TO WEAR OR NOT TO WEAR. Beauty and Taste

"No woman is ugly when she is dressed." Only Lord Chesterfield could multr of such a gallant per-The question was asked of a patient-ther middle-aged geptieman who

If he used the word "dressed" advisedly and meant clothed with a due was the sign "Paying Teller," in one of regard to the selection of becoming the up-town national banks. colors and to the cut and style of the "Well," he reptied, with a smile-a not until one has livel on terms of friendship with caunibals, says Blackartistically and becomingly dressed. But so few women seem to know what colors will enhance or destroy their good looks, what style of gown will to the appearance has the contrary effect.

People who are florid must be careful what reds they use even more than the pule people. A deep blue red, that red suggested in a plum or the velvet however. I think I know them all. I of men and of a leaf of a red pansy that has caught a shade from the petals of its near ueigh-bor, the dark blue pansy is the color for florid complexions. Grown people should be careful not to wear bright red.

a dazzling beauteous being could sur-vive the uglifying effect of this de-prayed color, and then it must be com-bined with white.

Dark sage green is an almost univertinge of green there may be in the complexion; for this reason brunette people generally look well in green.

Only those who have an exquisite complexion should dare to wear pale green. If the complexions are clear, rosy, and fair, pale and dark have or privileges. Dark green, combined with pale, ning to brunetts with clear, allid complexions.

Yellow is a delicious color-a favorite hue of the old masters and Dame Nature. Warm yellow has a upon the bank for information, and, good effect on the complexion. It makes the skin look fairer than it really is. It goes pleasingly with many colors. A brunette will look particularly handsome in a green yelferable by daylight is simply delicious in the gaslight. Pure blue and yellow are harsh. A good rule is never to combine two colors of equal intensity. One or two colors should be dull and

Not too pure. Yellow will blend well with old robelin blue, with heliotrope and cer- was only carelessness." tain shades of blue grays. Amben of all shades is exceedingly becoming to Jark people.

People with blue eyes should not wear bright blue. It makes their eyes tulle.-N. Y. Herald.

LADIES AS DEPOSITORS. Defors Which Should Adorn Women of The Dimoulties the Dear Creatures Have A Plea in Palliation of the Practice of looking, middle-aged gentleman who stood behind the counter over which wearer, he was undoubtedly right no woman is ugly when she is not find it itksome. Indeed, I rather enjoy myself. The efforts of a lady to master the intricacies of banking rules and practices used to make my head ache. Now they provide cutertainment onceal their defects and heighten their for me all day long. I used to sigh charms and what way of arranging when I saw a lady approach the wintheir hair will improve their faces, that dress of times instead of adding beauty dicating that she was in doubt about grounded. something. Now Fobserve her coming new problem-though that is unlikely of character. That is units by, also,

"Many of them understand everything. The majority of them do. The As Modjeska observes: "As one grows older red is more becoming above the face than below it." Dark cardinal velvet above gray hair and dark eyes has a most charming effect. Pink is most becoming for fair young resonic. Rose color, combined with there was no money to her credit? Twe had that happen to me a number type had that happen to me a number type had that happen to me a number.

of times. It happened this morning, When I told the annoved woman that her account was slightly overdrawn, she asked me why I hadn't sent her word.

sally becoming color. It annuls any book and comparing the total with the total deposits in your bank-book,' I said.

vincing her that it would be necessary to put money in the bank before she could draw any more out. She wasn't quite so bad, however, as the very innocent lady, historical in bank circles, who, when one of her checks was sent back marked 'No funds,' descended incidentally, for more money, explaining that there must be plenty to her credit still, as she had only used about half the checks in her check book.

inform a bright-looking young woman that her signature to the check she presented would be absolutely necessary before he could honor it. She blushed furiously and hurried to a desk to add her name. "There's an example." he said, laughing. "But she knows better. It wonder that lady depositors are not and seems to deaden the bloom of the skin. Golden-haired blondes, redhaired maids and matrons, and dark people with clear, rosy complexions can wear black and look well. All by being artistically arranged and releved by another color, or by the soft, foduing effects of net or lace or airy

Eating Human Pleak. in Comprehending Simple Things. The word cannibal is associated in our minds with scenes of the most debased savagery that the imagination the reason for our loathing of it.

distinction we dr

degrading religions superstition. It is not until one has live t on terms of wood's Magazine, that one realizes that the practice is not incompatible with an intelligence and moral qualities which command respect. And after all, if one can for a moment lay aside the instinctive corror which the idea calls up and dispassionately consider the nature of canaibalism our repagnance to it seems less logically It'is tran, that it must generally en-

with pleasure, for she may have some -or she may develop some new phase a little curions. inhabitants of a plauet, whose physical necessition and not force them to eat flesh-to take life in order to "Why is it they can't understand?" live-regarding us with much the same kind of abhorence with which we look on cannibals. Most of our nat-

"You could have told very easily by

" 'Oh,' she said, 'I can't bother with tigures. I always bated 'em."

