Are you in love? If so, marry the idol of your affections and then go to Matthews & Washburn's, at Albany, buy a stove or range, raise a large family and be happy.

The court house grounds at Albany have been set to shade trees, which looks as if Albanians had no thought of the county seat's being removed to the rural districts.

The late rains have started afresh the water supply, and we believe the most if not all the wells in town are supplied with a very good substitute for the "beaded" beverage.

If all delinquent subscribers would pay the small sums set opposite their names and take the EXPRESS at $1 50 a year, we would hold them in everlasting remembrance.

We take this occasion to thank the band for the music furnished by them on Christmas day, which, although not intended solely for our ears, was nevertheless appreciated by us.

The Odd Fellows received their new regalia this week. A partial inspection revealed the fact that they are very handsome, and the uninitiated may have an opportunity to see them at the approaching installation.

Some of our poultry fanciers apologize for the much-crowing of the rooster by saying that their crowings are more frequent about Christmas. Why don't you come out with the truth and say that they are glad they are alive?

A passenger on the Lebanon railroad who had recently come from Iowa remarked to us that the green wheat fields, pastures, and the commons, looked very strange to him. Oregon is a suprise to Eastern people in many respects.

What is the use of sending back to Iowa, California or to Portland for oat meal when a better location for an oatmeal mill cannot be found than Lebanon? We have the facilities and, last but not least, here is where we raise the oats.

The EXPRESS is authorized to say to the boys who broke the street lamp near Band Hall Christmas night, that they were seen and that a private interview with the marshal may save some unpleasantness and some notoriety on the part of the miscreants.

Rev. T. P. Boyd of the M. E. Church was visited by his membership on the night of Dec. 31st and left behind some substantial tokens of regard which invoiced about thirty dollars. The pastor stopped at this office and dropped his thanks to the donors.

C. C. Hackleman will retire from the city council in two weeks. Charley is a good legislator, but he can better serve the people in the capacity of boot and shoe dealer, for he has mastered the details of the business. He is the W. L. Douglas of Oregon.

W. C. Peterson received a nice Christmas present from the Oakland Home Insurance Company. It is a large silk muffler, in one corner of which is a picture of the company's building in Oakland. It is needless to say that Walter appreciates the gift.

A Herald correspondent says that John Morgan who lives near Plainview, had a runaway last Sunday, in which he had a collar-bone and a shoulder-blade broken, and that his wife, who alighted on her head and shoudlers, is suffering from concussion of the brain.

Sick Headache and a sensation of oppression and dullness in the head, are very commonly produced by indigestion; morbid despondency, irritability and over sensitiveness of the nerves may, in a majority of cases, be traced to the same cause. Dr. J. H. McLean's Kidney Balm and Pillets will positively cure.

While at the depot in Albany this week, we had an opportunity to sound the mud between the main line and the side track. A passenger who was standing beside us remarked that no such quagmires were allowed on other lines, and he thought it strange that the S. P. Co. did not fill the muddy flat with gravel.

If Brick Hardin don't manufacture enough brick this year to meet the home demand, even though there be several brick blocks built, our judgment of the man is at fault. The past year he was in the business as an experiment (and for the money there was in it), but this year it will be purely a business matter.

The following "People's ticket" was nominated Tuesday night, to be voted for at the city election next Monday: President of the Council, J. A Beard; councilmen, G. W. Cruson, G. M. Westfall, R. N. Wright, Jos. Elkins; recorder, ————; marshal, Ernest Case; treasurer, J. A. Roberts. As yet there is but one ticket in the field.

To settle a wager that was made last spring by two of our citizens that there would or would not be one hundred houses built in Lebanon the past year, the parties to the wager, each accompanied by a referee, made the tour of the town, and by actual count the new buildings outran that number. Judge Miller cheerfully furnished the cigars and E. B. Crouch is smoking—at the expense of some other man.

The Teachers' Institute convened in the public school building, in Lebanon, Dec. 26, at 7:30. The opening address was delivered by O. P. Ceshow, Jr., followed by the enrollment of teachers, as follows: Josiah Gideon, Miss Sadie Williams, W. L. Jackson, Miss Vena Kearnes, Mrs. Hattie Tillotson, E. H. Bahr, David Torbet, M. A. Miller, L. A. Wiley, S. A. Wilson, A. Marcellus, R. N. Wright, G. F. Russell, R. V. Jackson, Miss Nettie Ullery, Miss Lizzie Reed, A. J. Garland. The discussions of topics relating to school work were spirited and instructive.

A careful calculation shows that the sum of $110,288 have been expended in building in Lebanon the past year, and that more than one hundred houses have been built, including three store buildings, a fine school house, a church, a machine shop, a planer, and other enterprises just begun. Certainly, we feel proud of these figures, but we have many reasons for believing that this record will be beaten the coming year. The Lebanon canal will be cut this year and will add a number of enterprises to our town. In the common parlance of the day we would advise people to keep their eye on Lebanon.

