S. L. Jessup, agent of the Parmelee Publishing Co., having finished his business with the association at this place, left for Brownsville Tuesday to open a circulating library in that town.

If everyone would sweep the streets in front of his own building it would lighten the labors of the marshal, but no one seems inclined to detract one iota from the honors of the marshaling.

The Lebanon police force was increased to three men Saturday night and also Sunday night. Through the vigilance of these men, who patrolled the streets all night long, no harm befell the town.

Let everybody go to the picnic on Peterson's butte, Saturday, and have a good time. Also bring your dinner-bucket crowded full of good things, for the dinner will be one feature of the occasion.

We received the first copy of the "Journal," published by Mr. Cheney in Albany. The Journal promises to be widely read. We wish it a more prosperous life than usually falls to the lot of newspapers.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle, as I am in need of money. All accounts of 1890 not paid in next 30 days will be placed in the hands of a collector. M. A. MILLER, Druggist.

A farewell party, in honor of Miss Minnie Niles, was given at the residence of E. Goan on Thursday evening of last week. A large circle of friends were present to participate in the evening's entertainment and to bid the young lady good by. Miss Niles will make her future home in Portland.

Our German citizens had a dispute this week concerning the German name for cabbage, differing very widely as to the name of this vegetable during the process of growth, but when it came to the manufactured product known as sauer kraut they were united in declaring it "just so good as any dings vat ever vas."

My increasing trade has prompted me to buy largely. I have a large bill of all kinds of shoes on the way from the East, also from San Francisco, that will soon be here, and then we can fit anyone in size, quality or price. Remember I pay cash and sell for the same; therefore we can sell as cheap in Lebanon as anywhere in Oregon. HIRAM BAKER.

We wish to announce to the public that we have a large stock of wagons, buggies, hacks and carts, direct from the factory in the West. We have selected these goods to suit the climate, roads and people of this vicinity, and from this factory we make it our policy to buy anything in this line of goods to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. CRUSON & MENZIES.

A gentleman living not far from town (and by the way he has traveled a good deal) saw his first elephant at McMahon's circus last Saturday. Of all the men who saw that animal on that occasion, this gentleman only had the honesty and hardihood to acknowledge it. Candor is one of the traits of human nature, and yet how few there are who possess it.

Benjamin Harrison could not have chosen a more inopportune time to visit himself to the people of Lebanon than the date fixed upon. Lebanon people at this time are absorbed in the great question of building the Lebanon canal. Our citizens act on the motto of "business before pleasure."

Two hundred newly-married couples wanted at E. Goan's furniture store, to buy bed room sets, that they may sell through life "on flowery beds of ease." I am not seeking an invitation to your wedding, I want to congratulate you and start you on the highway to prosperity by furnishing your rooms with the best, the handsomest and cheapest furniture this side of any where.

The following statement from Mr. W. B. Denny, a well known dairyman of New Lexington Ohio, will be of interest to persons troubled with Rheumatism. He says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for nearly two years, four bottles in all, and there is nothing I have ever used that gave me so much relief for rheumatism. We always keep a bottle in the house." For sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

I know a garden quite near by. But mind, you neighbors, keep away. His lowly fingers was one day such that he could not put it down; so over he went with a tip roof. Not even leaving ground.

Oh, what a greedy monster. For a human being. To want garden, ground, pots, and pans. And all, quite all, the say. HAY THORNTON.

An elderly gentleman, living a few miles out of town, patronized the shell game last Saturday to the amount of about $50. After the circus he repaired to the bank to deposit, for safe keeping, notes to the amount of $55. On entering the bank he reached for a wallet containing the notes, but found it was missing. Search was made, and notwithstanding a reward of $25 was offered for the recovery of the wallet, it has not been found to date.

We call the attention of our readers, in this issue, to the legal card of Mr. Geo. W. Wright, one of the most prominent lawyers in Lebanon. Mr. Wright is a graduate of the Law Department of the University of the State of Missouri, and has practiced law in Oregon for the last 8 years. He desires us to say that all business entrusted to him is a task to be well and safely done, and only the most reasonable charges made for the same.

There is an old adage that "what everybody says must be true." Henry Cook, the leading merchant of New Knoxville, Ohio, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here, and everybody likes it. They say it gives immediate relief." That is what makes it so popular. It is prompt in relieving a cough or cold, and is always depended upon. There is nothing that will loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly. For sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

The membership of the M. E. church invaded the parsonage on Saturday evening last, taking their pastor, Rev. T. P. Boyd, unawares. In token of the high esteem in which the pastor is held, a well-filled purse was left at the parsonage. Rev. Boyd, although a young man, has shown himself "a workman, approved of God," and such tokens of appreciation are taken by him at their full value. The object of this notice being too full for utterance, we promised to thank the kind people for kindness and wife.

