Our Exchange Table.

An up-county exchange got a marriage notice and a grocer's notice mixed up, and the combination read thus: "John Smith and Miss Ida Quay were united in the bonds of sauerkraut which will be sold by the quart or barrel. Mr. Smith is an esteemed cod-fish at ten cents per pound."

Our thanks are due to Mr. H. M. Roberts for a quantity of Royal Ann Cherries. From this same tree grew the cherries that in 1878 took the first prize at the centennial in Philadelphia and we doubt not that those left us would take the prize this year. They are the finest we ever saw.—Harrisburg Courier.

Over 5,000,000 pounds of wool will be shipped to The Dalles this season—Oregon wool. Over 5,100,000 cans of salmon will be shipped from Astoria this season—Oregon salmon. Over 15,000,000 bushels of wheat will be shipped from the state this season—Oregon wheat. There are also Oregon fruit, Oregon gold, Oregon timber, and a host of other Oregon products of $1.—Astorian.

The following, from an exchange, should suggest something to average farmers: "He told his son to milk the cows; feed the horses, slop the hogs, hunt the eggs, feed the calves, catch the colt and put him in the stable, cut some wood, split up the kindling, stir the cream, put fresh water in the creamery after supper and be sure to study his lesson before he went to bed. Then he went to the farmers' club to discuss the question, 'How to keep the boys on the farm.'"

A newspaper can say nice and pleasant things about a man and his whole family for two long years, and then incur their lifetime enmity in one short week by a seeming slight. Yea, it's the fact; and you can hurrah for a candidate, back his friends, curse his enemies and make a damned fool of yourself all the way through, without a thank in the end, to find when you are a candidate that he is "out of politics." But there is one man that don't forget you, and that's the man you oppose.—Telegraph.

Saloon keepers and others who deal in cigars would do well to closely study the law enacted by the last congress in regard to the sale of cigars. Section 2022 of the Revised Statutes says that cigars must be sold to customers direct from the properly stamped box. A dealer who takes out a handful of cigars and lays them before the buyer to choose from or a saloon keeper who brings a customer a cigar on a plate or in a glass, makes himself liable to a fine of $100.—West Coast Trade.

Most editors are acquainted with the man who "takes more papers than he can read," and consequently has no use for his local papers. He takes a paper published in Portland, Maine. It contains all the latest news about the "Smuggler's Last Cruise," the adventures of "Big Mose, the Brandit King," etc. and while he is storing his mind with such useful information his wife is reading back number almanacs. This is also the man who wants fifteen line local puffs, just to fill up you know.—Ex.

A novel experiment has been devised for the entertainment of dinner parties, the serving of salad grown under the eyes of the guests who partake of it. The secret of performing this magic feat lies in soaking good germinating lettuce seed in alcohol for about six hours and sowing it in an equal mixture of unsifted lime and rich soil. After the soup has been served, sprinkle the seed with luke warm water and they will sprout immediately. The lettuce grows about the size of hazel nuts before the time for serving the salad arrives.—Ex.

In the new ballot act the democrats succeeded in passing in the Ohio legislature provision was made for a distinctive emblem at the head of the names of each party on the ticket. The selection is made by the officials of the party organizations. In pursuance of this provision the prohibitionists have selected the white rose; the republicans the eagle and the democrats the flag. The farmers, will come in later with some agricultural figure, perhaps the fleece of a sheep, symbolizing the way they have been sheared in the McKinly business.—Centralla News.

A newspaper directory just issued, reports Oregon's thirty-one counties as having 131 newspapers, fifteen of which are dailies, and nearly all of them are weeklies. Of course Multnomah is the banner county, having four dailies, and twenty-eight weeklies and monthlies. Seven counties—Crook, Curry, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Malheur and Sherman—are reported as having but one paper each. There is no county in the state without a newspaper. In Linn there are eight, two of which are published daily. Lane has six, Polk four, Benton five, and Umatilla seven.

Superintendent Downing, of the state penitentiary, made a report for the quarter ending June 30. During the quarter the expenditures were $9,473.24; earnings, $7,413.27, and receipts, $588.75. The number of convicts at the close of the quarter was 391, being an increase since January 1 of 33. The receipts were greater by $2,500 than during the previous quarter. Of convicts 34 are sick or decrepid; 43 unemployed, and 224 employed in the Northwestern foundry at 40 cents per day.

The county court of Marion county agreed to invite the county court of Linn county to join them in a visit to Mill City, on the 24th, to view the site of a proposed bridge across the main fork of the Santiam river.

Druggists or mail; treatise free. Dr. Ross, 323 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by M. A. Miller.

WATERLOO WHISPERS.

Protracted meeting commencing (Friday) July 17—soda water—nothing stronger. Boat riding seems to be a feature of enjoyment.

Waterloo extends thanks to Sodaville cornet band, for an excellent serenade rendered here on Sunday. This band is improving rapidly. Come again.

Ah there! Boys don't get under the kitchen porch when you take a drink—for water you will find, "sure".

When you go to the Soda spring look out for your front teeth—H. K. take warning.

Lumber and shingles seem to be in great demand from the number of loads daily passing.

Surveyor O'Connor visited Albany Tuesday and returned Wednesday.

Waterloo will soon be ready for a boom. Slow but sure.

Grampa Peebler is visiting his friends Jas. Davidson, and family.

Mrs. W. C. Davis' daughter, who has been quite ill, has entirely recovered.

Mr. Davis' family are among the campers rusticated.

Mr. W. C. Cobran of Brownsville, spent Wednesday at this place.

Quite a crowd gathered here Sunday for enjoyment and soda water, and it is needless to remark they found both.

The seats are being erected in the grove for the protracted meeting, in good style now. Come one and all.

God's Blessing to Humanity.
80 Says an Oregon Pioneer Ninety Years Old.
FORBES GROVE, Or., March 19.
I have used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly ninety years old, came to Oregon in 1842 in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company, and since I began using the OREGON KIDNEY TEA I enjoy good health.
DAVID MURKIN.

MOUNTAIN HOME.

Rev. McElroy, of Sweet Home, preached at Mountain Home on last Sabbath as did also Rev. A. Tunison.

We learn that Mr. Geo. D. Smith of this place, intends moving to Cedar Flat to work in a shingle mill.

We had a nice picnic at Mountain Home on the last day of Miss Creecy's school. Miss Creecy left the next day for her home in East Portland.

I notice quite a change in the last week issue of the Express which we think adds to the beauty of the paper.

Mr. T. B. Wright is building him a new frame barn 30x50 feet square.

H. S. Wooden is working for Wm. Phillips this week.

Mr. Samuel Hawken and wife visited Fern Ridge last Monday.

We learn Mr. Wm. Fruit went to Brownsville, Tuesday.

Jim Smith is running an Armstrong mower this week.

Miss Lillie Smith went to Brownsville, last Monday.

Everybody take the Express and be merry.

Prof. David Torbett has accepted a position in the Collegiate Institution at Albany. Our people regret to lose this very capable instructor and excellent gentleman; as well as the loss of his good family, should he move them from our midst.

We were shown a handsome silver wire bracelet, having 13 bangles nicely engraved with initial and ornamental designs, such as birds, flowers and landscapes etc. The work was all done in Lebanon, by J. E. Adeox, the new jeweler. The work is a credit to him and goes to support the reputation he has gained as a first-class workman.

At Marion, Saturday, there was war among the Chinese section hands. It was a new crew, and early this morning, before they were dressed, the scrape commenced being over money. Ah Pow is in jail at Malen, he having done the shooting. He succeeded in shooting one countryman twice, another once. Both were wounded.
