

Expressions.

Additional locals on first page.

Go to Bach's for choice groceries.
F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, keeps railroad time.

W. H. Booth M. D. physician and surgeon, Lebanon Oregon.
For bread call at the Star restaurant.

Mr. Thos. Price, the contractor, still wants some more teams. He is paying $3.50 per day for good teams.

Crawford & Paxton of Albany, are making Cabinet Photographs for the low price of $1.50 per dozen. Call at their Gallery and see them when in Albany.

See Cruson & Menzie's Timothy seed.
Insure your house with Peterson & Garland.

Mr. Wm. Morrow was in town yesterday. He goes from here to Seio.

Wheat is 82 cents now.

Mrs. J. J. Swan and daughter Mable visit Albany this week.

L. A. Mouser is the proud father of another boy. Mother and baby are both doing well.

Rev. Lamar left to-day for Stayton to attend the Baptist Association. He will commence a protracted meeting in the Tennessee neighborhood next Monday.

Mr. John Burkhardt has his residence near completion and will move into it before long.

Clean and fresh grass seeds at Cruson & Menzie's.

S. P. Bach keeps a line of boots and shoes as well as Brownsville woolen goods.

Services in M. E. Church next Sunday at 11 and 7:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 10. Epworth League at 3. You are invited to attend all these services.

Hon. F. C. Hansard left Wednesday for an extensive visit to his old home in east Tennessee.

A divorce has been granted between Dr. M. H. Ellis and wife, before Judge Boise in the circuit court in Yamhill.

Marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk to J. C. Standish and Abbie Taylor, J. F. Meriman and Kate Gertrude Quinn, Alex Power and Carrie Laune.

Mrs. J. Burkhardt is improving we are glad to say.

Mrs. J. B. Miller is sick this week.

Mr. Sam'l Garland is in the county-seat this week on legal business.

Born at Spicer to the wife of Ed. M. Burkhardt, a son. Mother and child doing well. Another point scored for the Alliance.

S. H. Walpole, the cultis tin horn gambler, who played a conspicuous part in our police court a year ago, was in the city yesterday, and last night met a Waterloo at the hands of Frank Marshall. Marshall paid a fine. Walpole was invited to make tracks towards the suburbs and the last seen of him he was doing so. —Democrat.

Dr. F. P. Matchett who has charge of the hospital at Wallace, Idaho, is in town accompanied by his family visiting his parents.

There will be a meeting of the trustees of Saptian Academy at the Lebanon Bank Friday evening. Members are requested to attend if possible.

The M. E. Church will begin revival services on October 15th.

The Baptists will dedicate their house Nov. 1st. Rev. C. M. Hill, state missionary, and other ministers from abroad will be present. Preaching at 11 A. M., 3 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. There will be a basket dinner at the church. All are invited to attend these services. The meeting will continue two or three weeks.

Dr. H. A. Lentinger, dentist, of Albany, will be in Lebanon every Thursday, beginning Oct. 15th.

Mr. J. K. P. Tate, a substantial citizen living down the Santiam, was in town Friday and called at our office. He thinks his section one of the choicest of the land.

Our city council are ever on the alert for the interest of the city. The entire council inspected all the sidewalks of the city this week and ordered many needed improvements.

It is reported that in some parts of Southern California potatoes are being offered at five cents per sack, the buyer to dig them.

The Ladies' Bazaar, of Albany, keeps cloaks for Ladies, Misses and Children. When in Albany call and see them.

See other local matter on fifth page.

S. P. Bach gives 16 oz. for a pound. M. A. Miller's addition to Lebanon is a very desirable part of the city to live.

Mr. C. A. Zahn makes his own tuffly which is first-class.

Remember your twine accounts come due at Cruson & Menzie's Oct. 1, 1891.

Mrs. G. W. Meek and children, family of a prominent real estate dealer of Salem are visiting in Lebanon the guests of our enterprising jeweler Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Adcox.

