

EYES AND EARS!

Everybody at work. See Express time table. M. E. conference in session. Push or be pushed—which? New buildings every quarter. The stand-still policy won't work. Jeff Iron raised 4000 bushels of grain this year.

Mr. Mayberry completed his cottage this week. Guaranteed machine oils at Cruson & Menzies'. Screen doors and windows at Cruson & Menzies'. Dr. Lamberson was stocking up with drugs this week.

A young man was fined $5 Saturday night for disorderly conduct. Work was begun on the Southern M. E. church building this week. Mr. J. Banta moved upstairs over Mosser's variety store Tuesday.

G. W. Wheeler has all kinds of lumber at his saw mill in Lebanon. A load of furniture for the Exchange hotel came in from Albany Wednesday. Isaac Banta who was imprisoned last week, has given bail and is now at Liberty.

Thirty-two columns of solid reading matter every week for four months for 50 cents. Fifteen houses to be built in Lebanon as soon as the carpenters can get to work.

It was cloudy and threatened rain Monday, but it mist-ed this part of the country. "The wicked flea when no man pursueth," For proof, sleep in some country barn.

Both the Academy and public school give promise of a liberal patronage the coming term. A new walk was laid in front of the block lying south of the Mammoth store this week.

Remember you can get a hot or cold bath any day in the week at J. R. Borum's barber shop. Rev. J. M. Price, who was committed to the insane asylum last spring, is slowly recovering.

John Beard's cottage on Main street will be unlike any house heretofore built in Lebanon. We will send the Express our trial from Sept. 1st to Jan. 1, 1891, four months for 50 cents.

M. A. Miller has a large stock of machine oils of all kinds and will meet any and all competition. The man who borrowed Z. T. Bryan's smoothing plane, about a year since, will please return it at once.

We have some choice town property now, which will trade for good young horses. H. Y. KIRKPATRICK. Thomas Bach, from near Brownsville, is teaching in Lebanon. The paper will carry good many terms.

Superintendent Downing of the Oregon penitentiary was in town Tuesday in quest of an escaped convict. The traveling public will please note the three table of the Lebanon and Sweet Home stage line in another column.

There are eight carpenters at work on the paper mill, and this force will be more than doubled when the lumber is all in. Now that the waters have subsided, would it not be an opportune time to drain that pond near the center of town?

Mr. Mayberry has about completed his cottage on Park street. His house was spoken for some time before it was finished. Clint Gordon finds his business increasing at such a rate as to make the addition of two more wheels almost a necessity.

Agent Hearn has been succeeded by I. A. Bennett, who manipulates the lightning and handles the freight like a pro. Eureka street market, just opened on Sherman street opposite St. Charles hotel, Wheeler & Troutman. Call and see us.

The Lebanon paint factory will manufacture paint in seven different shades, and we understand that their paint will not fade. The lawn social at Jos. Elkins on Friday evening last was enjoyed by many, and will be followed by others equally enjoyable.

Some people may think that our town is having a boom; it is a mistake, houses are being built to meet actual demand, that is all. For a variety of drinks go to G. T. Cotton's new pump. We wonder how long it will be before this well will conduct itself faultless.

Boon Flock has severed his connection with the Mammoth planer and will hereafter run the steam engine for Humphrey & Taylor. Mr. Tamplin has surrendered the razor and mug to his employer and will find permanent employment with Mr. Jones of Albany.

Joe Harbin drives a trotter that touches the earth in high places only. A little patient training, Mr. Harbin, will give your colt more speed. We noticed Fred Peckler riding a new style of bicycle on our streets. Just as soon as a cycle with four wheels is invented we propose to ride.

The young men don't object to Mr. Fink taking a partner out riding, but to taking two at a time looks too much like a monopoly of the fair sex. Rev. C. P. Bailey, solicitor for the Baptist Seminary, preached in the Presbyterian church Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Lumber is being hauled and new sidewalks are being laid on several of our principal streets. By the time rain falls it will find us high and dry. The train on the O. P. Monday last encountered a bear. It is rumored that the train stopped, the bear went one way and the passengers another.

