FACTS ABOUT THE ALLIANCE

The following from the National Alliance, the organ of the Colored Alliance, published at Dallas, Texas, will, if read carefully, brush the cobwebs from the eyes of some who hold erroneous views of that organization.

Man is free to elect his own destiny. Every man begins life with a spiritual downer, a moral seed, which he might as well leave up to salvation, and ultimately to an inheritance in a higher Kingdom.

There is nothing in the nature of things to hinder Oregon from becoming the richest State in the Union, but there is much in the present constitution of things to hinder wealth from coming to Oregon.

Hereafter Oregon will have two congressmen. The legislature has divided the state into two congressional districts. Eastern Oregon and the Columbia river counties comprise one, and the Willamette Valley, Southern Oregon and Klamath Lake counties the second district.

The lower house of the Nebraska legislature passed the Australian ballot bill. This looks very much like the Alliance "would rather be right than president."

Hirsch's bill asking for an appropriation of $80,000 for the completion of the State capital, passed the house on the 11th.

They say that Lieut. Schwatka can stand the rigors of an Arctic winter, but that he goes down before Iowa whiskey.

The poor Indian doesn't stand a "ghost" of a chance in some parts of our country.

The Legislature has voted an appropriation of $50,000 for the World's Fair.

Gen. W. T. Sherman was reported to be in a dying condition Feb. 11th.

KILLING CHINCH BUGS.

It may not be generally known that F. H. Snow, Professor of Natural Science in the Kansas State University, and also State Entomologist, has almost if not quite exterminated the pestiferous chinch bug in two States already, and the same will be true of that insect in Kansas in a few years.
