

EYES AND EARS!

T. C. Peabier's groceries. I. O. O. F. celebration to-day. McMahon's circus to-morrow.

Go to S. P. Bach for boots and shoes. J. A. Beard's little daughter has the measles.

One of Mr. Hogan's children has the measles. Waterloo hotel for rent. Inquire of J. G. Gross.

J. G. Gross of Waterloo sells goods at bottom prices. Sulky plow for sale. Inquire at Elk Horn Restaurant.

F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, keeps railroad time. New millinery at Mrs. Geo. Rice's. Straw hats for 50 cents.

Frank Davis, of Sodaville, has been appointed a notary public. The survey of the proposed Lebanon Canal was begun Monday.

For choice groceries at bed-rock prices, go to T. C. Peabier's. J. G. Gross of Waterloo takes produce in exchange for goods.

S. W. Keith finds employment as chief cook at City Restaurant. Dr. Courtney's new business house will be 702 1/2, full two stories.

Go to T. C. Peabier's cash store and get 17 lbs. Extra Sugar, $1 00. Settle Bros. shipped all the wheat from their warehouse last week.

Mrs. Geo. Rice, milliner. The largest stock and the lowest prices. Mr. Bingham, of Albany, will set up the machinery at the paper mill.

The Ringer Manufacturing Company have an agent in Lebanon, Oregon. W. B. Donaca shipped two car loads of potatoes to San Francisco last week.

S. P. Bach keeps a line of boots and shoes as well as Brownsville woolen goods. Mr. W. S. Dickens died at his home in the Forks of the Santiam Tuesday evening.

G. W. Wheeler is straightening lines and putting a good fence around his premises. Rev. T. P. Boyd went to Corvallis Monday to attend the Ministerial Association.

Mr. Wilson bought Mr. Wiley's interest in the Walton & Wiley planer last week. At the auction Saturday the bulk of the goods were sold at the Elk Horn Restaurant.

A span of match three-year-old mules for sale; inquire at Elk Horn Restaurant. J. C. Frey & Son manufacture their own horse collars. Call and examine their stock.

Rev. G. W. Wheeler of the Baptist church lectured in the academy Tuesday evening. We understand that Postmaster Hope intends to manufacture brick this summer.

The council has appointed Earnest Case marshal during the temporary absence of Steve Coyle. Mr. Stone, who has recently come amongst us from Arkansas, has telegraphed for his family.

Come on, let's go over to Cruson & Menzie's hardware store and see the new Oliver steel plows. There is confidential talk of a few brick streets being built in Lebanon on the coming season.

Nichols, Westfall & Co. will add 200 feet to their livery stable just as soon as the lumber can be had. Attention is called to the new ad. of Mrs. Cowan's. Go to the Bazaar for hats, bonnets and ladies' apparel.

Wanted, 250 dozen chickens, 500 dozen eggs. Will pay cash or give goods for same. T. C. PEABIER. There will be an old fashioned "apple-bob" at Rock Hill, Friday, May 1, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Come, everybody.

John Banta has some lumber on the lot which he recently bought of J. R. Kirkpatrick and will build on the property. C. A. Elson of Albany has made arrangements to become a citizen of Lebanon. He will remove his family next week.

W. J. Hay of Harrisburg moved to Lebanon this week. He occupies the A. R. Cyrus house near the Presbyterian church. Nichols, Westfall & Co. are adding to the "rolling stock" of the livery stable; the latest purchase was a very fine buggy.

We know a good joke on a certain young man but we would suffer all the tortures of the inquisition before we would disclose it. Joe. Skelly, section foreman on the Lebanon branch, has been laid up last week, the wood is sent to Oxburg to be used on the O. Ry.

After going to Cruson & Menzie's hardware store and getting prices, we find that they are selling goods as low as any place in the valley. Mrs. Dr. Ballard is dangerously ill at Colville, Washington. Mrs. C. C. Hackleman of this place has been attending her for some time.

