Expressions.

Go to T. C. Peebler for groceries. Mr. Doud and family have moved to Portland.

Go to Smith & Miller's for all kinds of machine oils. Prof. Wright and wife are attending the teachers' institute at Newport.

Mrs. J. B. Thompson spent a few days this week at the farm. Mrs. Hanthorn attended the convention of the christian church at Turner this week.

Real estate men were busy this week but they seem to have made a water-haul. Miss Irvine, of McMinville, and Miss Fisher, of Corvallis, spent a day with the Misses Hall this week.

An interesting ball game was played here Tuesday between the merchants and school teachers (male), resulting in a score of 25 to 23 in favor of teachers.

Take your choice tomorrow: Eugene, Brownsville, Corvallis, Solo or Waterloo. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods by C. E. Brownell, Albany.

F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, leaves railroad time. At Salem, last Saturday, Albany's crack nine played the capital city boys a little ball; score, Salem 16, Albany 0.

Go to S. P. Bach's for boots, shoes and gents furnishing goods. Lebanon people know the EXPRESS has a good job printing office and should give it all of their work.

W. H. Booth M. D. physician and surgeon, Lebanon Oregon. The election ordered for last Monday was allowed to go by default. It was thought nothing would be accomplished by holding it.

It will pay you to buy your groceries of C. E. Brownell, Albany. Send for prices. S. P. Bach's keeps field seeds of all kinds.

Mess. Jack Adams and Ruff Hatt went to Brownsville, one day this week. After going to Cruson & Menzies' hardware store and getting prices, we find that they are selling goods as low as any place in the valley.

Mr. I. B. Borum has rented the parlor of the St. Charles hotel and will move his barber shop there the first of the week. We have money to loan on improved farms and ranches. S. N. Steele & Co. Albany Or.

S. P. Bach gives 16 oz. for a pound. We will inform the people of Lebanon and vicinity that there is no extra charge on trimmed hats at Mrs. S. H. Cowan's.

Miss Libby Carothers returned to Lebanon Tuesday from Monmouth, where she has been attending the state normal college, from which institution she graduated last month, standing at the head of a class of twenty.

L. M. Wheeler has opened his new meat market. He keeps all kinds of meats, and proposes to treat everybody well. He solicits a fair share of patronage. His motto is "Live and let live."

Mr. G. Lovelock, the merchant tailor, places his advertisement with us again this week. Mr. Lovelock has been here long enough to establish a reputation for himself, and the people know him to be a good workman.

M. A. Miller will sell his entire stock of artists' material, at cost. If you wish to know what home manufacture will do call at E. Goan's furniture store and see the new furniture made right here in Lebanon. The best furniture in the world.

Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick went over to his farm in Benton county this week, taking several hands with him. He expects to do a good deal of improving on the place. Mrs. Kirkpatrick went over yesterday to be gone several days.

Mr. C. A. Elson's advertisement is found in this issue of the EXPRESS. Mr. Elson has had years of experience in the real estate business, and will not doubt be a good man to list your property with.

Agents wanting territory for the latest, the best, the cheapest, and the quietest selling invention of this century cannot do better than to inquire of A. Jack Adams at this office. Examine the invention and decide for yourself.

We wish to announce to the public that we have a large stock of wagons, buggies, hacks and carts, direct from the factory in the East. We have selected these goods to suit the climate, roads and people of this country, and we cordially invite all those wishing to buy anything in this line of goods to call on us before purchasing elsewhere.

The fair sex is wanted to take notice of the Downs Patent Self-Adjusting Corsets, in black or drab. Price $1.25 to $1.50. Find them at Baker's, The One Price Cash Store.

At our home, last Thursday afternoon, we organized a mission band, to assist in the mission work of the Presbyterian church; though any children are gladly received who wish to work with us in helping to shed abroad the love of Jesus. We call our band "Jesus Subscribers." Trust that they may prove very unobtrusive, always shining for Jesus, for whose sake they are working. We have ten members to begin with, and hope to double that number very shortly. Will meet regularly at our home, on the last Thursday of each month, at three o'clock P. M.

HATTIE S. CAROTHERS.

Go to Bach's for choice groceries. City Assessor Peterson is making his rounds.

The EXPRESS has a well-equipped job printing office. Bring us your work and we will save you money.

Dr. W. H. Booth has moved into one of Mayor Beard's new houses. Mrs. Lile Parker left Wednesday for Calfax on a visit to her parents.