The work of clearing the ground in Isabella Park goes steadily on. Another autumn will find a wonderful transformation in East Lebanon. The city council at its last meeting ordered several new walks built and transacted considerable other business looking toward the improvement of our town.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to Cruson & Menzies' since 1888, please call and settle, as all of our old accounts will soon be put in the hands of a collector. Wm. Reed may be growing old and corpulent, but he is sufficiently active to sell goods, which he does well. Mr. Reed will be at work on his residence.

Fred Dowd accidentally shot himself with a revolver. The ball passed through the flesh of one of his fingers and will guarantee to the left hand a few days rest.

Strangers are inquiring about the proposed railway to Sodaville and Waterloo. We predict that this road will be built before two years pass.

Families arrive on the trains and also by wagon almost daily, who are bent on pleasure and recreation. For summer retreats and health resorts, our Sodaville ranks high.

It is a mistake to notion that corn will not grow in Oregon. A man who wears a No. 12 boot showed us more corn on the acre than a quarter-section of Iowa land can produce.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a lawn social at the Academy grounds on Tuesday evening next. Refreshments will be served. Cordial invitation extended to all.

C. O. Gentry brought to this office two peaches that measured respectively 12 and 18 inches in circumference. New Jersey peach-growers are likely to be outdone by the west yet.

There are some campers at Sodaville who have just arrived from Palouse, and are in search of farming lands. A party of men from all points of the compass to this favored land.

Settle Bros. tell us that their warehouse will be taxed to its utmost capacity again. Reports from different parts of the country indicate at least an average crop of wheat and oats.

When we stated last week that twenty carpenters found employment in Lebanon we placed the estimate entirely too low. Actual count shows more than forty carpenters at work.

Some one started a rumor last Sunday involving two young hearts which was altogether too good to be true. The rumor was that separate tables this week, which gives a lie to the report.

Bob McClure joined the society of Grangers while he was away, but never went further than the infancy degree, professing the same as the tables this week, which gives a lie to the report.

There is a paint mine on the farm of Martin Hickman near town. The ore of a different color from that which is found at the San Juan company's mine, but in other respects the mines are identical.

The conference of the M. E. church, South, was formally opened Thursday morning at the Academy building. A great many of the ministry are in attendance; the lady also are well represented.

Rev. New announced on his last appointment that he would preach next Sunday on "Love." As this is an interesting subject, especially to young people, they will probably be a good attendance.

Our old friend W. K. Temple, of Stand Ridge, kindly furnished us conveyance from Tallman into Lebanon Monday. Wm. says that he averaged a little more than twenty bushels to the acre up to this time.

The ladies of the Relief Corps will give an ice cream social Friday evening, August 29, at the McDonald hall, one door south of Beard & Holt's drug store. Everybody invited. Ice cream and cake, 15 cents.

Mr. Powell brought to this office a box of Red Astrachan which are a fine lot of apples as we have seen. We hope Mr. Powell may be spared to a ripe old age and that he will remember us annually.

Died, at his home near Waterloo, Aug. 18, 1890, Elias Saltmarsh, De. was born in Tingo county, New York Dec. 20, 1830. Mr. Saltmarsh was an old pioneer. One by one the early inhabitants are passing away.

A new style of millinery goods was selling at a premium lately; so I, told us that I told him that he had been told by some young ladies who had heard it rumored in certain quarters, and therefore the report goes unchallenged.

A mechanic and a business man were heard to say that Lebanon is the live-liest town in the State. Not having visited Lebanon through the State, we are not prepared to speak positively, but we do say that we have a bustling, wide-awake town.

There are ten or twelve carpenters at work on the public school building. Parents desiring to give their children a good education will find good accommodations and excellent facilities at both the public school and the Santiam Academy.

Distinguished visitors among us, think the changes from one season to another so slight as to require the consultation of a calendar. Perhaps this accounts for the wide circulation and use of the same.

Examine the ornamental work on Guy's new store front. We understand that Mr. Guy will remodel the front of his corner building to correspond with the new one. It does not believe in the antediluvian style of building things, but keeps abreast of the times.

Dr. Barker and his brother Benjamin spent a few days recently in the mountains along the line of the O. P. R. R., inspecting the timber. Doctor Barker's timber on the North Santiam is scattering and of an inferior quality, while the timber on the South Santiam is large and of a No. 1 grade.