It takes cash to run the hardware business and Cruson & Menzie want your undivided attention.

Peterson & Garland can still give on easy terms a desirable building lot in Kirkpatrick's addition.

According to official reports tobacco is raised in fourteen counties in Oregon, Linn being the banner one. In point of average value per acre Oregon stands third among the states.—Ex.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call in and settle up as I need my money.

Mrs. GEO. RICE.

When in Albany call and see Hopkins Bros. They are the sole agents for the celebrated Superior cook stoves and ranges, the world's best.

When in Albany don't fail to call on the Ladies' Bazaar. They have the finest lot of Millinery goods ever brought to the valley.

Our townsman, Dora Hickman, departed for the mountains on Monday interest.

Geo. W. Wright, a prominent attorney of Albany, is in the city to-day on business.

Work at the paper mill is progressing nicely. All are anxious to hear the hum of such machinery. Strangers of prominence visit this mill every day and are shocked to find so large a plant and the latest and finest machinery the world affords.

Lawyer G. W. Wright, of Albany, was in the city to-day as attorney for Mrs. Sarah E. Mills, administratrix of the estate of Alfred L. Reel, deceased. Mr. Wright desires us to say that while gives prompt attention to all legal business entrusted to him, he makes a specialty of attending to the settlement of estates deceased persons and other matters in the probate and county courts, and his charges as attorney are made with the purpose of being so reasonable as to merit and acquire a goodly patronage from his fellow-citizens of Linn County. Mr. Wright has valuable real estate interests in Linn County. His law office is in the front rooms in the new Bank of Oregon building in Albany. He is a graduate of the law department of the University of Missouri, and has practised in Oregon for the last eight years.

We observe from Sunday Oregonian that the parties suspected of the murder of our townsman and merchant W. M. Barbour last June have been released as the evidence was not sufficient to convict.

Mr. Phil. Smith, our efficient city marshal, departed Wednesday. Tommy Cox, a painter, became somewhat obnoxious on the street. Mr. Smith gently placed him in the cooler until morning when he was arraigned before the city recorder. After undergoing a legal process, Tommy was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $11.25. So much for our city treasurer. Tommy claimed to be a first cousin to the James brothers and closely related to the Ford boys.

C. A. Zahn carries a fine line of notions and confectionery. Give him a call.

When in town call at the variety store, Kirkpatrick's building.

If you wish to erect a monument over the grave of any of your relatives before next decoration, call at once and get the reduction in prices now offered by E. W. Achison & Co., Albany Or.

When in Albany call on Will & Stark, the leading jewelers and watch-makers.

Will & Stark of Albany have the finest stock of clocks and watches ever brought to the valley.

When you want a nice gold ring, call on Will & Stark, Albany, Oregon.

Mrs. G. E. McKenney placed a real nice monument over her husband's grave last week. It was bought of E. W. Achison & Co. of Albany, the leading monument and headstone dealers in the valley.

For the next sixty days we will sell tombstones and monuments for 5 per cent less than our regular price. If you need anything in our line, give us a call. E. W. ACHISON & Co.

T. S. Pillsbury and wife, of Brownsville, are in the city to-day. Mr. Pillsbury is a prominent citizen of that place and is in the jewelry business.

For sale.

Fifty bushels of seed wheat. Apply to G. H. Welschen on old Leggett farm.

Wednesday Locals.

D. H. Ambrose, of Brownsville, was in the city to-day.

Rev. Aldridge, of Brownsville, was in the city to-day.

H. W. Price, John Robson E. L. Quinn, all of Albany, were in the city to-day, registered at the St. Charles.

Valley City, N. D. claims to be blessed with quite a horse, 19 hands high, 13 feet long and plenty of room to drive a few bronchos under him.

Johnathan Wasson has sold block 12 to R. Dix one of the same parties who bought of Peterson & Garland. We are glad to learn of such gentlemen investing in our community.

Miss Belieu, who lives some eight miles from here, across the river, is very sick.