Mr. J. A. Beard left Wednesday for Portland, on a business trip. B Marks went to Newport to attend the teachers association.

S. P. Bach keeps a line of boots and shoes as well as Brownsville woolen goods. Mr. J. G. Gross was down from Waterloo, Wednesday.

A positive view of what hinders the Gospel will be taken at the 11 o'clock services, Sunday, at the C. P. church. Summer Millinery at Mrs. Geo. Rice's—New Styles, New Prices.

Messarvey is now prepared to do any and all kinds of work in the picture-taking line. Remember the Express job office. Rev. Mr. Calder, Brownsville, was in Lebanon Wednesday.

Attorneys S. M. Garland and A. F. Stowe attended circuit court at Albany this week. Miss Bursedia Lightgaged 52 years, who has resided near Lebanon has been tried at Albany and sent to the asylum for insane, at Salem.

Mayor Beard's three new houses on Main street add very much to the appearance of that portion of town. Mr. Win. Guy and family left Wednesday for Dallas on a visit to his parents.

Mr. Water's house in north end of town caught fire Wednesday, occasioning some excitement. About the only damage done was the burning of a hole in the roof.

Elsewhere will be found the professional card of A. F. Stowe Esq. This gentleman is said to be a lawyer of considerable ability, and no doubt will gain such recognition at the hands of litigants.

On Wednesday Judge Miller took charge of the Lebanon post-office, and moved the same to the red front. Mr. J. F. Hyde is deputy. Dr. Hope retires, and to our notion he has made a good officer, and the people may say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

I have 14 head of well-broke horses, 5 to 8 years old, which I will exchange for cattle. Will be in Lebanon two weeks. S. S. NELSON.

Mr. Jas. Hall died at Albany last Friday, of tubercular meningitis. He was a young man of promising future. The bids for the building of the Albany bridge, were opened Saturday.

The lowest was that of King Iron Bridge Co., of Zena Ohio, $77,350, the highest going over $100,000.

There will be services at the academy next Sunday, at 11 A. M. and 4 P. M. In circuit court, at Albany, the case of the state against E. P. Rogers, for discrimination in freight rates, went over until the October term, the jury being unable to agree, was discharged; 8 stood for conviction, 4 for acquittal.

The Oregon weather bureau report says that except in June 1888, when there was an unusual amount of rain fall, the month just passed has been one of the wettest Junes for several years; fall wheat has a wonderful growth; Yamhill county reports some seven feet high; a careful estimate of the yield in Oregon for 1891 indicates an increase of at least 1 000 000 bushels over last year.

Guy & Mayers and B. G. Hansard, in conformity with the new law, have been circulating petitions for the signature of a majority of the voters of Lebanon, so that they may be allowed to sell liquor, after the expiration of their present license. A remonstrance is also being circulated under the direction of the W. C. T. U. of Lebanon.

The mass meeting called for last Friday night accomplished but little. THE EXPRESS' efforts to get the sentiment of the people worked up so much interest among the citizens that the matter had been pretty well discussed and understood and those present had their minds made up. It was thought the council had all authority to act in the premises.

LIFE-SIZED PICTURES. Messarvey, the Lebanon photographer, proposes to give each of his patrons who take and pay for one dozen photos a chance to get a life-sized picture, worth ten dollars. You get a ticket when your work is paid for (if you take two dozen photos you get two tickets, and so on); and when ten tickets are issued a drawing will be had, and the fortunate holder of the winning number, will secure a life-sized picture of himself or another, as he elects. The drawing will be fairly conducted, and anybody can be present to witness the same.

Millinery—Largest Stock, Lowest prices at Mrs. Geo. Rice's. In almost every neighborhood there is some one or more peo sons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by it. Such persons take special pleasure in recommending the remedy to others. The praise that follows the introduction and use makes it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

18 pounds extra C sugar for $1 at T. C. Peebler's. Go to S. P. Bach for boots and shoes.

A suggestion: If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back allow us to suggest that you try the following simple remedy: Take a piece of flannel the size of the two hands, saturate it with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It will produce a pleasant warmth and relieve you of all pain. Many severe cases have been cured in this way. The Pain Balm can be obtained from M. A. Miller.

Mr Jack Pippin continues to improve 26 bread tickets for $1, at the Star restaurant.

