

H. Y. KIRKPATRICK, Editor - and - Proprietor.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. One Year, $2.00 (paid in advance, $1.50 per year.)

SALUTATORY.

As announced last week, I have bought the LEBANON EXPRESS from Messrs. Adams & Alexander, and will hereafter undertake the management of the paper, editorially and otherwise.

THREE CHEERS

And a Tiger for Lebanon!

THE CANAL A SUCCESS

Prosperity and a Boom for Lebanon—Work to Commence in Thirty Days.

With vim and determination the citizens have taken hold of this enterprise, and the committee in charge of the affair have pushed the matter for the past three days, and now victory has crowned their efforts—THE CANAL IS A SUCCESS.

A meeting of the incorporators and citizens generally was held Wednesday evening, at which time the following directors were elected: L. Foley, C. H. Ralston, F. O'Neil, J. L. Cowan, W. B. Donnan, J. J. Swan and M. A. Miller.

The directors held a meeting and elected the following officers from among their members: President, L. Foley; Secretary, M. A. Miller; Treasurer, C. H. Ralston.

The capital stock of the company is $13,000, divided into shares of $25 each. Up to time of writing $5,000 have been subscribed.

We are assured by one of the directors that work will begin within thirty days. Great credit is due a number of our citizens for their indefatigable labor in securing to Lebanon this great enterprise.

Next week we will publish a list of the stockholders.

PRINEVILLE NEWS.

The Fourth of July beggling committee will be out this afternoon.

Horse men who have been riding on the range of late report a fair increase in their bands.

Indications are favorable that wool will be worth 20 cents or more at the Dallas this season.

Bough Bros. started on Tuesday for California with 10,000 head of mutton sheep which they had bought in this and Wasco counties.

The southeastern part of the county was favored with a fine shower of rain on Friday last week.

W. D. Claypool arrived yesterday from Willamette valley. He brought a band of cattle across the Cascades.

The cold north winds that have prevailed during the week have been very detrimental to growing crops.

Last Friday a very heavy rain fell on Willow creek country, and up next to the timber it was very nearly a water spout.

This week a band of cattle belonging to Col. Nye was brought across the Cascade mountains by the way of the Santiam route.

Prineville merchants report quite a revival of business during the week. They have been kept busy filling orders and waiting on customers.

The wheat belt of Eastern Washington produced an enormous crop last year, but it is estimated that the yield will be 30 per cent. greater this year.

Several teams are reported to have crossed the Cascade mountains by the Santiam route. There is snow on only about 15 miles of the road.

Grant county sheep raisers sold their mutton for $25 to $27. Crook county sheep men beat them slightly, they having sold at from $25 to $33.

Every farmer who comes to town says his prospects for a good crop are flattering. Although the frost injured grain in some places, the growing crop is not materially affected.

Times are entirely too dull to be healthy. Not a fight for a month, and the police court hasn't had a case for six weeks or more. What is the town coming to? The millmen must be near at hand.

D. J. Cooper, of The Dalles, government swamp land inspector, has been here several days examining the so-called swamp lands in the surrounding country. He found considerable land held as "swamp" that is in reality desert land.

Mark Powell met with quite a serious accident on Friday of last week at his farm below town. He was rolling grain, and the team becoming frightened, dragged the roller over him, bruising him considerably, though his injuries are not dangerous. Mr. Powell has been able to be about the past few days.

Last week the Canyon City News published an article that was offensive to some parties, and the recent Grant county grand jury indicted the editor, D. I. Ashbury, for libel. Editors ought to be careful and publish nothing but the truth, but they need have no fears of being indicted for libel.

Noticed to Farmers. Wanted at once, chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, dried fruits, butter, eggs, and all kinds of farm produce, for which I will pay the highest price in cash or exchange for goods.

G. W. SIMPSON, Lebanon, Or.

SWEET HOME.

EDITOR LEBANON EXPRESS: It seems that our able corps of correspondents are somewhat delinquent in furnishing their regular quota of news items.

I suggest the fulfillment thereof of the following monthly program: FIRST WEEK: Crowfoot Setaiches; Willow Prairie, mountain news; Big Bottom, frontier and pioneer; Brownsville, literary and educational.

SECOND WEEK: Waterloo Warbles, "Little Bird;" Ripples, "C. R. H.;" Sweet Home, religious, personal, etc.; Happy Home, farming, gardening and health.

THIRD WEEK: Switzerland news, cooling, invigorating, interesting; Sodaville, beverage, hand, building, business; Hamilton creek, real estate, health, good will; Fairview, fun, fancy, fiction.

FOURTH WEEK: Sodaville, and news; Waterloo, peace, plenty, pageantry, poetry; Wirtsburg, lumber, logic and locality; Mapleton, fruit, berries, peaches, apples, raspberries and cream, and every other good thing.

The above to be interspersed and spiced by local correspondents elsewhere, with news and items of interest from correspondents at places not enumerated.

The Express deserves the best efforts of its local correspondents, and the readers desire a new and lively paper. The editors are doing their part, and we as contributors should willingly, for the public good, devote some of our spare time to collecting and arranging news, notes and items, that the people may know what is being done in every part of the county.

The local newspaper is taken principally for the news contained in the "correspondents' columns." So, correspondents, one and all, let us make our paper particularly interesting for the next six months, so much so that its editors may enjoy the warm season, so well, and be doubly paid for the labor expended. There are no doubt 500 families ready to subscribe for the paper, if we only furnish the news they desire, and just the very things they desire to know is known only by us. To prove it, listen:

Health is good. Peace reigns supreme. A. H. Yost is building a residence at Akola.

Mrs. S. L. Russell is visiting her daughter at Mapleton. John Gilliland has a force of men at work on the toll road.

