Lebanon E[illegible]ss.

FRIDAY.....MAY 29, 1891.

EYES AND EARS!

Hurrah for the canal!

T. C. Peebler's groceries.

Picnic at Lacomb next Saturday.

Go to S. P. Bach for boots and shoes.

Lebanon is to have a new postmaster.

J. G. Gross of Waterloo sells goods at bottom prices.

F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, keeps railroad time.

J. G. Gross, of Waterloo, keeps on hand a stock of flour.

Lebanon now has an ice house, which is a great convenience.

The canal is a sure thing now. Look out for the band wagon!

For choice groceries at bed-rock prices, go to T. C. Peebler's.

Just received, a fine line of perfumery at Smith & Miller's drug store.

Go to T. C. Peebler's cash store and get 17 lbs. Extra C sugar, $1 00.

Sheriff Scott proposes to make it hot for all the delinquent tax-payers.

Several important sales of land are reported in the vicinity of Spicer.

S. P. Bach has bought the house and lots formerly owned by T. C. Peebler.

The Singer Manufacturing Company have an agent in Lebanon, Oregon.

M. A. Miller is agent for the celebrated Cleveland ready-mixed paint.

Dr. Foley is having some improvements made on the photograph gallery.

S. P. Bach keeps a line of boots and shoes as well as Brownsville woolen goods.

New millinery goods received direct from San Francisco every week at Mrs. Geo. Rice's.

We have money to loan on improved farms and ranches. S. N. Steele & Co. Albany Or.

T. C. Peebler informs us that he is going to have a six-hundred-dollar soda fountain.

Chas. D. Montague has rented M. Follis' house and will move into it the first of the week.

Mr. Fry has sold his saw mill on Hamilton creek to Messrs. Walton, Wiley and McPherson.

Wanted, 250 dozen chickens, 500 dozen eggs. Will pay cash or give goods for same. T. C. PEEBLER.

H. E. Parrish has rented the north room of Hansard's new building and will open a restaurant in a few days.

Remember that the annual meeting of the Linn county pioneers will be held at Brownsville on June 3, 4 and 5.

"Honest Skeptics, and How to Treat Them," at the C. P. church Sunday at 11 A. M. A kindly invitation extended to all.

The Y. Y. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church gave a social last Friday evening at the residence of C. B. Montague. All who attended report a nice time.

Mr. Springer had the misfortune to get one of his fingers cut off by one of the saws at Nickerson's planer this week.

Mr. John Burkhart paid the EXPRESS a call on Friday last and left us some of the dollars of our daddies. Thanks.

We will inform the people of Lebanon and vicinity that there is no extra charge on trimmed hats at Mrs. S. H. Cowan's.

The memorial services at the M. E. church Sunday were very largely attended. An excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. Boyd.

Ladies, don't throw your old jewelry away; you can have it made as nice as new by the City Jeweler at City drug store. No fancy prices.

After going to Cruson & Menzies' hardware store and getting prices, we find that they are selling goods as low as any place in the valley.

Mr. M. Follis has moved into S. P. Bach's house, formerly owned by T. C. Peebler. We understand that Mrs. Follis will open a boarding house.

There will be services at the M. E. church, South, Sunday night. All cordially invited to attend.

G. S. HANLEITER, Pastor.

The strawberry social which was given by the Epworth League last Friday evening was a very enjoyable affair and proved a success in every way.

Judging from my increasing trade, Baker is wanted in Lebanon to sell boots and shoes, dry goods, groceries, tinware, crockery, and everything in a general store.

Don't forget the delicious dinner at the Red Front store, Memorial Day. All the good things obtainable, and the prettiest girls in town to wait on you—all for 25 cents.

Rev. C. A. McDonald is agent for the famous Epworth pianos and organs, which for tone, durability and finish, are unexcelled. Inquire at EXPRESS office for prices and terms.

Last Sunday Jim Brown's little girl fell, breaking both bones in the right arm. Dr. Courtney was called and set the arm, and at last accounts the little girl was getting along nicely.

G. W. Smith, formerly of this place, has made an assignment to J. W. Cusick for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Smith has many friends here who will be sorry to hear of his misfortune.

One of the most exciting baseball games of the season is to be played at Albany Saturday. It is the contest between the Albanys and Linns, and will be played for the championship of the county.

Baker's shoes have arrived from the East and San Francisco, and there are no better in Lebanon in quantity, quality or prices; and cash is the lever that downs prices. Remember the place, Baker's One-Price Cash Store.