We predict that the end draweth nigh; and we base our prediction on that passage of scripture which says the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the sower shall go out of the harvest field and down Main street with a breaking plow on his harvest wagon, and certainly he cannot be far behind the sickle and reed.

Farmers in this vicinity are marketing a new product by the ton. Our paper mill will use all the straw in this section of country and the farming community will be benefited by the sale of what has heretofore been a waste product. What we need, and must have, is a market for our straw. Industries of all kinds to look after our wasting resources.

The Santiam Mineral Paint Company might several lots in Lebanon last week, near the terminus of the railroad. The company ask of our citizens a small bonus which will doubtless be erected, and then buildings will be erected, a corporation will be established and all the appliances necessary for the manufacture of paint will immediately follow.

Iowa and Nebraska farmers coming to this country are struck with what seems to them the poverty of our resources, owing to the absence of their staple product—corn. This seeming lack is more than compensated by other products indigenous to Oregon soil. Wait until our crops are all harvested and we fear no adverse criticisms.

A special train bearing the following distinguished guests, S. P. Redwood, official came into Lebanon Wednesday afternoon: E. Kochler, manager; J. H. Walk, roadmaster; W. A. Grandohl, superintendent bridges and buildings; and M. Volk, division roadmaster. The object of the visit was an inspection of this place, the depot will probably undergo some changes for the better.

Montague must be preparing for a soon, judging by the way he is stocking up his Mammoth and Cruson & Menzies' Cash Stores. By purchasing his goods in such large quantities he naturally gets good goods in all the departments of his extensive establishments at prices that absolutely astonish other merchants in the valley, some of them going so far as to say that Montague sells his goods as low as they buy them at wholesale. The careful buyer invariably goes to Montague's.

Families not already supplied should lose no time in procuring bottles of Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for bowel complaint in all its forms. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

Exposure to rough weather, getting wet, living in damp localities are favorable to the contraction of diseases of the kidneys and bladder. As a preventive, and for the cure of all kidney and liver trouble, use that valuable remedy, Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm. $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Beard & Holt.

There will be some change of business locations shortly. Peterson & Wellies will hereafter occupy the north room on the ground floor of Guy's new building. Dr. Booth will move his office from residence on Main street to a very neat and cozy room upstairs in the same building. Mr. Garland has not decided where his law office will be. It is probable that he will occupy a room on the same floor of the new building.

A. C. Missal, engineer for Humphrey & Taylor's saw mill, left Wednesday for Cavalier, Dakota, a month's residence in these parts has led him to make this last trip to Dakota to see his affairs in that country of halibuts and mink and wreckage. He will pay no more tax on herds and thunder storms, but will pay no more tax on herds and thunder elements are at peace and angry winds seldom speak above a whisper.

The Lebanon Cornet Band are making elaborate preparations for a grand military ball in the near future. The bands from the neighboring towns are expected to be present, and all companies and bands will appear in full uniform. The ball will be under the efficient management of Prof. W. W. Crawford. Mr. Crawford is an excellent musician and will see that the music on that occasion will be the very best. See this paper for the date, which will appear in a short time.

We enjoyed a ride with Justice Wallace to Sodaville, Tuesday. This health resort has been well patronized this summer and is growing in popularity each recurring season. The accommodations are good, there is a six-thousand-dollar hotel at that amiable place. Mr. Hartman, we found several at the spring quaffing health from a tin dipper. On our return trip we met two vehicles loaded with new recruits. Sodaville is a very pleasant and healthful place in which to spend the summer months.

The One-Price Cash Store has become one of the features of Lebanon. As everything is new and fresh, and the prices are so much below that charged by the ordinary establishments, people who desire to buy their goods for cash naturally go to the corner, where they do not have to make up with the dealer for the non-paying customer, and when they are constitutionally tight-fisted they are not so tight-fisted as they were before. The store is a very successful one, and it is the place where you will purchase your supplies.