The EXPRESS is prepared to compete with Portland or San Francisco in matter of style and finish in business and visiting cards.

One dozen hot French rolls for ten cents, at the Star restaurant. Leave orders. For bread call at the Star restaurant.

FULL CREAM CHEESE. Notice is hereby given to the cheese patrons of the Lebanon factory, and to the general public, that we have secured the services of Mr. M. P. Taylor, an old and experienced cheese-maker. The skill and despatch with which he conducts the business, give evidence of a thorough knowledge of what he is doing. By June 25, we expect to have a fine and quality of cheese unexcelled by any made elsewhere in the State.

We hope to extend our trade to every town and city in Oregon, and to furnish an article which will be appreciated by continued patronage. All orders, large and small, will be promptly filled.

With many thanks to our patrons of Lebanon, Albany, Solo and Corvallis, we cordially await all orders. J. M. MARKE.

BUY YOUR HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES FROM MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, Albany, Ore.

Oh and after June 1st. R. N. Wright will take charge of my books and is hereby duly authorized to make all collections. All accounts are now due and must be paid at once. I need my money as without it I cannot do business. Please be ready to settle as soon as your account comes to you. Very Respectfully, T. C. Peebler.

Spring Fever. At this season of the year the most vigorous and hearty people often have a feeling of nervousness, tired and worn out, without ambition to do anything, and many break out in pimples and boils. What you require is a mild tonic medicine that will act gently on the liver and blood, and for this nothing equals Dr. Guy's Improved Liver Pills. They give an activity to the liver, purify the blood and by their mild tonic action, new vitality and strength to the entire system. Sold at 25 cents a box by M. A. Miller.

Ice for Sale. The Albany Ice Co. have filled our ice house, and all parties wishing ice can get it by calling on us at 1 cent per pound. GUY & MAYER.

Pure Boiled Linsed Oil at M. A. Miller's. LADIES—Owing to the lateness of the season I will sell my trimmed hats at reduced rates. Please call and see. Mrs. S. H. COWAN.

Sealed bids for clearing right-of-way for Lebanon and Santiam canal, will be received by the directors on the 14th day of July. Company reserves the right to reject any and all bids. For further particulars call on the secretary M. A. Miller.

L. FOLEY, Pres. M. A. MILLER, Sec. Hon. R. A. Irvine of Albany has been appointed a national organizer of the Alliance.

The case wherein James Powell sued his wife for half the wedding presents presented them at their wedding was compromised before coming to trial. He gets the presents given them by his parents and she in return is to be granted a divorce. This is amicably settled one of the most peculiar cases ever brought to notice in the courts of the state.—Sunday Welcome.

Mr. J. G. Gross tells us that he has erected a nice shade over the spring at Waterloo, and the soda water is as nice as ever. Everybody is wanted to celebrate at Waterloo. Arrangements have been made for speaking and singing. Grand national salute at sunrise.

The new jeweller, at the city drug store, has just received some nice ladies and gents watches; also a few fine chains and lockets, which will be sold at eastern prices, being from 15 to 20 per cent less than Oregon prices.

Go to the new jeweller's, at the city drug store, and get the plans of the Pacific Watch Diamond club, which will be organized at once.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of the Albany Furniture Co. This house is one of the leading establishments of the valley. Try it.

For strictly first-class work on watches, clocks and jewelry go to J. E. Adcox the new jeweler at City Drug store. Work done when promised, no disappointment.

We are informed that the right-of-way for the canal is almost completed and the company will soon be ready to receive bids.

Remember that M. A. Miller's is the place to buy Lime, Cement and Plaster Paris.

Notice the canal company's advertisement for bids for clearing right-of-way. Laboring men should avail themselves of this opportunity.

Call on M. A. Miller for machine oil.

W. M. BARBOUR. Murdered in Oregon—Buried in Missouri—An Oddfellow's Funeral.

(From the Oregon, N. W. T. Standard) The funeral of the late W. M. Barbour on Sunday last, was one of the principal events in the history of Moosomin.

The body was brought from the west on the train which passed through Regina Saturday night—reaching Moosomin on Sunday morning.

The STANBARD representative who was well acquainted with Mr. Barbour, went down to the funeral, and had some conversation with the widow on the train. Mrs. Barbour is a clever and very intelligent lady.