"And I had some difficulty in con-

The teller was obliged just then to body of the man he had killed by daily roasting what remained of it to pre-When he had paid the young woman her money he continued: "It is a great vent decomposition.

continually being defrauded, because of their manner of drawing checks. Of course when they draw them at the bank we can correct them. But the any girl who freekles should not fret Of course when they draw them at the Black should be worn advisedly by both old and young. The young can wear it better than the old. It brings out clearly the hard lines in the rest of the checks they write during their shop-ping hours would. I should think, be a constant temptation to people with of the checks and the freekles and the freekles their small change—and big change, ointment, softening and whitening the in point. too, for that matters at home, for the skin far better than either glycerine or A few purpose of enjoying it. I have had as vaseline. It should be composed of

IN FAVOR OF CANNIBALS. FREMONT'S CAMEL SCHEME. A Project Which Was a Prophecy of the Advent of the Iron Horse;

Mrs. M. A. Bingham, widow of the late General Bingham, met General John C. Fremont in Kansas City in the French of Catulle Mendes. days before the war, and has many in-cidents to relate of the Pathflader. and it so prettily! can picture; of men in habits and appearance a little leaver than the brute; of orgies the result of the most One of the most interesting refers to the meeting of Senator Benton and when she put her hands on her hips. General Fremont forty years, ago to lifted up her saucy little face, and, stands baffled before the mys discuss the establishment of a caravan looking at you with balf-shut eyes, ruins of the Pacific sea Islands.

route to California. "I met General Fremont along in the it flew as straight and swiftly to its rises," remarked Mrs. Bingham. "He mark as any shaft in Capid's quiver. fiftics," remarked Mrs. Bingham. "He came here and stopped several days at the famous Gillis House. I remember taking dinner with him. He was re-"Pshaw!" she uttered it on all public garded as a brave, adventurous, daring occasions. spirit. We looked upon him very much as people of to-day look upon Stanley. At the time General Fremont was in Kansas City planning for a caravan to quently than to anybody else, and for travel across the great American the very best of reasons. For he loved Desert. His right hand man in this her and she pretended that she didn't tail murder, but that is certainly not project was Lieutenant Boale, a civil love him, and so for a long time engineer, educated at West Point. The "Pshaw!" was all the answer the poor something deeper than this, and the tween the flesh father-in-law of General Fremont, fellow got to his pravers and protestais at first sight Senator Benton, was also here, and tions in imagine the regarded the caravan scheme with favor. They proposed to import camels from Africa and use them in transporting goods overland along the your lips." route known as the Santa Fe trail. The camels were imported at a considerable expense, but the trip was found imfuse to listen to me." practiable. The camels could not stand the climate. It was proposed to winter them in Texas or Southern California, but the project fell through, his beard. and the promoters of the scheme lost considerable money. "I shall never forget," continued Mrs. Biugham, "how one bright sunny morning General Fremont rode away

What, then, are the motives that lead men, apart from the pressure of from Kansas City on his way to Cali-fornia, looking every inch a soldier in kis handsome uniform and military trappings. Reining his steed to one She struggled and screamed like a state country and the bar and the state of birds and mystic beasts and faces. famine, to practice cannibalism? Among certain African tribes, and lately in Hayti, it has been the outcome of a debased religious superstiside, he said, laughingly, to me: When captured bird, and as uselessly, for the and geometrical figures. In one of victorious lover paid no attention to these houses was found a curious stone Singular Liquids That Have Been Seized tion or that extraordinary instinct I come back get your saddle ready and I will give you a tide on one of my camels.' I never had the privilege of taking that ride. General Fremont common to all ra es which leads men to connect the highest religious enthusinsm with the most horrible orgies that their diseased imagination can soon forgot the camel scheme and went | sire. conceive. The feeling that leads memoff to new fields. The camel idea And as he grew bolder, and, drawing bers of sects to bind themselves toseemed perfectly feasible and practica. her on his knee, kissed her white throat gether by the celebration of some unble, but the idea of a Pacific railroad and clasped her yet more passionately, speakable rite perhaps led to the accuseemed preposterous. While discuss-ing the caravan project Senator Beuton struggling and had recourse to tears sations laid against the Coristians of the second century and the Hungarian said to me: 'You are young, but you and entreaties. Jews of the nineteenth. But in the will live to see the iron cars start from South 'eas, although the motive has Kansas City and cross the mountains been falsely attributed to a craving for animal food, it was generally the last act of triumph over a fallen enemy, Thus Homer makes Achilles, triumph-ing over the dying Hector, wish he could make mince-meat of his body and devous it. Triumph could go no "I could not comprehend such a forgiveness, given without the least further than to slay and then to assimproject. I was surprised at its magni-tude. Visions of my school days of the to him again-that is, not when she ilate the body of your foe, and the belief that by thus making him a part of you you acquire his courage in battle is said to have led a chief of old Fiji to Sahara in its size, the geographies said, eame flitting through my brain, and I be married next week. I believe." actually consume himself the entire remarked:

