HAPPY HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sylvester went to Albany Tuesday.

James A. Morgan is one of the delegates to the Solo Alliance.

Come to the front, disgusted wife! Let us hear more of your alliance life!

Messrs. Cummings and Burrell have returned from their hunt on Bald Peter, and report game plenty and in good condition, they having killed 7 deer, 1 bear and a wildcat.

Wednesday, W. H. Cummings took his wagon to Lebanon to get it repaired. [That run-away.]

The many friends of Mr. C. Calen will regret to learn of the accident which befell him a short time ago. While at work on a building, laying brick, he fell, breaking both legs and otherwise seriously injuring himself.

Mr. Chas. Scott is steadily improving his place, which has a genuine home look, and shows that energy, perseverance and determination will accomplish.

Mrs. J. S. Caldwell, has at her home a beautiful specimen of white and green variegated roses.

Who is the lone bachelor of the white house? You see I know "Pug" don't know.

When called for I always respond by coming to the front, so here is—

REL.

The following lines are written in memory of little Johnny Fitzwater, who departed this life November the 8th, 1891, aged 2 years and six months. He was a bright and loving little child, and Oh, how true it is that death leaves a shining mark.

GOSE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

Brighter, fairer far than living, With no trace of woe or pain, Roses in everlasting beauty,
We will meet him once again,
By the light that never fadeeth, Underneath eternal skies, Till the dawn of resurrection Breaks the death like Paradise.

Written by his mother,

Mrs. Ida Fitzwater.

[We received another poem, written in memory of the above named child, by a friend, but we gave the mother preference.—Ed.]

New Sectional Map of Oregon.

The Oregonian, at great expense, has prepared a Sectional Map of Oregon, and offers it as a premium for subscriptions to the Weekly Oregonian. The map is corrected up to date, is 40x50 inches in size; scale, six miles to the inch. It is neatly finished and on rollers, ready to hang up on the wall.
This is the finest map of Oregon ever issued, and should be in every household in the state. Anyone sending $3.00 will receive the Weekly Oregonian for fifteen months (if the subscription is received prior to January 1, 1892) and one of these maps as a premium. The price of the map without the paper is $2.00. Address

OREGONIAN PUBLISHING CO.,
Portland, Oregon.

One Dollar Weekly.

Buy a good Gold Watch by our Club System. Our 14-karat gold-filled cases are warranted for 20 years. Fine Elgin or Waltham movement. Stem wind and set. Lady's or Gent's size. Equal to any $50 watch. To secure agents where we have none, we sell one of the Hunting Case Watches for the Club price $25 and send C. O. D. by express with privilege of examination before paying for same.

Our agent at Durham, N. C., writes:
"Our jeweler has confessed they don't know how you can furnish such work for the money."
Our Agent at Health Springs, S. C., writes:

"Your watches take it right. The gentleman who got the last watch said that he examined and priced a jeweler's watches in Lancaster, that were no better than yours, but the price was $45." Our Agent at Pennington, Tex., writes:

"Am in receipt of the watch, and am pleased without measure. All who have seen it say it would be cheap at $50."

One good reliable Agent wanted for each place. Write for particulars.

EMPIRE WATCH CO., New York.

given at Buhl & Pugh's.

TENNESSEE.

ENTERO LEBANON EXPRESS.

Thinking perhaps a few items from a place that is so well known as Tennessee would interest the many readers of your valuable paper, I take pleasure in writing you a few lines.

We are sorry to learn that Chester Myers, son of Mr. Ed. Myers, is very sick.

Geo. C. Davis has raised a crop of potatoes this year, that he thinks will average 500 bushels to the acre; a fact which shows that Tennessee land cannot be excelled.

There is a young man who has learned how to travel the road from Lebanon to Tennessee at twelve o'clock Sunday nights.
Last Sunday night as he wended his way down the muddy road he was heard to sing the song, "Take me back to home and Mother," and some say he had out the tremulous stop.

Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Libbie Carphers.

We learn that Mr. C. F. Bigbee and family have moved from Tennessee to their new home, ten miles above Lebanon, on the Santiam. During their short stay in Tennessee they have made many friends whose best wishes will go with them to their new home.

In spite of the muddy roads our Sunday School at the Tennessee school-house well attended. Mr. Abram Baltimore has been chosen for superintendent, a position formerly occupied by Mr. C. F. Bigbee.

Hop buyers have been plentiful here this week; prices averaging from twelve to fifteen cents per pound.

The smiling face of John Fox can be seen each Sunday morning as he passes through Tennessee in his buggy. He kicks about the muddy roads but we are inclined to think he will go if he has to swim.

The Frank Bros. have commenced digging a fifteen acre crop of potatoes. They have our sympathies for we have been there ourselves.

