Mr. Frank Davis, of Sodaville, returned home this week from Washington and Eastern Oregon, where he had been looking for a location. He said he believed that Lebanon was the best of all, and has about decided to move here.

One of our subscribers in Sodaville was telling us of a grand serenade they had up there the other night. It was given in behalf of some young bachelors at that place. He said that it was fine, but that he thought the most of them were amateurs as the music didn't chord.

In conversation with Hon. R. A. Irvine he stated to us that in a short time Judge R. P. Boise and himself were contemplating a visit to each local Farmers Alliance in this county, for the purpose of encouraging each organization and talk over matters pertaining to Alliance questions.—Scio Press.

If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back, bind on over the seat of pain a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. You will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 50-cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

The opening service at the Baptist church last Sabbath was very interesting. The program was as follows: Opening hymn, "Come, Great Deliverer, Come;" Invocation by Rev. Young; Hymn, "Hallelujah for the Cross;" Scripture Lesson, Nehemiah, 2nd chapter; Prayer by Rev. G. S. Hankester; Sermon by Rev. C. Hill, text, Nehemiah 4:3. The sermon was able and showed thorough preparation. Benediction by Rev. Sperry.

Three or four weeks ago Lillian Young aged about sixteen, of this city, where she was well known on account of her rather wild habits, skipped out with George White, a negro. They went to Portland, where White and a white man, who was enamored with the fair Lillian had a fight to see who would keep her. From there they went to Astoria, when, yesterday, on complaint of Miss Young's mother, now, a resident of Corvallis, both parties were arrested by Sheriff Smith, and will be taken to Corvallis for trial. They were living together when arrested.—Albany Democrat.

Married.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hearn, corner of Fourth and Washington streets, Albany, Oregon, Nov. 4, 1891, at 5:30 P. M., Mr. Quincy E. Propst and Miss Ida Goan, Rev. E. R. Prichard of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The bride is a daughter of Mr. E. Gean the furniture dealer of this city, and has many warm friends in this place. The groom is a young man well known in Albany, having been born and raised in Linn county. He graduated from the Albany college in 1886. The happy young couple are expected in the city to-day on a visit to her parents for a few days after which they will return to Albany where they will make their future home. The Express extends its best wishes.

CHAMBERS-DAVIS.—Nov. 4th, by Rev. E. R. Prichard at his residence in Albany, Mr. Edward Chambers and Miss Millie Davis. Both parties are well and favorably known here. The happy couple departed on the noon train for Portland, and on their return will spend a few days with the bride's sister, Mrs. Cruson, and then will go to their new home near Knox Butte where Mr. Chambers has fitted up a nice new cottage to take his bride to. We wish them a happy voyage through life.

Crawford & Paxton of Albany, are making Cabinet Photographs for the low price of $1.50 per dozen. Call at their Gallery and see them when in Albany.

With every dozen photographs you have taken at Dodson Bros. you get one large picture of yourself, 8x10, with frame. Call on them soon and take advantage of this offer.

M. A. Miller, the druggist, takes especial pleasure in supplying his customers with the best medicines obtainable. Among the many excellent preparations on his shelves may be mentioned Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or so promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency towards pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity.

Having bought out the interest of Mr. Chas. Miller in the drug store, and accounts, I wish to balance up the books, and all persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Smith & Miller will please call and settle at once. N. W. SMITH.

Our Trip to Albany

The first of the week we made a quick trip to the county-seat, more for sight-seeing than anything else. Among the first things that caught our eye was the large display of Superior stoves, both cook and heater, at Hopkins Bros. and of course we had to stop, and before we knew it we were the happy purchasers of one of the best. The price was the lowest and the stove first-class in every respect. Hopkins Bros. are the people. When in Albany call and see them and see whether you want to buy or not.