"But Senator, how about the great American Desert? How can they ever Standing in the moonlight on the portico of the famous Gillis House, Impressive and maintie is a soon as they catch sight of each the noment, says the Philadelphia Times, Valuable Recipes. The girl who freekles, says the N. Y. aged Senator has seemed to me ever seemed so plausible, a failure-the a constant temptation to people with freckles and the freting-Dr. Anna Pacific road, which seemed so far away. to get the seemed so far away.

He Wasn't Extravagant.

Cautious people are sometimes too cautious, says the St. Paul Pioneer a novelty, and they appear to leave all is, however, an innocent and beneficial that it was $500 per front foot, is a case A few days ago a stranger, while passing a haberdasher's store, was atmany as fifecen checks from one wo-man in one day and some for amounts as small as 5 cents. The other day a check was presented here for 19 1-2 tracted by a display of shirts, which were further distinguished by a placard on which was printed the legend, "These are 75 cents." It happened give consistency to the mixture. This that in the same case were a few silk makes a perfectly harmless cosmetic umbrellas which command about $3 which can be applied to the face to each on a pleasant day, with a slight remove freckles. endency to rise if clouds gather. The Many country places are beset with pedestrian gazed long and earnestly into the window; then he wandered poison ivy, and from which summer visitors are apt to suffer. It is well to away, only to return soon and gaze again. This was repeated several times. Finally he entered the store know that it can be cured by a few applications of wood lye. The wood ashes in a bag and boil a few moments. Dilute so that it will not be too harsh, and asked to look at the umbrellas. One was brought out and he opened and examined it with the utmost care. it the afflicted parts, and in ten min-It seemed to suit him exactly and he utes wash off with soft tepid water and turned to the proprietor and remarked: anoint with yaseline. Repeat two or "I'll give von an even 60 cents for it." three times, or till a cure is effected. The proprietor evidently didn't think A method of whitening tarnished he understood aright, for he leaned forward and said, "What?" The stranger again informed him "Tll give silver that is used by many jewelers is to immerse the article in a bath of evanide. The strength of the solution you an even 60 cents for the umbrella." should depend on the condition of the The proprietor was dazed. Then he jewelry to be cleaned. After immersbegan to recover. "How much do you think it costs?" ing the piece thoroughly in this liquid clean with whiting free from dust or

A SABINE LOVE STORY. MYSTERIES OF THE PACIFIC.

'I love you."

Pshuw!"

se to listen to me." "Pshaw!" said she, bringing her filustrating the Effect of Gentle Force on Interesting Evidences of a Civilization Woman's Sweet Nature, of Great Antiquity.

Pshaw

Here is a cute little story from the Modern science, which has brought Not a then she of ancient Babylon, nutombed the mummy of the Pharaoh of Moses, and constructed something of a history for the Aztees and the mound builders, stands baffled before the mysterious emitted this provoking monosyllable, Kusaiz, otherwise known as Strong Island, of the Caroline archipelago, with a circumference of fifty miles, is covered with massive rulns of a remote date. They bear the outlines of fortifleations, and are built of stones ten feet long, duly squared on six sides, of a geological formation not met with on the island. Ascension Island, known as Panape, is larger than Kusale, possesses similar ruins, but much larger. In one place remains a wall 300 feet long and 30 South Bend feet high, forming a court. Little Easter Island, on the eastern outskirts of Polynesia, has no running water, no trees, nothing to attract in-habitants. Yet this island is peopled by Polynesians of the fair type, such as are found far away in the Society Islands, and is covered with remains of "I would give my life for a kiss from a prehistoric civilization of which every "I will blow my brains out if you rerecord but that of stone has perished At the southwest end of the island there are to be found the ruins of nearly a hundred stone houses, built in rig-ular lines and facing the sea. The walls of these houses are five feet thick She wasn't a bit afraid of him, you She wasn't a bit afraid of him, you and over five feet high, built of layers see, but he, poor fellow, was still a lit- of flat stones, and lined inside with flat tle afraid of her, and she drove him slabs. Internally the houses measure almost crazy with her coquetry. At last he lost all patience, and coming upon her unexpectedly one evening he slabs overlapping like tiles. The in-shapes not unlike the painting on the walls, and the coast is marked with hundreds of these sculptures. Again, on each headland of the isl-and there is an enormous stone plat-"Let me go, oh! Please let me go!" "Pshaw!" said he. He didn't say it size, fitted together without cement. to the Pacific Slope. I am old. I shall as prettily as she did, and he didn't They are built on sloping ground, pre-never live to see it. But I have con- have such a saucy little face, but then senting on the scaward side a wall face fidence in the country and I believe in the future of the railroad. This little town of 300 inhabitants will become one of the great cities of the world. terrace.

