West 25th Street, New York City, has passed through a most wonderful experience, Mrs. Harlan bad a happy home and through her devotion to her home duties over-taxed her strength. She had depressed feelings, entire lack Jof energy in life, and finally a cough at night and morning which grew worse each day. Upon looking in the day. Upon looking in the glass she saw dark circles under her eyes and found that she was growing thinner and losing all interest in life. This painful state of things continued for months until finally she became so weak she could not attend to her duffes and was confined to her bed the greater part of the time. One day Mrs. Harlan's very dear friend Mrs. Withird called and was amazed to see her so wan and faded. Two bright heetic spots stood upon each cheek, here lips were blue, her face pinched and drawn, and there was a pitcous look in her eyes. Mrs. Willard knew this meant countespition and her heart was touched for her friend. At her carnest request, the use of an English Reimedy Tor counsumption was tried. At the start very
