A number of our citizens attended the L. O. O. F. lodge Thursday evening last, and enjoyed an "ogster" supper. Remembering about a "Coke's" permission to our broad assertion. Using your own language, I will say "wakes six," for you are off your center, and you speak of testing me. I never heard of this in this country you would never have caused the heart-burnings and dissension which your rank calumny has produced. Doubtless you never heard of your thoughts backward through the dim past, and for fear your "think-tank" does not work well enough, let me give it a start. Did you ever hear the legend of five young purps who got too much soda water? The floating mystery or "ghost" of "Coke's" in a sack or the horror that thrilled the multitude when the young lady from Portland dipped up a rat in the "burial-house" of your "soda-watering fountain?" "Old stockings," your plea for soda sounds "cultus" to me, "never sweats," and the thousands you speak of testing me. I never heard of this in this country you would never have caused the heart-burnings and dissension which your rank calumny has produced. Doubtless you never heard of your thoughts backward through the dim past, and for fear your "think-tank" does not work well enough, let me give it a start. Did you ever hear the legend of five young purps who got too much soda water? The floating mystery or "ghost" of "Coke's" in a sack or the horror that thrilled the multitude when the young lady from Portland dipped up a rat in the "burial-house" of your "soda-watering fountain?" "Old stockings," your plea for soda sounds "cultus" to me, "never sweats," and the thousands you speak of testing me.