The shell attachment to McMahon's circus drew a large crowd of men, all bent on fleeing the poor unsophisticated young man of that innocent game. Young men, middle-aged men, traveled men and men old enough to have known better were as anxious to get something for nothing as the man who introduced the game. The fool killer would reap a rich harvest here just now. Deep sympathy is felt for the poor unfortunate man who was compelled to face such odds. The men who won at this game are awaiting orders to fall into line of march over the Santiam bridge and kick themselves individually and severally.

A travelling agent for a patent medicine firm stopped at the St. Charles lately until he had emptied his bottles of extracts, bitters, and likewise his pocketbook, and took his departure, leaving in pledge of his sobriety a stuffed grip bag. When it was known that the last will and testament of the generous traveler was to be read publicly, the friends of the host gathered in great numbers to witness the unrolling of the precious document. The will was opened for the purpose of taking an inventory of stock, which consisted of a few wooden cuts and a gross of pills. We are anxious to know what disposition the landlord will make of the property, as its value can be ascertained only by actual experiment.

M. A. Miller was in Albany Wednesday of this week. James Settle and brother went to Coburg on business Monday.

A. Roberts is assisting C. H. Ralston in the Bank of Lebanon.

J. B. Kirkpatrick was looking after his interests in Benton county this week. H. Y. Kirkpatrick, after several days' illness, regained his feet on last Sunday.

W. R. Bishop, of Portland, passed through Lebanon, Friday en route to Brownsville.

Frank Marks and L. A. Wiley are working on E. Montague's place near Albany.

Mrs. Marshall, of Albany, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Foley, the first of this week.

Prof. Tolbet, who is now teaching in the Albany College of Education, spent Sunday with his family in Lebanon.

Mrs. J. Deaver and her sister, Miss Shuckelford, of Crawfordsville, were visiting the family of J. B. Cox last week.

Rev. H. E. Thompson and Miss Ballou Kirkpatrick represented the P. S. Sunday school at the county convention this week.

Among the visitors on last Friday was Mr. Dudley of Halsey. He is thinking of changing his residence, and considers Lebanon a very desirable place to live.

Mr. Guild, formerly editor of the Silverton Appeal, was in town last week. Mr. M. J. Deaver, formerly of the Salem Statesman, one of our most valued exchanges.

Measuray, the photographer, who for the week or so has been absent from town, returned Thursday morning, only to stop a few minutes, when he again went on the road with his camera.

A Man Missing.

On Tuesday April 14, Wm. Barbour, a furniture dealer who has been doing business in Lebanon for about nine months, left for Portland on business, intending to return on Friday. Failing to return on that day, his partner, Mr. J. B. Stater, called on his home, but he had not returned. Mr. Stater, who has been detained on business and felt no alarm until Monday following, when he telegraphed to the firm in Portland, with whom Mr. Barbour had dealings, and from them he learned that he had made some arrangements in Portland, and had told them that he would leave for home on that day, which was Friday. The news of Barbour's protracted absence was wired his brother in Canby, who receiving the news went immediately to Portland and together with the police began the search for the missing man which to this time has proven unfruitful. The wife of the missing one is almost driven to distraction. It is feared that her apprehensions for the safety of her husband are not without foundation.

Death of a Pioneer Lady.

Died, in Colville, Washington, April 27, Mrs. D. W. Ballard. Deceased was the widow of Dr. Ballard, of Lebanon, Or., who died in 1852. Mrs. Ballard came to Oregon in the year 1832. In 1839 her husband was appointed Governor of Idaho, which office he held for four years. After retiring from the governorship he resumed the practice of his profession in Lebanon until the close of his life in 1883. At the time of her death, Mrs. Ballard was making her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Stater of Colville. The remains will be brought to Lebanon and interred in the old cemetery. Her funeral services will be held in the M. E. church on Friday at 3 p. m. Rev. T. P. Boyd officiating.

Of the five children living, two, Mrs. C. C. Hackleman and Mrs. E. H. Wright, live in Lebanon; Dr. F. R. Ballard in Prescott, and Mrs. J. B. Stater and Miss Ora Ballard in Colville, Washington.

The many friends of the deceased will be grieved to hear of her death. The work she always poorer when such an one leaves it.

