If we follow first in duty's footsteps all other things will be made clear and some- how we will find a way to do the work for which we are best fitted. There is one place where woman is ever the central figure and, sister, if some yood man and true has succeeded in winning your heart in return for his own, don't let ambition keep you from the Eden you might have er.joyed had you and he lived far back in this " spher- ical" age. Yet I am of the firm belief that all women are not meant for homes, and many mothers whom I can recall are no better fitted to rear children than was the foster mother of Romulus; in fact, memory furnishes so many instances that I am convinced that although our mission was assigned us by proxy in the garden our Creator had designed us for many others. Still let us not forget the first sphere entirely. Doubtless the tendencies of the rising women are inclined towards extremes; nevertheless, beneath the foam and bub- ble, there is a tide of earnest purpose,— a desire to place women by, not raise her to, the side of man, in accordance with the sign, given by God, when she was first created from the rib of Adam—and this desire is the outcome of the sup- pressed thought and feeling of centuries. Very few people are aware of the fact that the Japanese persimmon, when drife', is one of the most delicious fruits imaginable. Those who are acquainted with this fruit know that it must be fully ripe when picked, otherwise the flavor will not be what it should. But the per- retty ripe persimmon is difficult of handling without damage, and therefore a considerable loss is apt to result. Ex- periments made, however, show that the Japanese persimmon may be dried as readily as a figChronicle.