Machinery made and repaired at the Lebanon machine shop. We have nothing but the best machinery, it is managed by practical machinists and consequently we can repair steam engines, boilers, saw mills, windmills, quartz mills, planing mills, chop mills, saw mills, rock mills, coffee mills, shingle mills, bark mills and paint mills. In short we can make or repair anything that has wheels and wears belts, rubbers, keep on hand large leather, rubber packing, heavy packing and brass goods. You can take a skeleton of an engine, a threshing or any kind of machine and they will put it in running order on short notice.

PERSONALITIES. Ped Coshov was in to see us a few days since. F. H. Roseop spent Wednesday night in Lebanon. Jos. Buhl went to Seattle Thursday week. Buff. Platt has not been well for several days.

Ben Kirk of Albany was in town a few days since. J. F. Hyde has been afflicted with nervous chills this week. J. M. Howe and Geo. Coshov drove over from Waterloo Friday.

R. N. Wright was the victim of a shooting accident last Thursday. J. R. Wyatt, the young attorney of Albany, was in town on Monday. F. F. Croft, superintendent of A. W. M. Co., called on us a few days since. Thos. Kay, of the Kay Woolen Mill Co. of Salem, was in our office Friday.

Geo. Cobble, who formerly lived in Brownsville, spent a few days in our town last week. G. W. Cruson and Ben Donaca took their families on the Cascades this week.

Rev. F. W. Parker and family of Woodburn are spending a few days pleasantly at Sodaville. Miss Viola Temple, Miss Annie Ward and Miss Ida McKnight went to Kitson Springs to spend a month.

Mr. G. W. Wheeler and wife have spent about a week recently visiting their son in Independence. Mr. Leonard, who formerly had a jewelry store in the St. Charles, was visiting in Lebanon lately.

Ped Coshov and family passed through town Monday on their way from Waterloo to their home in Albany. Prof. Torbet arrived this week from the Dalles and immediately went to work in the interest of the Santiam Academy.

Uncle Ameyon Whitt attended conference this week. Uncle Slim will soon be an octogenarian, but is as supple as a boy. Mrs. Kindorf and Mrs. Brickel, of Portland, who have been visiting their cousin Onesimus, left by train Wednesday morning.

Miss Nettie Amos returned last week from a three weeks' visit at Harrisburg. Her cousin, Miss Eta Lewis, returned with her and will spend a few weeks in Lebanon.

Will A. Peairs, representing Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa, called on the Express office this week. He is a genial, courteous gentleman and a hard worker.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, of Portland and the Express a pleasant call lately. She has spent a few weeks at Waterloo and was on her way to Brownsville, her former home.

STOP AT 'CITY DRUG STORE.' For the next 30 days M. A. Miller will offer for sale Webster's Unbridged Dictionary, complete, for $3.25. Don't fail to avail yourself of this opportunity—the greatest bargain ever offered in Lebanon. One hundred must be sold in thirty days.

Sweet Home Stage Leaves Daily except Sunday at 7 A. M.; arrive at Sweet Home 12 M. Leaves Sweet Home daily except Sunday at 1 P. M.; arrive at Lebanon 6 P. M. M. WESTFALL.

No fish oil in our machine oils. CRUSON & MENZIES.

A MODERN ST. PATRICK.

We are willing to allow the usual discount on snake stores, give our readers the benefit of all doubts, suffer the impeachment of every virtuous except ourselves, give the Kansas man a chance to start, and then we are traveling through a dry, parched country on foot, and after a long day's walk, lay down our weary bodies on dried vegetation; after having taken the usual precaution of hanging our drapery around us, which in this case was a hair rope, which no snake was ever known to cross. We relieved our thirst at intervals by quaffing the medicinal waters of our inn. At the hour of 9 we felt the wriggling presence of an enemy in our right boot; simultaneously the other boot was painfully conscious of a squirming in the other half of our foot-gear, and prepared for the battle. For nine full hours we waged cruel war upon the progeny of sod corn and barley, employing meanwhile the tactics of St. Patrick with the horrible result of a snake bite. A company of cow boys came upon the scene as we closed our labors, and the good fellows, never forgetting the mate of the killed and wounded, placing it at one a minute for nine hours, drapery and two bootfalls. We were now trapped beyond recovery. Now, mind you, we never moved out of our tracks on the ground, and we were now a firm believer in the spontaneous generation of vipers. The conditions of the experiment are known to everyone, and anyone who will conduct the experiment for himself.

