Tared of Living.

On last Saurday at about 5 c'clock P. M. Sur little town was thrown into considerable excitement by Sading the body of Fred Histau hanging suspended with dish towels in the store room adjoining the Star Restaurant.

About cleven o'clock Mr. Ristau went into this room where the bakery is, and as he was complaining of not feeling seell they never thought anything of his not coming out until litte when they had someone pry a plank off to see what he was doing, as he had locked the door when he citered.

Mr. Histau Same to this place about any, and sometime in June he and H. E. Parrish formed co-partners and opened the Star Resaurant with which he was comented at the time of his death.

he was connected at the time of his death.

He was thought well of by all who knew him, was quiet and attended strictly to his own luminess and had but little to say, and there is no cause known why he should commit such an art. He left a note written in German which read as follows; "I am tired of Hving. You will find $15 in my pecket for burial axpenses. Make them as light as possible. See that my body is not used for dissecting purposes."

As soon as he was found, Coroner Farrell was notified and arrived here about 10 o'clock and then assummened a jury coosistiling of Sam'l M Garland, Phil Smith, J.C. Gorden, John Mayer and R.S. obetts. Dr. Booth was the examining physician and reported that the deceased came to his death hy dislocation of the vertebrae. The jury found their verdied in accordance with the deceased camp to his death hy dislocation for the vertebrae. The jury found their verdied in accordance with the deceased committed suicide.

On southay per Livermore of Oregon City arrived in town to take charge of the body. He shas the following to say about Mr Ristou.

Fred Ristan came to Gonesee, Ill.

Fred Ristan came to Genesee, Ill. in 1884 and was with me two seasons making his home with me most of the one. He came to my house at Oregon City Aug. 23d, 1889, and her been with me most of the time dince until last May, when he came to Lebanon. Fred has ever been a man of industrious habits and of good morals. We have regarded Fred as one of our own family and regret his untimely N. J. LIVERMORE.