> The sea cliffs near this ancient settlement are carved into grotesque

Upon these platforms are stone pedestals, which have supported images great American Desert, second only to had on her best frock and wanted to and on some broken figures remain. Sahara in its size, the geographies said, keep her hair in order, and they are to On one platform fifteen images were found, in size ranging from three to thirty-live feet in height. They are of human shape, representing the upper part of the body only, with arms and hands close to the sides. The heads are cut flat to allow of crowns being placed on them, which crowns seem to have been made, not of the same maimpressive and majestic in manner, the down three or four times, as if to work terial as the statues, but of red tufa. themselves up to the right pitch for a This has been traced to an extinct since a prophet. The caravan, which fight. Then they swell out their dew- crater within a few miles of the houses, fight. Then they swell out their dew-lap, or throat pouch, until it becomes a beautiful light scarlet. All this while their color is constantly chang-ing in a manner marvelous to behold. Before they saw each other each wore a gay golden-green coat and a white shirt bosom, tinted with green, but in an instant this holiday attire vanishes and they don their tighting suits one after another, dark brown, light brown, olive green, slate color.

55 AND 57 FIRST ST. Road-carts, Buggies, Spring Wag-ons, Mowers, Binders, Feed-Cutters, Pumps, Etc.

> WE CARRY A LARGE VARIETY Buggles, Carriages and Spring Wagon s manufactured EXPRESSLY for the Pacific Coast Trade

Write for Special Catalogue.

We have made arrangements to

Childed Plows. GALE PLOWS

It will Pay you to Write for PRICES. ALLISON, NEFF & CO., at reduces ees

by the New York Customs Authorities. The custom house occasionally affords interesting glimpses into the vast foreign life of the United States, says a letter from New York. Recently while calling upon a friend, who holds a from a small wild plum which grows in that district. It is fiery and to a Yankee palate very disagreeable, but is extremely popular with the Hun-garians and Wallaks.

A suggestion of the Holy land was given by samples of honey wine, passover honey wine, and Jerusalem plum brandy. The first and second were sweet and odorous, but a trifle insipid. In composition they are like the methegilia and honey mead used in England during the middle ages. The brandy was raw and almost vitriolic. The three stimulants are consumed by the Slovaks and Polaks from Russia and the Greeks and Syrians from Asia

Minor. Specimens of pulque and mescal showed that Mexico has some influence upon its sister republic. The former is a beer made from cactus, and tastes somewhat like that gaseous German horror, weiss-beer. It is far stronger, however, and is said to produce the most intense drunkenness known to

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

while 24 POST STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. calling upon a friend, who holds a responsible position in that circum-locutory institution, he showed me samples of a large number of invoices of liquors which had recently been imported. Every one would puzzle the average man about town. One was a greenish-yellow fluid called slivovitsch. It comes from Austria and the Balkan states, and is made E. P. HEALD, Pres. C. S. HALEY. Sec.

> NW WHAT'S THE MATTER NUW, DON'T COMPLAIN

Look about you: reduce your expenses, live cheaper, nay cash as you go, learn how others do it. Smith's Catalogue, the "Host CIECLE," will give you menty valuable hints. It goes by mail every month to over Boos regular customers, and com-tains the lowest cash selling prices of over ten thousand articles, all carried in stack, and bought at first market price. Goods sold by sail order sys-tem all over the world. Largest trade of any house on the Coase. Jobbing prices lower than ever known. Goods retailed and sold in any quantity direct to consumers at wholesale rates. Packing, boxing and drayage free. Best of are given all orders. Try us once. EFSend postal and for Catalogue.

SMITH'S CASH STORE, 418 FRONT STREET. SAN FRANCISCO.

BOOKKEEPING, SHORTHAND, TELEGRAPH ENGLISH BRANCHES, ETC.

LIFE SCHOLARSHIPS, -

For further particulars adds

T. A. ROBINSON, M. A., President.

BLAKE, MOFFITT & TOWNE

INTO SPECIES AND DEALERS IN

BOOK, NEWS, WRITING AND WRAPPING

PAPERS

Card Stock Straw and Binders' Board

Patent Machine made Bags.