There will be a grand picnic at Lacomb next Saturday. Several of our orators have agreed to speak for the[illegible] and the Lebanon Cornet Band will furnish mu[illegible] committees are doing all in t[illegible] success of it, and [illegible]ed. All invited.

So far Lebanon has not been bothered with tramps, burglars and safe-robbers; but as there seems to be more of such work going on in the valley than was ever known before, it would be well for all to keep a lookout for such work.

Col. Bain will lecture in Albany next Saturday and Sunday evenings on temperance. In a private letter to Mrs. J. M. Marks, Mrs. Riggs, of Portland, advises the W. C. T. U. of Lebanon, and all others interested, to attend these lectures.

Tuesday morning F. M. Miller received official notice of his appointment as postmaster at this place. The Judge made out his bonds and returned them by the evening train, and expects to receive his commission about the 20th of next month.

On last Saturday two robbers blew the door off the safe of Whitney, Elder & Co., of Stayton. They secured $150 to $200 in cash and several thousand dollars worth of valuable papers. There was some $400 in cash in the safe that they did not get.

Prizes will be given to the ones bringing the largest and finest baskets of victuals to the picnic at Lacomb June 6. First prize, $2; second prize, $1; third prize, 50c; all cash. All baskets left in care of the committee will be labeled and taken good care of.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Hay & Peterson, which makes its first appearance in to-day's issue of the EXPRESS. These gentlemen are prepared to do a general livery business and have a nice lot of vehicles and horses. Try them.

HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES

—FROM—

MATTHEWS & WASHBURN,

Albany, Ore.

Sweet Home Alliance will meet next Saturday at Sweet Home at one o'clock P. M. The officers are: W. B. Thompson, president; John Kirk, vice president; Joseph P. Orchard, Secretary; Frank Burnett, Treasurer; James Wood, Doorkeeper; John Burnett, Chaplain.

My increasing trade has prompted me to buy largely. I have a large bill of all kinds of shoes on the way from the East, also from San Francisco, that will soon be here, and then we can fit anyone in size, quality or price. Remember I pay cash and sell for the same; therefore we can sell as cheap in Lebanon as anywhere in Oregon.

HIRAM BAKER.

We wish to announce to the public that we have a large stock of wagons, buggies, hacks and carts, direct from the factory in the East. We have selected these goods to suit the climate, roads and people of this vicinity, and we cordially invite all those wishing to buy anything in this line of goods to call on us before purchasing elsewhere. CRUSON & MENZIES.

Two hundred newly-married couples wanted at E. Goan's furniture store, to buy bed room sets, that they may sail through life "on flowery beds of ease." I am not seeking an invitation to your wedding but I do want to congratulate you and start you on the highway to prosperity by furnishing your rooms with the best, the handsomest and cheapest furniture this side of anywhere.

The new jeweler at the City drug store is a practical watchmaker in the true sense of the word. Having had twenty-four years continuous experience at the bench, he is able to do any work on watches, clocks and jewelry that can be done in any city. His prices are based upon Eastern prices, and you can always get your work when promised.

He wants it known.—Mr. J. H. Straub, a well known German citizen of Fort Madison, Iowa, was terribly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism when Mr. J. F. Salmon, a prominent druggist there, advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One bottle of it cured him. His case was a very severe one. He suffered a great deal and now wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured him. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

M. C. Bingham was arrested at Lebanon yesterday, where he is at work on the paper mills, on a charge of polygamy. The particulars have been published heretofore. Mr. Bingham was brought to this city and arraigned in Judge Humphery's court. He waived examination and was held in $500 bonds, which he gave.—Herald.

J. E. Adcox, the jeweler, who was formerly doing business in Salem, has decided to locate in Lebanon. Mr. Adcox went to Fair Haven and was there robbed of almost his entire stock of jewelry and watches. This was a hard blow on him, but with his energy and efficient work as a repairer and dealer he will soon recover from the loss.—Salem Journal.

Mr. Adcox has secured a window in the City drug store. We bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

A party of government surveyors have gone up to Gatesville, from which place they were expected to start Monday to begin the survey of township 10, range 4 east. This township will be sectionized, and the boundaries of four or five others will be surveyed. The settlers have also petitioned to have two or three other townships sectionized, and are likely to meet with success.