"Mr. Barbour," she said, "went out to Lebanon, Oregon, after having spent eight years in the employ of the McNaughton or Moosomin. He sent me last fall and I reached there on the 25th of November. We were married the next day. He had established himself in business and was doing well. Mr. Dalgleish, who was his shoppmate and companion in Moosomin, came out this spring and went into partnership with my husband. Mr. Barbour being better acquainted in Portland than Mr. Dalgleish, went there to buy some stock and to transact other business. When he did not return at the expected time I became uneasy, but Mr. Dalgleish thought that he had been delayed in seeing the men with whom he had business to transact, and either he or I must go to Portland and he went. There he got the assistance of police and searched the city, but could find no trace of Mr. Barbour. I saw nothing at either place, but my hopes were raised when Mr. Dalgleish received a telegram calling him again to Portland. I thought my husband might possibly be yet alive, but was doomed to disappointment. Ten days after his arrival the body was found floating in the river among some logs. There was a bullet hole in the back of his head. I examined closely when I saw the body in the morgue. There was a bruise on his forehead and a gold watch, diamond ring and pocket book were gone when the body was found. We had him put into an air-tight metallic casket and placed in a vault. The watch and ring have since been recovered, but the pawnbroker does not identify them. They are held on another charge. It has been ascertained that they attempted to sell the jewelry to a traveling man, who is now in east, but will, it is hoped, be able to identify them on his return. The authorities seemed very apathetic in the matter, but Oddfellows and citizens generally were very kind to me and did all for me that was possible. I do not know what I should have done were it not that Mr. Dalgleish was with me. He showed me great kindness. I have appointed him administrator and he will close on the business. I can scarcely realize at times but that it is all a terrible dream. We were getting along so nicely and now all is changed. I thought at first that I would take the remains to St. Mary's, but the Oddfellows of Moosomin wrote me, and I decided that I decided to have him buried there, where my sister, Mrs. Perry, his brother, Mr. P. J. Barbour, and Mrs. Donald, his sister, all reside."

Mr. and Mrs. Perry came up to meet her on No. 1 and boarded No. 2 at Wolsley. The meeting of the sisters was very affecting. On reaching Moosomin Mr. P. J. Barbour was in waiting to receive his sister-in-law, and brotherly hands soon removed the casket from from the baggage car.

At one o'clock the Oddfellows assembled in their hall and soon after two o'clock proceeded in procession, preceded by the Moosomin Brass Band, and in appropriate regalia to the residence of Mr. Donald, where a vast assemblage had gathered. The largest funeral procession ever seen in Moosomin district was formed under the direction of Past Grand Smithers and all marched slowly to the pretty cemetery, situated beside a sheltering bluff on rising ground, about a half mile distant from the town, where the early path-strains of the late March in Saul, and the dead thud of the muffled drum filled the heavy air of that wild but cloudy Sabbath afternoon. At the grave the Rev. J. Douglas read the burial service of the Presbyterian church, after which the Oddfellows circled around the open grave and performed under the leadership of Messrs. McCurdy and McCullum the burial ceremony of that Order and deposited each a sprig of evergreen. In that large gathering of men, woman and children were many tearful eyes. The sad case of the young widow and her deep grief combined with the solemnity of the service to arouse the deepest sympathy of all. On the return march the band played several suitable selections, and on re-assembling to lodge the services of the Band, the kindness of visiting brethren and of the sister societies were suitably acknowledged.

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of Lebanon & Santiam Canal Co. held Tuesday evening, June 20, 1891, a levy of 20 per cent. assessment was made on capital stock to be paid by July 15th, same to be paid to the secretary M. A. Miller at his office in the City Drug store.

God's Blessing to Humanity. So says an Oregon Pioneer. Ninety Years Old. James Grove, Jr. March 18, 1891. I have used the OREGONIAN, and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly ninety years old, came to Oregon in 1821 in the company of the OREGONIAN KIDNEY CURE, and have used the OREGONIAN KIDNEY CURE ever since.

OFF FOR THE WAR.

We cannot all go and fight Italians; some must stay at home and look after the widows and orphans, wives and Sweethearts.

We cannot all be heroes; some of us must stay at home and sell Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, &c. But there is considerable glory for the man who succeeds in being the best merchant of Lebanon. We are trying to secure the glory with a capital G, and are succeeding pretty well. It is going to be quite generally recognized that we are setting the pace for our competitors. When people want anything in our line they know we are apt to have the lowest price on it.
