Haulfeiter will preach at the M. E. Church, South, on next Sabbath evening at 7:15, on the "Testimony of the World Concerning Christ." Dr. Courtney's baby was slightly hurt on last Monday evening. The baby was in the carriage, which was left in front of Smith & Miller's drug store. By some means it rolled off the sidewalk. Rev. G. S. Haulfeiter was on the opposite side of the street and saw it start. He ran to catch it but it turned over just as he got in arm's length of it. For the next sixty days we will sell tombstones and monuments for 5 per cent less than our regular price. If you need anything in our line, give us a call. E. W. Achison & Co. Rev. Morgan, wife and children, from somewhere, says the Corvallis Gazette, have been in the city during the past week, making melody for our citizens. Mr. Morgan says that those who are not saved by next March will be everlastingly condemned, after which time we will have to endure seven years of war and destruction. This is a terrible pronouncement, and it strikes us like a clap of thunder from a clear sky, but we hope and trust this thing will be postponed—long enough to give us time to take for the fall timber, which the average inhabitant had better be up and doing, if he has any love for his anatomy. W. J. Turbridge, living in the forks of the Santiam, says the Albany Democrat, was arrested and held before Justice Humphrey, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The facts seem to be that Geo. Bradley was the owner of a county warrant in the clerk's office. Sometime since, desiring to leave the country, he says the warrant to his mother and authorized her to draw it. Mr. Turbridge was coming to Albany, and Mrs. Bradley requested him to draw the money on it. He paid the money over to Mrs. Bradley, except a few dollars which she owed him. Bradley had been arrested as stated above. He was discharged by the justice.

It is the usual comment of all strangers that Lebanon shows signs of greater continual prosperity than any other town in the state. Mr John Walker, one of our popular shingle dealers, has bought Mr Miller's property and moved into town. Lebanon is the most orderly city in the valley, when we remember how many men working on the canal are constantly in town. Dr. Courtney's new building is beginning to put on a lively appearance. The heavy iron castings are being put in place, and indicate a strong and well built structure. Swan Bros. are putting in the plumbing work and bath tubs in Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick's new building, and also a stove, made for the purpose, with apparatus for heating water for the bath and other rooms. Having bought out the interest of Mr. Chas. Miller in the drug store, and accounts, I wish to balance up the books, and all persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Smith & Miller will please call and settle at once. N W SMITH. For diarrhea or stomach complaint in any form, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mrs. Nancy Berry, of Adams, Lawrence Co., Kentucky, says one dose of it cured her of an attack of diarrhea. Two or three doses will cure any ordinary case. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. 25 & 50c. bottles sold by M. A. Miller. Cando Mills, Texas, June 5, 1891.—From my own personal knowledge, I can recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps in the stomach, also for diarrhea and flux. It is the best medicine I have ever seen used and the best selling because it always gives satisfaction. A. S. SWEENEY, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

Our Trip to Albany The first of the week we made a quick trip to the county-seat, more for sight seeing than anything else. Among the first things that caught our eye was the large display of Superior stoves, both cook and heater, at Hopkins Bros' and of course we had to stop, and before we knew it we were the happy purchasers of one of the best. The price was the lowest and the stove first-class in every respect. Hopkins Bros. are the people. When in Albany call and see them and see whether you want to buy or not.
