PROST "A DISGUSTED WIPE."

Entron Lenaxos Exemps:
I have been thinking a great deal lately on the Farmers' Alliance ques-tion, and have come to the conclusion that it may be a good thing for those who can see it in that light, but I for one cannot see where there is any ben-who can see it in that light, but I for one cannot see where there is any benefit in it, especially for our full sex; yet of course this is a free world and all have a right to inclong to this who which. Of course man is willing, even anxious for women to be members of this Altiance—and why? Because, they say, we need you; we expect some day to meet and have a big dinner and a good time in general, and without the help of woman, what would our dinner amount to? That is all very true. What would it amount fo?

The father and mother of woman were as white as the father and mother of man; yet we are classed beneath him. If I knew my becoming a member of this Alliance would save all of mankind, I would saw up, never until I can come in on an equal with man. They are very willing for us to assist them in some little petty organization, but when the day of business comes they will say, you're a woman, you stay at home and attend to household duties; we don't want any dinner to-day; we've got no use for woman come along, they will walk up to him, shake hands with him, and very confidentially remark, come on down to the polls; we need you in our business. I wish every woman saw this in the same light that I do; then we could ahout, hurrah for the women?

Gentlemen: Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in casees of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sun.