Rev. C. A. McDonald has purchased some land on the West Side Ry. in the vicinity of Dundee and has concluded to set a large prune orchard. The entertainment to be given by the Academy students has been postponed until the 15th of May. Due notice of which will be given hereafter.

A valuable slate quarry was recently discovered in Josephine county. There is but one other slate quarry on the coast and it is in California. Prof. David Torbet of the Santiam Academy went to Albany Monday, he having been engaged to teach in the Colgate Institute for a season.

Marshal Coyle has concluded to breathe the air of the rural districts if he can get some office in his place as conservator of the peace. Mr. Eggleston of Brownsville came down on Monday and is working with Al Cruson. These gentlemen will ply the painters trade together this season.

G. W. Rice has been harvesting Oregon grapes for J. A. Lamberson. As a result of his toil thousands of this commodity have been received of late. If the weather bureau should fail to record the muzzling thunder which was heard in this section Thursday of last week, it will be an unardonable oversight.

It looks like Cruson & Menzie's intended to sell every farmer a plow, judging from their stock of Oliver, Bisell, John Deer, J. I. Case and Norwegian plows. The trade which comes to Lebanon from that section of country which lies northwest of town necessitates the opening of a street along and parallel with the railroad.

The introductory ball game was played Saturday between the Lebanon team and a club selected by the citizens. The former nine won the game as was expected.

Owing to the great amount of snow there is in the mountains, it is not expected that travel across the Cascades will begin until the middle or last of May.—Ochobo Review.

J. M. Wiley commenced to repair his fence, but for some unaccountable reason he has suspended work. When this job is completed we shall make mention of it, not before.

Rev. C. A. McDonald is agent for the famous Epworth pianos and organs, which for tone, durability and finish, are unequalled. Inquiries at Express office for prices and terms.

It would certainly be a great convenience to farmers living west of town if a railroad crossing were made south of the turn table and Grant street continued westward to the boundary line.

Meservey, the photographer, has gone on the road with his tent. When Dr. Courtney's new building is completed Mr. Meservey will occupy the upper story and locate permanently.

R. McCauley is giving to his premises an air of coziness by whitewashing every appearance belonging thereto. Not so much as an apple tree escapes the brush of this amateur painter.

"I know that boy of mine will slip off to the circus Saturday, and I shall have to go and sit through the performance and see that no harm befalls him. I just never did see so disconcerted a boy in my life."

In response to a letter from the Incorporators of the Lebanon Canal Co. three surveyors came on Saturday's train. On Monday following they began preliminary survey of the proposed route of the canal.

Don't lay this paper down until you shall have read the three column ad, on local page, by J. R. Kirkpatrick. Park Addition, as everyone knows, is destined to be the most attractive spot in Lebanon for residence property.

The Alliance is taking deep root in Santiam soil. Several Alliances have already been organized in the "Forks" and before the year closes Jeffersonian Democracy in the "Forks" of the Santiam will have been swallowed up by the people's party.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle, as I am in need of money. All accounts of 1890 not paid in next 30 days will be placed in the hands of a collector. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

Strayed from the farm of W. K. Temple, of Plainview, on the 13th or 14th of April, one 2 year old sorrel filly with small star in forehead, no other marks or brands visible. Any one finding said animal will be liberally rewarded by returning the same to the owner.

A private letter from P. Schuler, of Minnesota, bearing date of April 11th, says that country was visited with a heavy snow storm on that day. No seeding had been done to date, says Mr. Schuler. He does not say that he is sighing for the flesh pots of Egypt, but he does say that he is sighing for the people's party.

The manager of the Blue River Mining Co. took a practical engineer up to the mines last week, for the purpose of locating their $30,000 stamp mill, and while en route to the mine, Eugene Eugene will build. The manager is enthusiastic about the mines, and says the results attained thus far exceed the highest expectations.—Oregonian.