512 to 515 Sheramento St., SAN PRASCISOL

PACIFIC STATES

PRINTERS' COMPLETE

SUPPLY HOUSE.

HAWKS & SHATTUCK

409 Washington St., San Francisco.

NNOUNCE A FULL STOCK OF EVERYTHING

<sup>14</sup> required in howspaper and Job Printing, and many specialties not kopt by other houses.

PACIFIC COASE AGENTS FOR

Earnhart's Groat Western Type Foundry, Chicago Bagley & Sewall Cylinders, Colt's Armory Improved Universal Jobbers, Thorp's Gordon Presses, Enconst: Paper Outters, Simons' Cases and Furnitare, Golding's Presses and Tools, Solgrick Paper Joggers, Exystone Quoins, Page's Wood Type

Inks, Rollers, Tablet Composition, Etc.

PUBLISHEDS OF

HALL'S

enter's U.S. Type Foundry, New York, arnhart's Great Western Type Foundry, Chicago

No Vacations. Day and Ever

Fight Between Chameleons As soon as they catch sight of each

TOLSTOI AND THE BEAR.

How the Celebrated Novellat's Presence of Mind Saved His Life.

An incident is related about the celebrated writer, Count Tolstoi, which nearly cost him his life. He went out on a bear hunt with some of his friends, and, after selecting a spot which commanded a good view of the surrounding grounds, some of the more experienced hunters suggested that the snow had better be trampled down so that it would be easier for them to move about and get out of brain's way and have time enough to take a shot at him if he should come upon them unexpectedly. The count, however, although up to his waist in the snow, objected to this and said that it was entirely unnecessary, since the whole thing consisted of shooting the bear and not wrestling with him. They did not have to wait long, for he bear, which had just risen from its lair, was walking along to get out of the way of the hunters when it suddenly stepped out into the open space time, and neglected to till out the directly in front of Tolstoi.

He coolly took aim and fired, but the ball, for some reason or other went she replied, "because I always fill out wide of its mark. Taking aim again he fired, this time hitting the bear in the head, and the bullet lodged in the lower jaw and of course only made a very irritating wound, which made the ated the woman still further. bear so savage that, taking a few jumps, he was apon Tolstoi before he was able to realize it. Just as the bear came close enough to him he dropped down, and of course the bear went right over his body. Tolstoi's whole body sunk into the deep snow, and, the only part that remained exposed was his head, which the bear tackled as soon as he had recovered from his surprise in seeing Tolstoi disappear so suddenly Tolstoi did his best to push his head down as low as possible, and elevated his fur cap for the bear to bite. Twice the savage animal snapped at it, and then, discovering his mistake, made a bite deeper down, this time taking a piece of flesh from the count's right

Just at this moment his comrades returned, and by their loud yells succeeded in driving away the bear, who very slowly turned his back upon the hunters and walked into the woods. naster of the situation.

Wherein the Resemblance Failed.

The late Gen. Clinton B. Fisk of New ersey, who attained political promince as the Prohibition candidate for ident, was a Sunday-school worker sah?" well as a Prohibitionist. He was ays in demand at Methodist Sunday-off institutes, and at one of these "Deed I libs out dar, but I'se bin so ster in this manner: He was lyons, Kurnel?" ng an address after another speak-about George Washington, whose birthday this is. He was a General, difference between Washington and myself? At the furthest end of the room a small, boyish voice eagerly exclaimed: I know, sir." Well, what is the difference?" asked ment. -Gen. Washington couldn't tell a set the older p rsons present into a go, roar of languter, in which the General thimself joined as heartily as any one. "Kase I'd send one of de boys, yo' the average, 1.538 270 words a day to know!" -N Y Sun cents.

Gen. Fisk:

"Do they lose their tempers, oftea?" "Oh, sometimes, of course Just at that moment the angry notes of a woman's voice were heard. She was talking to the cashier. It appeared that a check of hers had been refused because it was drawn for an amount larger than the sum to her eredit

"The check," said the cashier, calmly, "called for $23. You have only $14 yet leave it quite strong. Paint with

"I have, too," she answered fiercely. "I've got $37."

"You're mistaken, madame," an-"Well, here's my book. You can see for yourself.

The cashier took the book with the resigned air of a man who had been there before many a time. He examined it quickly. "The trouble is," be said, "that you have drawn a check harriedly some grit. How to Treat a Sweetheart.

stub. "I couldn't possibly have done that," the stub first. And, besides, I don't write checks hurriedly. I don't do treatment of him:

business that way." The cashier smiled, and that exasper

"You've made the mistake yourself," she declared.

