friday. Mr. Moss attended the druggists' convention in Portland and stopped at Lebanon to see his nephews and get a copy of the Express.

The drama by the Lebanon Cornet Band was quite a success. The boys don't play like amateurs, do they? Do it again and we will guarantee a roll house and a hat full of shekels.

McKallans' troupe played to a full house in Lebanon Thursday. Prof. McKallans will visit our town on the Fourth, at which time he will give us an exhibition of his wonderful musical powers.

Work was begun on the new school house this week. The building will be 70x20, two stories high, with an eight-foot brick chimney. We are told that it will be the finest school building in the county.

AN OLD SOLDIER'S STORY: In the late war I was a soldier in the First Oregon Volunteer Company, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any relief I give me relief that would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice, used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease. I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. BENDIGO, Halsey, Ore. For sale by M. A. Miller.

BASEBALL. The C. C. Hackleman club of Lebanon and the Juveniles of Albany played the first game of a series of three games at this place last Saturday. Following is the result:

Table with columns: Innings, C. C. H., J., and runs, hits, errors. Score: 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9.

FROM SANTIAM, June 11, 1890. EDITOR'S LEADERSHIP. I had a favor to do good folks of Lebanon, about a word or two about the Santiam river, for a while, we have had no swimming shows at Lebanon. All nature is in a gay and merriment and joyous. I have had a very good time at Lebanon, and I will say to you, if you have not been here, then the young folks of Lebanon, you will find it a most interesting and profitable trip.

EDGAR HEAT ITEMS. Go to Lebanon, you will find it a most interesting and profitable trip. I have had a very good time at Lebanon, and I will say to you, if you have not been here, then the young folks of Lebanon, you will find it a most interesting and profitable trip.