Mr. Ed. Carr and wife accompanied by Miss Sharp, took a drive out to the new canal last evening. They report work as progressing nicely.

All members of the Lebanon brass band are requested to be present at their meeting to be held Saturday evening next.

G. W. Daggett, who has been living here for some time past, leaves for the coast in the morning.

We learn from the Albany Herald of this morning that the big bridge so long spoken of is about to commence active work, material and pile-driver being on the ground now and a force of men to commence to-day. This means well for Albany. We wish them good success as they have a mass of very enterprising people.

U. G. Hurley, the phrenologist, and wife, departed from our little city this morning. They were pleasant people and made many friends.

J. S. Morgan, contractor and builder, who resides in Albany, is busy this morning with a force of several men on the new brick building to be erected for Dr. Courtney. We understand the second story will be an opera house. This means well for Lebanon.

There are several new houses going up in Lebanon, and many other improvements which we will endeavor to speak of in the near future.

Mr. E. Goan is at present manufacturing a fine pulpit for one of the Oregon City churches. It is a beauty and made of the best of material. This is the second pulpit he has had the pleasure of constructing this season, as he supplied a church in Plainview.

Will A. Peairs, Pacific Coast agent for Chamberlain & Co's. Medicine of Des Moines, Iowa is in the City to-day.

Have you noticed the new Post Office sign? It is the work of J. F. Whitney.

On last Saturday the 2d inst. the stock raisers and farmers in the Brownsville country gave an exhibition of fine colts. There were quite a number of good ones on hand, and after careful inspection by practical judges the prizes both for sweepstakes and breeding were awarded to the colt belonging to D. H. Ambrose, sired by the Jim Crack Clyde stallion belonging to the Shedd horse breeding Co.

Peterson & Garland, our genial Real Estate agents, have just closed a sale for G. W. Daggett, lots 4 and 5, Kirkpatrick's 3d addition. Sold to E. F. Dix and R. Dix, late of Kansas.

Chas. Hineman and father started this morning overland on a three weeks trip to Prineville and vicinity. We wish them a pleasant trip.

For Sale.

Tea room house and large barn, four lots, nice shade trees, will be sold very reasonable if taken inside of 30 days. If not sold in next 30 days will be for rent: location Main St. Inquire of C. A. Elson, Lebanon, Oregon.

FOOT WEAR!

FRESH FROM MANUFACTURERS

Ladies' and Misses' Shoes,
Gents' and Boys' Shoes,
Gents' and Boys' Boots,

RUBBER GOODS OF ALL KINDS.

Fresh Groceries Arriving Constantly.

See the New Line of Hats for Men and boys.

Everything in Staple Dry Goods.

At BAKER'S.

WHEN VISITING ALBANY

DON'T FAIL TO SEE THE

MAMMOTH STOCK

—OF—

FALL CLOTHING

—AT—

L. E. BLAIN'S.

NEW STYLES! NEW PRICES

Also an Elegant Stock of Cloths in Merchant Tailoring Department with First-Class Tailoring.

THE GREAT PORTLAND

Industrial Exposition

With its World of Wonders

Opens Sept. 17. 1891. Closes Oct 17.

MUSIC by the GREAT ZAPADORES BAND direct from the CITY OF MEXICO.

Art from the great masters of Europe and America, valued at a quarter million dollars. Wonderful Electrical Advancements in full operation. A Splendid series of Mineral Exhibits

Every Department filled with the Novel and Interesting in ART, SCIENCE & INDUSTRY.

A Greater Number of Exhibits than ever before presented upon the coast.

THE STOCK DEPARTMENT MADE A PROMINENT FEATURE. $5,000 IN PREMIUMS.

The largest Display of Fruit and the Finest exhibit of Agriculture ever made in the Pacific Northwest. All manufactures in full motion. Everything New. No Dead Exhibits. THE EXPOSITION OF EXPOSITIONS.

Admission as usual. Greatly Reduced Rates for round trip on all passenger lines.