"We do not make mistakes here," was the quiet response. "But you might," she said, with emphasis

"Yes, we might, but we never do." "It's possible, isn't it?" she demanded, with more emphasis. "Yes, it's possible. Almost everything is possible. But we never have made one in our twenty-two years of business life."

The lady sniffed at this, and then, throwing her checkbook on the counter, she said, sarcastically, "Well, if this institution needs money so badly, you can have it." She flounced out. Will the bank be that much rich-was asked of the paying teller. "Hardly," he replied; "she'll undoubtedly come back and draw it out." -N. Y. Times.

A Substitute.

"Julius," said the Colonel, with a benevolent smile, "you probably know that I have a bundred acres of watermelons? "I-I-has yo' dun got dat much,

"Why, you live out there, Julius, and

"But suppose you went there?"

"Arter millyons?"

"Gwine ter steal 'em?"

Yes.

"Yes

erings, as he used to tell, he was werry busy I hain't had time to inquar' around. What about dem watermil-"Julius, suppose I should drug some ho had reminded the children that of those melons? "Yes, sah." in was Washington's birthday. Said

"Put in something which would "Of course, you all know, children, make the thief awfully sick?" "I follers vo', sah." "Do you think you could tell one of also. Can any of you tell what is the the drugged melons by feeling of it in the night "Me? Me? What would I be doin' in yo' millyon patch at night, sah?"

Gen. Fisk, with a smile of encourage-lie, sir!" was the exultant reply, which use to argify dat p'int, kase I wouldn't he inquired. 'Seventy-five cents."

"And you have been debating all this time whether you would give that amount for a silk umbrell?" From an old New England scrap The stranger said he had. book: When he comes to see you le The proprietor led him gently but firmly to the door. "My friend," he me give you a few hints as to your said, tenderly, "you are too far from home and you'd better scoot before First of all, my dear, don't let him get an idea that your one object in life some hungry car-horse gets a chance s to get all you can out of him. to nibble at you and make a funeral

Don't let him believe that you think of you before the mistake is discovto lightly of yourself that whenever he has an idle moment he can find you ready and willing to listen to him.

to permit this.

tentio

yourselves.

appreciates it.

Stealing Kisses. Don't let him think that you are go ing out driving with him alone, even if

A good joke is being told on a well-known young Third street man. He your mother should be leuient enough is a great society man. He is hand-Don't let him think that you are gosome, polished and something of a ing to the dance or the frolic with him;" dandy. He is quite good-looking and, you are going with your brother, or a pair of glasses balanced on his aristocratic nose gave him an intellectual air that he would not otherwise poselse you are going to make up a party which will all go together. Don't let him spend his money on For a year or so he has been desess. you; when he goes away he may bring voted to a well-known young society you a box of sweets, a book, or some woman. Not a week ever passed that music; but don't make him feel that he has not been at least twice to see you expect anything but courteous ather. About a month ago he proposed and was accepted. About two weeks Don't let him call you by your first name, at least not fill you are engaged ago the engagement was broken, only to be patched up again shortly afterto him, and then only when you are by ward.

The cause of the engagement being Don't let him put his arms around broken was that the young man made his accustomed visit; he was shown inyou and kiss you; when he put the pretty ring on your finger that meant to the parlor. While sitting there he that you were to be his wife soon, he heard his betrothed coming down the gained a few rights, but not the one of stairs. He stepped to the door, and as indiscriminate caressing. When he placed it there he was right to put a kiss on your lips-it was the seal of your love; but if you give your kisses up and saw his sweetheart at the head too freely they will prove of little value. A maiden fair is like a beautiof the stairs. He looked down and saw ful, rich, purple plum; it hangs high He tried to explain matters but his up on the tree and is looked at with sweetheart would not have it, and the envy. . He who would get it must work engagement was broken. She afterfor it, and all the trying should be on his side, so that when he gets it he ward accepted his explanation and reinstated him. This experience would have cured

most people, but it did not cure him. A few n ghts ago he called again and at his expense. He had not long been Old People in the Crimea. entered the parlor. There was no stationed at the hospital when a woman light in the hall nor in the parlor. In was brought in suffering from a severe A Greek woman who died at Simferpol, Russia, lately is said to have been 112 years old. She was working a short time he heard his girl coming down the steps. He stepped out into the hall, and as she reached the botin her garden to the last moment. Be. poming tired, she faid down to rest tom of the stairs he inclosed her in his doctor was engaged in hastily clipping and passed away without a struggle. arms and imprinted a long, lingering kiss upon her ruby lips. Releasing her, he struck a match and lit the gas, then, inght have hurt ber, he said. Oh, There are many centenarians in the Crimea. Three years ago there was in Kertch an old soldier whose dismissal turning to snatch a kiss, he was horrifrom the army dated from the time of fied to see before him the black cook. it's not," responded the lady with some Catherine II., and whose authenticated He gave her a dollar not to say any-thing about it, but it was too good to And so he was. "Wall, Kurnel Johnson, 'tain't no credentials put his age at 128 years. keep and she told it.