RESOLUTIONS.

HALL OF LEBANON LODGE, No. 47, I. O. F., April 25, 1891.

To the officers and members of Lebanon Lodge, No. 47.—We, your committee of arrangements for celebration of 72d anniversary of Odd Fellowship, would recommend that the following resolution be spread on the minutes of this lodge and printed in the Lebanon Express:

Whereas, We appreciate the aid and assistance of the Misses Ida, Elkins, Maud, Eaton and Benna Kirkpatrick, also Mrs. Mattie Holt, Mrs. F. M. Miller, and those who assisted in the vocal exercises on April 24, 1891; therefore be it

Resolved, That the thanks of this lodge are hereby tendered to the above-named parties, and they will be held in kind remembrance by the members of this lodge.

A. A. REES, C. H. KALSHOF, S. A. NICHOLSON, Com. of Arrangements.

That Switzer.

Thousands of visitors crowded the Europa meat market building this week, and our reporter, being entitled to all the privileges of an American citizen, thought it no harm to share the sights with his fellow-citizens. Occupying the north-west quarter of the building was a full-grown Swiss cheese, in diameter about the size of a cart-wheel, but many times stronger. The casket containing this massive cheese breathed the aroma of foreign lands, which made it a comparatively easy task to trace its nationality. Having traced the ownership of this cheese to a near neighbor, it was found that he had ordered the smallest cheese of the kind and receiving a 120-pound cheese, he has a curiosity to know how large this product grows in his native land.

The First Step.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning you are taking the first step to Nervous Prostration. You need a Nerve Tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Alternative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c, at Roberts & Miller's drug store.

A Change in Business.

On and after May let we will change our business to a strictly cash system, thereby enabling us to buy for cash and get our discounts, and we will give our customers the benefit. We will take produce in exchange for goods, also will pay cash for all kinds of produce. All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle, leaving in pledge of their sobriety a stuffed grip bag. Respectfully yours, T. C. PEELER.

Grey vs. Blue.

Weather permitting, next Saturday will be played the second game of the series between the Lebanon Baseball Club and a nine picked from the following well-known players: Atkins brothers, Barrett, H. Smith, Ralston, Marks, Roberts, Scott, Feibler, and others. We are anxious to know who will attend. Ladies especially invited. Good order will be strictly maintained. Colors—Lebanon, grey and red; picked nine, blue and white. Game called at 2 o'clock.

OFF FOR THE WAR.

We cannot all go and fight Italians; some must stay at home and look after the widows and orphans, wives and Sweethearts.

We cannot all be heroes; some of us must stay at home and sell Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, &c. But there is considerable glory for the man who succeeds in being the best merchant of Lebanon. We are trying to secure the glory with a capital G, and are succeeding pretty well. It is getting to be quite generally recognized that we are setting the pace for our competitors. When people want anything in our line they know we are apt to have the lowest price on it.

We Like It,

To be understood, and will try very hard to keep up our reputation.

Park Addition

TO THE TOWN OF LEBANON.

This Beautiful Addition to the Town of Lebanon

Is Now for the First Time Placed Upon the Market, at

PRICES TO SUIT THE TIMES

—AND—

Terms to Suit the People.

We would much prefer that all who wish to purchase lots in this Addition, would come and personally inspect the grounds and learn for themselves the many and varied advantages this Addition presents to the public.

By a personal inspection you will discover the following facts:

Lebanon has a population of 1500. It has nearly doubled its population in the last year. One hundred and twenty-five new substantial houses were built here during the year. A $150,000 paper mill is now completed and work will begin therein this July 1st. The Lebanon and Santiam Canal Company has been incorporated and work will begin thereon as soon as the necessary preliminaries can be arranged.

This canal will give steady work to hundreds, and will furnish mill-sites for many manufactories, and the town—from this and other advantages—will be a city of 5000 inhabitants.

Now for the

PARK ADDITION.

It lies along the route of the Lebanon and Santiam Canal.

It is planted, with wide and level avenues; planted with most beautiful young shade trees; each lot fully large enough for a comfortable residence, and each having a natural drainage.

We sell no lots that are unsuitable for building purposes, and give a clear title each lot.

This Addition joins the beautiful Isabella Park—from which it derives its name—which will afford to residents in the Addition beautiful recreation grounds. All lots are 66 feet front and 132 to 185 feet deep.

Let This Fact Be Remembered:

The price of all these lots will be advanced 25 per cent. after May 15.

This property will be shown to parties desiring to purchase by