So far there have been three samples of sand brought in to compare with that left by Mr. Hiatt, and some of it compares very favorably. In a few days Ruff. will send some of the sand back to the glass factory in Indiana, and if it will do (and Ruff. thinks it will) there is no doubt but that we will have a glass factory here. Now this is worth working for, so if you have any sand that will do, bring it in, so that Ruff. can send it when he sends the other. No float sand will do; bank or hill sand is what is wanted.

On last Saturday two men were arrested in Butte, Montana, who are thought to be the murderers of Wm. Barbour. They were followed there by detectives, who are pretty sure they have the right men. They were traced by Barbour's watch, which was found in a pawn shop in Portland. When the men were arrested, Barbour's diamond ring was found in their possession. The detectives were expected to arrive in Portland Wednesday with the men. We will give full particulars next week.

PROGRAM FOR DECORATION DAY,

Saturday, May 30, 1891, at Lebanon, Oregon.

FIRST.

Invitations are cordially extended to all churches, secret orders, Sunday schools, firemen, city officers, old soldiers and marines, and the public generally.

SECOND.

It is the request that the national colors be placed on the public school building and liberty pole, and that all business houses be closed during the exercises on Decoration Day.

THIRD.

All will appear at City or G. A. R. Hall at 8:30 o'clock, and earlier if possible, to prepare flowers and form procession.

FOURTH.

Procession will form on public square with head of column to the north and in the following order:

1—Band and colors;
2—Mayor and city officers.
3—Ladies of W. R. C.
4—Sunday-school children with flowers.
5—Firemen in uniform.
6—Post, with all old soldiers.

FIFTH.

Procession will move at 9 o'clock, on east side of Main street, north to cemetery ground, halting at the gate; head of column open order; headed from there to the graves by the Post and old soldiers.

SIXTH.

At the grave the exercises will be conducted in accordance with the G. A. R. ritual, which embraces music, address, and decorating graves.

SEVENTH.

Services by the W. R. C. at the unknown graves.

EIGHTH.

Services by firemen at graves of departed members.

Comrade F. M. Miller is hereby designated officer of the day.

By order of the committee.

PERSONALITIES.

Grandma Ralston is in Portland visiting her daughters.

Mr. Lake, of Eugene, was in town a few days this week.

C. W. Cobb made a business visit to Seattle this week.

Dave McDonald is in town this week visiting friends and relatives.

David Hull and wife, of Brownsville, were visiting in Lebanon Sunday last.

Mr. Phelps, one of the printers on the Albany Democrat, was in town this week.

Mr. J. G. Gross, a prominent citizen of Waterloo, was in Lebanon Saturday and favored us with a call.

Mr. C. H. Ralston and wife returned home from Portland Saturday. Mr. Ralston went as a delegate to the grand lodge I. O. O. F.

S. A. Nickerson returned home Saturday from Portland, where he had been in attendance upon the grand lodge of I. O. O. F.

J. C. Bilyeu and wife, of Brownsville, spent Sunday in town. Jake's many friends were glad to see him on our streets after his late illness.

Mr. T. M. DeVine, of Waterloo, paid our sanctum a pleasant call on Friday last. He expects to be away the next two months hunting chitem bark.

Frank Skipworth, who has been working on the EXPRESS for the past six months, has secured a position on the Daily Guard of Eugene. Frank is a worthy young man and will succeed.

Mr. J. M. South, one of the most substantial and prominent citizens of Lacomb neighborhood, paid our sanctum a pleasant call Saturday last. He reports the people of his community happy and prosperous.

Suit for Damages

Last Saturday evening a suit was brought against Linn county by Miss Iva Templeton for $27,022. Hon. M. C. George and Cake & Cake appear for the plaintiff; Judge Blackburn, J. K. Weatherford and Geo. C. Bingham will defend the suit for Linn county. The circumstances in connection with the case will be remembered by nearly every one. By the falling through of a bridge on the Calapooia, between Brownsville and the Dowell mill, which happened last July, Miss Templeton received several broken bones and severe cuts and bruises, besides having to have one limb amputated. The case is a very important one and will excite great interest throughout the whole country on account of the severity of the accident.

Cupid Triumphant Again.

At Albany yesterday, May 28, 1891, Mr. W. D. Mesarvey led Miss Mary Snapp to the hymenial altar. Both parties are well and favorably known in Lebanon here where they reside. Mr. Mesarvey is the popular artist, who has been a citizin of our city for eight months, and has made a favorable impression. Miss Snapp has also lately come among us, from Tenn., and is a cousin of Gov. Taylor of that state. She has relatives here with whom she has been making her home. Gentlemen of the Pacific Coast usually take a snap when they can get it, but Mr. Mesarvey has certainly been a most fortunate fellow in so charming a Snapp. The EXPRESS extends cordial greetings and a long throw of the "old shoe."