The government telegraph service of An infant grows eight inches during ately more than one-third less than the first year.

these preliminaries, and now, like a from the mape of the neck to the crown. flash, the tussel begins. And such a The faces of the images have well-detussle it is, to be sure! No fun or fined features, with thin lips, broad play about it, only deadly earnest. I noses, expanded nostrils, and a genhave watched these Lilliputian com- eral disdainful expression. It is bebats more than once; one especially I lieved, from the appearance of the eye-rocall between two unusually line spec- sockets, that obsidian eye balls were nens, regular anolis dudes, and a fair intended to be inserted. The ears are lady (I suspect she was at the bottom | very carefully carved, and are promiof the trouble, too), sat on a leaf close | nent. by and looked calmly on, ready to There are also, in different parts of greet the victor with sweet smiles. The antagonists seized each other by the jaws-their teeth are very tiny, hieroglyphics, which no one can exjust big enough to feel rough to one's plain. finger-but they managed to hold on to each other, and then their heads moved to and fro, their long tails stages, surrounded by walls which inlashed, they advanced and retreated up and down the stem of the evening jassamine, which they had selected as their battle ground, and for ten min- Island. This isle is 2,000 miles from their hues constantly changing, their Oparo. whole aspect instinct with rage and de-Who were those ancient people? The termination At the end of that time one of them that of the prehistoric civilizations of had lost half of his tail, but he fought America. The present inhabitants are bravely on until another sharp jerk de- simply tattooed savages. The ancient prived him of the remaining half. That race possessed intelligence far beyond was the "drop too much;" he did not anything now found in the Pacific; had "turn tail and run," simply because he ideas of architecture, sculpture, paint-had none to turn, but he did run as ing, and engineering and an elaborate sets were below zero. The bankrupt fast as he could go, leaving the victor religion. Archaeologists and ethnoloto swallow the writhing stump of his gists have given us no light yet. The tail, which he did with evident enjoy- mystery of the Pacific awaits solution. "You see," he said, 'I got married ment. The conquered hero escaped -Chicago News.

conquered enemy.

the same fate only by flight, for it is always considered the proper thing The Sense of Smell, among the anolis tribes to devour their > Smell is the most neute by far of the five human senses, according to the Pittsburg Dispatch. Take an ounce of A Resourceful Wife. musk-most powerful of scents-and leave it where the atmosphere is still, open on a table, for a year. At the months rendered odorous the whole air in its neighborhood, the most delicate scales cannot detect that it has lost a particle in weight. Yet the smell has been infinitely distributed, microscopic portions of the musk floating off and exciting impresshould divorce the objectionable daughter-in-law, and receive in return not sions upon the nerve papillæ under the only the parental blessing, but a good-ly part of the parental exchequer. When the matter was laid before sense has grown almost rudimentary seuse has grown almost rudimentary necessity for its use under civilized that the cave men had it quite as well developed as the sharpest-nosed beasts.

Damarin.

A new element named "damaria," is said to have been discovered in the erater of an extinct volcano in Dumaraaround her. "I want to ask you to sician of this city who was connected keep up the standard of gentlemanly at one time with the emergency hosand ladylike behavior that I see around me, as well as to preserve your good looks. How are you going to vertise for a couple of parents both belonging to long-lived families. Esavoiding certain youthful vices. Some of these you know well. Eating your dinner in a hurry is one. Smaggling your breakfast into your stomach is another. . Reading in bed is a third, and even worse is smoking in bed. In order to take new ideas into our minds we must read, but reading at the wrong fime does no good. Some people wonder at me for doing so much work never mind; that's all right." "No and never appearing fagged out. I will tell you how 1 do it. I laugh heartily. I love to laugh. I sleep soundly. I love to sleep. I eat well. I should say I love to eat, but you might consider me greedy."

is light, pleasant and wholesome; the punch is aromatic, savory, but so sweet as to be insipid; the corn brandtvin is not corn brandy, as the name literally LADIES ADMITTED INTO ALL DEPARTMENTS. translated would imply, but a whisky made from rye, oats and barley. nelte.