FIN OVER THE WIRES.

We witnessed a wrestling match on Main street this week that looked much like a revival of the Olympic games. A lad fourteen or fifteen years of age walked into a furniture store and tackled a wire strapper "back hold." The wren commodity was untamed and the wire strapper was downed by anyone.

BROWNVILLE BREEZES.

Mines. Miners mining. Blue river or bust. Crops are good. Hops are a good price. Hon. Jas. Swank was in town Tuesday.

W. R. Bishop came up from Portland Tuesday. Jake Blyew is having new doors put in his stable. After harvest pay your bills and you will be happy. A good meeting at the Baptist church. Let us all attend.

Little Vena Ghibler has recovered from her late illness. Mrs. Fannie Bishop is visiting old friends in Brownsville. Enoch Ridgway drove to Lebanon and back Saturday night.

W. W. Waters will accept a position in the Ravenna flour mill. Morris Jaeger and W. R. Bishop went to Crawfordville Tuesday. Wm. Beam, of Portland, is in town visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Starr and Reese report Mrs. and Miss Tompleton much better. Mrs. Windom is visiting Mr. Nichol's family in Plainview this week. The victims of the Callapool bridge disaster are slowly recovering.

Mr. Bell, the Crawfordville jeweler, is in Brownsville for a few days. Chas. Younger and Louis Galbraith drove over from Albany Sunday. Mr. Bell, the Crawfordville jeweler, is in Brownsville for a few days.

Mr. Starr contemplates adding a stock of books and stationery to his drug store. Joe Harrison had a fine horse shot and killed by careless hunters last week. The E. W. M. Co. shipped about a ton of bagging—the accumulation of years.

Chas. Hagan returned from the mountains last week in a poor state of health. At the rate that work is now proceeding, Wm. Dunn will have a dwelling soon. Mr. Winter finds it impossible to do the work since reducing the price of photographs.

The E. Church held their fourth quarterly conference Saturday and Sunday last. Jode More went to the mines last week and secured specimens to send to Seattle agents. Enoch Ridgway has not been able to sleep or eat for three days. What is the matter, Enoch?

Water must be scarce in the country; Joe Weber came into town Saturday to have his boiler filled. Miss Tabor, who has been visiting the family of Mr. B. Hanchard, returned to Oregon City Monday. The revival services at the Baptist church will be protracted another week.

There were two baptisms Sunday. J. B. Keeney has been commissioned to supervise the Calappa trail, which will be completed in about ten days. Brownsville is to have an electric light plant (a small one) to light the town. Mr. Starr and J. H. Waters purchased a fine horse from Joe Harrison last week. The horse is not, as yet, dead.

Abe Bennett has resigned his position as night watchman in the woods mills and is now employed in the saw mill. Rumor says that a large quantity of chicken feathers have been discovered in Nemo's room. Will Nemo please explain. Nemo, Jr., sends his thanks to that young lady who sent him such a nice piece of fried chicken. Send another just like it.

Lead & Riggs of the Brownsville tannery are negotiating for an engine, this being procured, "the creaking old mill" will be laid aside. The Loudon, who was suddenly called home on account of the illness of his child, returned to work on the trail again Wednesday. Joe Montgomery was moved from the latter place, about five miles from Mitchell, to his home at Jas. McKargue's, after suffering from a broken limb for several days.

The Oxford mill has been undergoing repairs since spring freshet and will doubtless have a good patronage from those who still think bread the best thing to eat. Joe Sawyer met with a serious accident by having his left arm caught in a shaft at Moyer's saw mill. Had it not been for the best breaking it would have been fatal.

Some public-spirited men have built a connecting path between the old sidewalk and the new bridge on the south side of the river. Everlasting benedictions on their heads. Mines have been discovered a few miles south of town. We know not the richness of this late discovery and shall, therefore, await further developments. The Eagle woolen mill has just received a Novelty twisting machine from Geo. McKargue's. This will place the mills in a position to produce the new novelties in cashmere designs.

SCUB. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. United States Land Office, Oregon, Oregon, May 28, 1890.