A Sweet Home correspondent sends us the following item, under date of Dec. 25: A pleasant surprise was given Dr. A. G. Prill and wife this afternoon, when the following gentlemen: Messrs. A. J. Nichols, 1st E b cornet; W. T. Nichols, 1st B b cornet; Henry Slavens, alto, and H. T. Rolf, baritone, members of the Sweet Home band, serenaded him, giving the following selections: Andate and waltz, "Snow Flakes are Falling;" "Old Folks at Home;" "Home, Sweet Home," all of which were most beautifully rendered and greatly appreciated. The Doctor, with his usual generosity, invited them to partake of some of the sweets of life, and after a very social time they departed, highly pleased with their visit.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such uniiversal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. A. BEARD, Druggist.

"NEMO'S" DEFENCE.

Courting As...name of a recent organization, the object of which is plainly indicated by the name. It will doubtless prove a valuable auxiliary to bashful young men and modest ladies, and will reduce the blunders of the diffident to a mihimum. Its originators do not claim that they have reduced love-making to a science; this cannot be done, for the simple reason that life itself is not a science; but they expect to simplify the process so that anyone with a little knowledge of the world and a tolerable address will be introduced by easy steps to the higher mysteries, which, like bugbears, frighten the timid and are fast peopling Atherica with crabbed old bachelors and antiquated maidens. Certainly this is a favored generation.

The officers of the organization are few in number and work from purely philanthropic motives. They are, first, a Grand Instructor, who sits as final arbiter on all questions of etiquette; second, a Casuist, to whom are submitted all those delicate cases of conscience which afflict the young men of this generation; third; a Tyce (a classic word signifying a tier of knots), whose office it is to set the official seal of the organization upon all contracts, which seal can only be broken by the fourth officer, Attorney Allquibble, who may be described as a sort of legal volume wearing a white cravat. The organization is without a precedent in one respect—it has no secretary. It's work is secret, and for that reason unwritten. Heads of families are recognized as honorary members, and it is from this class solely that the organization looks for support and permaneney. Their counsels are sought only in extreme cases and are usually deferred to, though their decisions are not necessarily final.

The society meets as a body once a week; the number of private meetings will vary according to the skill and tactics of individuals. Informal meetings may be held on the front gate, always, however, under pledge of secresy.

The workings of the society will be published weekly. Having briefly outlined the objects of the organization, and through the courtesies of the officials obtained the exalted position of stenographer, we shall lay before our readers next week a report of the first meeting.

HOW IT WORKS.

As we are just on the eve of an election, the following from the Woodburn Independent may not be out of place:

"After the council refused to grant license to sell liquor," says that paper, "the excitement ran high during the agitation of the saloon question, and many men predicted the ruination of the town if license was not granted. Every means to coerce people into signing the petition was used. The leader of the saloon element told Mr. Tooze his business would be boycotted, although we are glad to be able to say that but few of the men in favor of license upheld the threat. One prominent merchant even went so far as to reduce his stock to about $800 worth, and offered to sell his property below cost, because he believed prohibition would ruin the town. However, license was not granted, and property-holders anxiously awaited the result. Never before had a village on French Prairie dared refuse a saloon a resting place. On the contrary, inducements had always been held out to them, the logic of which was founded on the erroneous idea that the saloon drew the customers while the store, like Lazarus of old, gathered the crumbs. It was left for Woodburn to show the utter fallacy of this and to prove that the saloon is the parasite, the merchant the victim. Prohibition may not be a success in other places, but in Woodburn it is."

Whenever a stranger comes into town with a monkey-wrench in one pocket and a screw-driver handle protruding from his waist-band, bowing obsequiously to lamp posts and dropping equatorial smiles upon the passers-by, we never conclude that he is a philanthropist or a benefactor, and it would suprise you if we were to tell how rarely we are deceived.

ACADEMY.

Claude Davis entered school Monday.

We are glad to see Mr. L. A. Wiley in school again; he has been absent from school about two weeks.

After a vacation of one week, both teachers and students commenced work again, Monday, in good earnest.

A number of students and friends met at the academy chapel Wednesday evening, and enjoyed a social time.

The question for discussion at the Elite Literary Society, next Friday evening, is, Resolved that compulsory education is productive of more good than evil results; speakers on the affirmative, W. E. Wallace, Prof. Torbet; A. B. Nickerson; negative, G. W. Ray, A. M. Williams, M. A. Miller.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of attending the Teachers Institute, held in Lebanon last week. We noticed several of our teachers and students there, who were quite conspicuous in the discussions and other exercises of the institute. Two recitations were delivered by young ladies of the academy, which showed marked ability. In fact Santiam Academy shines wherever you find it, no matter whether it is in Congress or in a country Institute.

God's Blessing to Humanity.

So Says an Oregon Pioneer Ninety Years Old.

FOREST GROVE, Or., March 19.

I have used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly ninety years old, came to Oregon in 1842 in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company, and since I began using the OREGON KIDNEY TEA I enjoy good health.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS!
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 12th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

Ernest Whitcomb is up from the measels, and his little brother is down.

Jas. Lewis, who has been at work the last week for Mr. Preston, is called to look after his brother's stock near Lebanon, while his brother goes, perhaps, to the death bed of his wife at Mill City, where she has been visiting relatives.

G. B. Whitcomb and family are very pleasantly reminded they are not forgotton by Sweet Home friends; they received many Christmas presents, giving them a very merry Christmas at their home in the woods, and words cannot express their thanks.

A happy New Year for all.

"The Jersey Lily."

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L. B., July 2.

Gentlemen: Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sun.