rich in fusel oil and consequently head-From Russia every now and then comes vodka or wodky, an impure, the island, wooden tablets covered reeking, strong alcohol; from Central America some delicious cordials made with curious carvings and strange out of pineapple, guava and banana; from China not less than fifty stimu-At Opara, or Rapaiti, Capt. Vine, jants, running from tea wine, rosebud close stone houses, and also square platforms of stone on the sides of one of the hills, similar to those on Easter wine and almond beer to heavy millet whisky and rice brandy; from Turkey some liquid for making shorbet, and from Brazil lavangina, or orange-peel gin. Over 5,000 different kinds of stimulants are known and recorded in the custom house, of which 2,800 were ntes they kept at it, their dewlaps swelled like beautiful searlet balls. Pabape, but the inhabitants of the lat-ter say their ancesters came from unknown to Americans fifteen years

A Victory Wou Too Late. A Detroit wholesale house sent an agent into one of the northern counties the other day, says the Detroit Free Press, to investigate and report on the was perfectly willing to explain how it about two years ago. Up to that time the postmaster and his wife had been at the head of society here and run the ranch. He had the only swallow-tail coat and she the only silk dress in the town." "I see." "We had to make a lead for the head and I bought my wife a $12 bonnet and a diamond ring."

"Yes."

"Yes."

'Yes."

the dollar.

of the summer.

"The postmaster bought his wife a bronco pony and a pair of diamond Newspapers on the HOME PLAN. ear-rings.

MANUFACTURERS OF Stereotype Newspaper Plates "Then I subscribed $200 to a new church, gave two lawn parties, and BOOKBINDFUS' AND ENGRAVERS' SUPPLIES. bought a top carriage and a pacer." 1.5.788.53

Tr 14

"He came up smilingly with a new brick house, a progressive eachre par-ty, and gave $250 to the heathen of SARSAPARILLA Africa. "I see." Well, I had gone in to smash him or lose a lung, and so I pledged myself Yellow Dock & for the preacher's salary for a year, lost $400 on a deal in wheat, kept two hired girls, bought three Persian rugs, backed a barber shop, took a half in-

"That must have laid him?" "It did. He threw up his hands and surrendered, but when you fellows in Detroit drew on me at three days' sight

I was dished. I'm sorry it happened, but you can't blame me. If that postmaster hadn't made a fool of himself

I'd have been able to pay 150 cents on

To Insure Long Life.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes says the first thing to be done to insure a long pecially let the mother come of a race

in which octogenarians and nonagenarians are very common phenomena. There are practical difficulties in fol-lowing out this suggestion, but possibl ythe forethought of your progenitors, or that concurrence of circumstances which we call accident, may have ar-

life is some years before birth to ad-

Iodide of Potass THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER AND TON C. terest in our home newspaper, and ALTERATIVE IN USE. presented every church in town with a

> It Cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cout, Catarrh, Scrofula, Tumors, Salt Rheum and Mercurial Pains.

> It invigorates the Stomach, Liver and B e relloving Dy pepsia, Indigestion and Constipation, restores the Appetile, increases and hardons he flesh.

It stimulates the Liver and Kidneys to healthy action, Purifies the Blood, and Beautifies the Case

J. R. GATES & CO., PROPRIETUR . 417 BANROME STRPPT R F . 42

14 Not Guilty.

Last winter the Northern Pacific lost a lot of coal at Helena, Montana, and accused prominent merchants of stealing It by the carload, claiming to have conclusive proof. P. J. Tuohy, one of the accused, has been tried and acquitted and that probably ends the cases.

Electric Railway in Salt Lake City. Salt Lake City, Utah territory, expects to have sixty-five miles of electrical railway in operation by the close of the summer.

land. It is reported to have an atomic weight of only 0.5, or half that of Mrs. Chant's Advice to Girls. These are the last public words I shall speak in Boston for a long time," said Mrs. Laura Ormiston Chant to several hundred young persons gathered

Now, could a man, an ex-swell, have when he was strapped for funds, I went to San Francisco and worked in a

a more accommodating wife. "Why," she said to a listening contidaute-who, of course, circulated the

she passed the door he leaped out and printed a kiss upon her lips. A faint scream above startled him. He looked added ingenuously: "Only last winter." that he had the housemaid in his arms. | bookbindery."-San Francisco Call.

There is a story told of a young phy-any American city of note.

matter, as all well - regulated con-Reason for Protesting.

madame she advised her spouse to ac- in human beings through want of cept the generous reward offered for the 'inconstancy of man," suggesting that it would be advisable to replete that the cave men had it quite as well the empty coffers. "What's a divorce more or less? Let's have one by all means-divide the spoils and get married over again.

A good story comes from one of the rural districts of an ex-swell who married a young woman with a reputation, end of that time, having for full twelve much to the chagrin of his family, who "cut him off," so to speak, for such a fatal mistake. Recently the parental hearts began to relent, and a proposition was made through an accommodating friend that the young ex-swell