NOTICE.

Adams & Alexander have this day sold the LEBANON EXPRESS to Mr. H. Y. Kirkpatrick, who will continue the business as heretofore. All money due on subscription will be paid to Mr. Kirkpatrick. All advertising accounts due to June 1st will be paid to Adams & Alexander.

ADAMS & ALEXANDER.
H. Y. KIRKPATRICK.
Lebanon, Or., May 20, 1891.

Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Torbet desire to express their sincere thanks to their many friends for the brotherly and sisterly kindness shown them in the hour of their deep affliction. We appreciate your thoughtfulness and very material aid both of which are proof, if any were needed, of your sincerity. May God own, direct, bless and save you, is our prayer.

TWINKLE, LITTLE STAR!

The Lebanon Stars shone out brightly last Friday by defeating the Mascots at Albany in the prettiest, closest and most interesting game of the season. The Stars played good winning ball up to sixth inning, when Brash's pitching weakened, and on Klepper and Elkins' muff the boys seemed to go to pieces, and the Mascots pounded out 13 runs before they gave up the bat, which put the Mascots two ahead. Both nines retired in the seventh with a goose egg, as O'Neil was in the box for the Stars and his upshoots were too much for the Mascots. In the eighth the Stars scored 3 and the Mascots 4, putting them 3 ahead. In the ninth the Stars got down to their work and pounded out 8 runs, placing them 3 ahead, with one luning for the Mascots, who came in and scored two men, with two out, Marshall on third and Houston at bat. O'Neil had his eye on Marshall. One strike. Two strikes. Three strikes, and out, as "Shorty" had the ball, and the Stars had won by 1 run.

BY INNINGS.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

NOTES.

O'Neil is a good head player.

Klepper's batting was of the first order.

Walker and Barrett played field work all O K.

Magers proved himself a first-class first-baseman.

Brash pitched good up to the sixth, when he became tired.

FULL CREAM CHEESE.

Notice is hereby given to the cheese patrons of the Lebanon factory, and to the general public, that we have secured the services of Mr. M. P. Taylor, an old and experienced cheese-maker. The skill and despatch with which he conducts the business, give evidence of a thorough knowledge of what he is doing. By June 20 we expect to have on hand a quality of cheese unexcelled by any made elsewhere in the State.

We hope to extend our trade to every town and city in Oregon, and to furnish an article which will be appreciated by continued patronage. All orders, large and small, will be promptly filled.

With many thanks to our patrons of Lebanon, Albany, Scio and Corvallis, we cordially await all orders.

J. M. MARKS.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Smith & Miller's drug store; regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

"The Jersey Lily."

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L. B., July 2.

Gentlemen: Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sun. Yours faithfully,

LILLIE LANGTRY

To Messrs. Wisdom & Co.

Lost.

While I was leaving the Edward's house some one, through mistake or otherwise carried off two walking canes for me. One was a black ebony, silver mounted, with imitation of a snake around it, with a man standing on it. The other was a red Brazil same as other without silver. I will pay a reasonable reward for the return of the same. A. L. MOUSER

A Change in Business.

On and after May 1st we will change our business to a strictly cash system, thereby enabling us to buy for cash and get our discounts, and we will give our customers the benefit. We will take produce in exchange for goods, also will pay cash or all kinds of produce.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle, as I wish to balance my books. Respectfully yours. T. C. PEEBLER.

There is an old adage that "what everybody says must be true." Henry Cook, the leading merchant of New Knoxville, Ohio, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has taken well here, everybody likes it. They say it gives immediate relief." That is what makes it so popular. It is prompt in relieving a cough or cold and can always be depended upon. There is nothing that will loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly. For sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

The Oregonian has the largest circulation of any daily, Sunday or weekly paper west of the Rocky mountains. And in order to further increase its circulation they have selected with great care, a large list of valuable books and other useful articles, and are offering them as premiums to each new subscriber, to any of its several issues for yearly subscriptions. The Oregonian should be in every household. Send for premium list.

OREGONIAN PUBLISHING CO.,
Portland, Oregon.

The following statement from Mr. W. B. Denny, a well known dairyman of New Lexington Ohio, will be of interest to persons troubled with Rheumatism. He says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for nearly two years, four bottles in all, and there is nothing I have ever used that gave me as much relief for rheumatism. We always keep a bottle in the house." For sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. 50c.