Ed Kellenberger's stag bound is in a precarious condition. He has strong symptoms of spinal meningitis, superinduced by the wheels of Gordon's express. The dog was falling in the street one bright sunny day lately, when the noise of the wagon failed to reach his sluggish ears; the rest of the story is best told in the Switzer's own language.

Speculators are circulating through the country trying to engage this year's wheat crop. One farmer told us he had been offered $1.00 in advance. We were told of another instance where a farmer had been offered 70 cents for his crop. Let us hope that a better era is dawning upon the farming classes.

We are told by a person who lives near the cemetery that it is no uncommon thing for persons to invade the sacred precincts of the dead and rob the graves of choice flowers. A sense of respect for the departed, ought, one would think, prevent these untimely incursions, but not so. Let not these visits be repeated or we shall be compelled to deal in personalities.

It is reported that certain persons in the peninsula are guilty of disturbing religious worship. These repeated interruptions have been allowed to pass unrebuked for some time, but let us whisper gently into the ears of these miscreants that the line of toleration has been passed and that they will be visited with speedy tribulation if they do not desist.

We wish to announce to the public that we have a large stock of wagons, buggies, hacks and carts coming direct from the factory in the East. We have selected these goods to suit the climate, roads and people of this vicinity, and we cordially invite all those wishing to be anything in this line of goods to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. CRUSON & MENZIES.

Two hundred newly-married couples wanted at E. Goan's furniture store, to say bed room sets, that they may sail through life "on flowery beds of ease." I am not seeking an invitation to your wedding but I do want to congratulate you and start you on the highway to prosperity by furnishing your rooms with the best, the handsomest and cheapest furniture this side of anywhere. The following statement from Mr. W. B. Denny, a well known dairyman of New Lexington Ohio, will be of interest to persons troubled with Rheumatism. He says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for nearly two years, four bottles in all, and there is nothing I have ever used that gave me as much relief for rheumatism. We always keep a bottle in the house." For sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

Those who imagine that the Alliance is lacking in literature and in the matter of organization are unacquainted with the facts. The Alliance has 116 papers in Kansas alone. Napoleon feared three newspapers more than the combined armies of Europe; J. Ingalls undertook to walk over 116 newspapers in Kansas but found that he was misapprehending his strength. We admire the man's courage but deplore his judgment.

There is an old adage that "what everybody says must be true." Henry Cook, the leading merchant in New Knoxville, Ohio, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here, everybody likes it. They say it gives immediate relief." That is what makes it so popular. It is prompt in relieving a cough or cold and can always be depended upon. There is nothing that will loosen a cold or relieve a severe cold so quickly. For sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

OFF FOR THE WAR. Sweethearts. We cannot all be heroes; some of us must stay at home and look after the widows and orphans, wives and children.

We cannot all be heroes; some of us must stay at home and sell Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, &c. But there is considerable glory for the man who succeeds in being the best merchant of Lebanon. We are trying to secure the glory with a capital G, and are succeeding pretty well. It is getting to be quite generally recognized that we are setting the pace for our competitors.

We Like It, To be understood, and will try very hard to keep up our reputation. C. C. HACKLEMAN, Dealer in Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes for CASH.

Park Addition TO THE TOWN OF LEBANON. This Beautiful Addition to the Town of Lebanon Is Now for the First Time Placed Upon the Market, at PRICES TO SUIT THE TIME Terms to Suit the People.

We would much prefer that all who wish to purchase lots in this Addition, would come and personally inspect the grounds and learn for themselves the many and varied advantages this Addition present to the public. By a personal inspection you will discover the following facts: Lebanon has a population of 1500. It has nearly doubled its population in the last year.

PARK ADDITION. It lies along the route of the Lebanon and Santiam Canal. It is platted, with wide and level avenues; planted with most beautiful young shade trees; each lot fully large enough for a comfortable residence, and each having a natural drainage. We sell no lots that are unsuitable for building purposes, and give a clear title to each lot. This Addition joins the beautiful Isabella Park—from which it derives its name—and which will afford to residents in the Addition beautiful recreation grounds.