Everyone has their crop and garden in and are now taking an invigorating rest. Charles Howes is at work at Lower Soda; he will probably remain during the summer.

Parker and Gilliland have the best prospect for a good crop Lever saw on the Gilliland farm.

The Howes boys, while at work last week in the timber near Mapleton, saw a large black bear.

Jesse Yost will commence work on his dwelling in Akola as soon as he can get the lumber hauled.

W. R. McKinnon is at his old stand ready to accommodate the travelling public in every way in his power.

A. Thomson, road supervisor, is at work on the county road above Sweet Home. The road will soon be in good condition.

John Atkinson will run the hotel at Lower Soda. He will put everything in good repair and will keep supplies usually kept at such places.

Jacob Meener is through seeding. He has the best prospect for a large crop of anyone east of Willer creek. He has planted about three acres of beans.

Mr. Wayne came over the toll road last week with a drove of horses from Harney. He lost two black horses, which strayed away from the band this side of Cash creek.

Mr. Humphrey has moved his family to Akola and taken possession of his property there. It will be remembered that Mr. Humphrey bought the grist mill at this place.

There is a stray horse at Elder Shea's, two miles above Sweet Home. The horse is branded L. T. on the left hip, color bay. There is also a bay horse branded O. A. at Wiley's, just above Sweet Home.

Hoping that every contributor to our "program" will acquit themselves with honor and credit on this first round. I select the following committee to arrange program for next round: Prof. Barzee, Prof. T. L. Rice and Prof. G. Calaway of La Center. Au revoir. W. R. IYER.

LEBANON PRODUCE MARKET. [changed Every Week.] Wheat—$56. Oats—40c. Flour—$1.40 per 50 per sack. Chickens—$2.50 per pair.

Eupespy. This is what you ought to have, in fact you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by us.

At this season of the year the most vigorous and hearty people often have a feeling of weakness, tired and worn out, without ambition to do anything, and many break out in pimples and boils.

What you require is a mild tonic medicine that will act gently on the liver and blood, and for this, nothing equals Dr. Gun's Improved Liver Pills. They purify the blood and by their mild tonic action, new vitality and strength to the entire system. Sold at 25 cents a box by M. A. Miller.

God's Blessing to Humanity. So says an Oregon Pioneer. "I have used the DR. GUN'S KIDNEY PILLS and obtained immediate relief. It is a blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending them to the afflicted. I can now enjoy the life of health and vigor which I once enjoyed. It is a blessing to humanity. I have used the DR. OBITUARY.

Dora Emily Torbet was born in Liverpool, Ohio, August 19, 1872; died in Lebanon, Oregon, May 23, 1901.

At the age of 19 she gave her heart to God and her hand to the church. She was carefully trained from early infancy by her pious mother to say not only the ordinary prayers of childhood, but also to help others in the thoughts of the mother. She became familiar with Bible words and Bible stories at a very early age, having read "Blue upon blue" and "precept upon precept" before she was 6 years of age.

She went to school but little, only two months in all before the age of 12, yet she was carefully instructed, both by her father and mother. Her associates were uniformly those inclined toward spiritual things, and she seldom was absent from the means of grace as observed by the Methodist Episcopal church. Her taste for literature caused her to read quite extensively, and her scrap-books are carefully selected productions of the purest thought. Although she sometimes looked at the dark side of life, and at such times reproached herself for inability to do more, yet she seemed ever longing to be more fully consecrated to God and his service. Very frequently during the last year of her life, she kissed her father and mother and said, "I am fully the Lord's," or "I am wholly consecrated to God," or "I feel Jesus very precious to my soul," or some other words of similar import. She passed away in the bloom of youth—a lovely half-blown rose, transplanted from earth to the Paradise of God. When her father kissed her forehead she smiled to meet his kiss, and she said, "You are trusting in Jesus as you go to sleep." She replied, "Yes." A few minutes before she died, she said, "Teach the children the books and the Bible."

Her plan of life seemed to be to fit herself for a missionary to India, where her uncle Hiram Torbet had been, and where her aunt Ellen H. Fox still labors to bring the heathen to God.

But He who gave her life took away. Although she was wounded and disappointed, her lowly submission to his will, for Jesus is God's gain. FATHER AND MOTHER.

WHITCOMB ECHOES. Beautiful Spring. Whitcomb, May 22. Fine crops coming on. Population on the increase. We now number 22.

Messrs. Brimbaugh and McKee are up the new trail prospecting. Mr. Boon, with his bride and little daughter, moved in their new and comfortable cabin on his claim yesterday.

Mrs. Whitcomb's father, Mr. Sheppard, from California, has taken a claim in Big Bottom, has a cabin on it and expects his family in the fall.

Our sick man, Mr. Hantelman, went to Sweet Home last Tuesday, feeling quite well, he hopes to return with his usual strength. He expects to turn to the mountains soon.

We have a fair prospect for a school at Whitcomb. There are now six children of school age in Big Bottom, and if all the settlers had their children up here there would then be fourteen.

"Green Peter" called on us just before we received the LEBANON EXPRESS of May 19th. If he had waited until we received said paper he might have received a much warmer welcome. But as he has gone out of business in Switzerland, we feel free to compliment, and will remember him wherever he may roam.

Mrs. Putter, of Lebanon, formerly of Kansas, walked to Big Bottom a short time ago, and is now the nurse for her trip, though friends in Lebanon and on the way said it would kill her. She camped one night of the way, not here in good season, and died yesterday.

The Road to Wealth

Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any other position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical system is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the circulation, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.

DR. HENLEY'S English Dandelion Tonic excites a specific influence over the liver, restores it to healthy action, resolves its chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, charges the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.