Mr. Geo. Rose had two sheep killed by dogs last week. Already one dog has passed over the shining river on account of it, which should be a warning to his brother-murderers.

LONG FELLOWS.

Man is never satisfied, never was, and never will be. Chafing in the soft glow of morning, restless amid beauty at midday, he fails to appreciate the gleam of twilight until it grows into the gloom of midnight. We look upon those who fill positions in life to which we aspire and wonder why they are not content, forgetting that every advance in knowledge and personal preferment but opens up new prospects and produces new excitement to a further progress. To this spirit of restlessness is due much of the onward march; on it we build for the future as a nation, state, community. As individuals we cannot stifle this irritability, not that we envy those above us so much, as that we fail to appreciate the blessings that we enjoy ourselves. No condition in life but has its disappointments. It matters not our surroundings, let us strive to make the best of them, the common end is death. We can take naught with us from this life except what we have woven into our minds and characters.—EX.

Sheriff Nolan, of Lane county, was in this city yesterday en route to Salem.
He had in charge M. and Fitch, a young girl who was insane. The unfortunate young woman had been seduced by a worthless fellow named Sawyer, which, it is said, caused her insanity. The latter was at the depot, having followed the officer and girl from Eugene. When he was espied by the sheriff he was given five minutes to leave the city, which he did. He ought to be put in the penitentiary.— Albany Herald.

Peterson & Garland were busy this week writing insurance policies. They have a fine line of foreign and domestic companies, and treat all of their patrons fairly.

Mrs. T. L. Dodson has been very ill with malarial fever, but under the special care of Dr. Booth is fast recovering.

City Council.

The council met last Tuesday evening in regular session, with the Mayor and councilmen all present.

An ordinance in regard to city elections passed second reading and was then referred to the committee on ordinances. There were also several ad-amendments to ordinances which were referred to the committee on ordinances.

The Marshal was ordered to fix up the sidewalks on city lots and see that all other sidewalks are fixed up.

Mr. Elkins again brought up the question in regard to the city helping in draining the sloughs in the north end of town. The council requested him to bring in a report of how much he could raise by subscription, at the next meeting. The Express thinks the city ought to help in this improvement.

There were several bills presented which were referred to the committee on finances.

The council then adjourned to meet Thursday night, when they will pass the ordinance on city elections and appoint judges and clerks for the same.

Notice.

I have sold to Buhl & Pugh my entire store, consisting of groceries, provisions, gent's furnishing goods, and fixtures. In retiring from the merchandise business I wish to thank the public and my customers for the liberal patronage that they have extended to me, and would bespeak for my successors the same liberal support; as I know them both to be honest, industrious young men. Again thanking the public, I remain, Yours Respt.,
W. B. DONACA.

Having bought the store of W. B.
Donaca, we desire to inform the public that we will always carry a complete stock of groceries and general supplies, and that we hope to command the same liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon our predecessors, guaranteeing full and complete satisfaction.
BUHL & PUGH.

WHITCOMB ECHOES.

Rain! Rain! Mull!
Grip the La Grippe.
Everybody is getting behind with their work.
Mr. Shook killed a fine bear up Cash creek above here.
The river has been as high at this place already this fall as it was at any time last winter.
Messrs. Potter, Shook and Whitcomb are laying in a supply of bear meat for winter.
Mr. Shook is making beavers, martens and fishers scarce, by the use of steel traps.
The weather here has been mild and rainy, without any sign of snow or frost yet.
L. E. W.

Don't fail to give Buhl & Pugh a call.
They have a fine line of first-class goods.

Say, do you know that Buhl & Pugh carry a well selected line of Gent's furnishing goods?

Mr. M. L. Dodson is preparing to give a grand ball, Christmas Eve, at the Band Hall, which promises to be a success.

Last Monday Mr. S. O. Mesarvey and wife, father and mother of W. D.
Mesarvey, of this place, arrived here from Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Mesarvey expresses himself as well pleased with this country, and thinks he will locate here.

Before purchasing holiday goods do not fail to call at N. W. Smith's drug store and examine his stock of plush goods and novelties of every description. He has spared no pains in selecting his stock, and has a full line of plush goods, toys, books, cards, etc.

Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick returned from Seattle Friday.

The few days of sunshine this week are duly appreciated by all.

Heating stoves away down to cost at F. C. Ayer & Co.'s.

Contractor I. C. Coun, of Albany, was in town the first of the week.

Miss Belle Kirkpatrick is spending the week visiting in Albany.

Mrs. J. B. Thompson made a visit to her relatives in the country, this week.

Unlike our thriving little neighbor, Sodaville, Lebanon has many neat churches.

Pumps down to Albany prices.
Black pipe 12 cts. At F. C. Ayer & Co.'s.

Remember the ladies of the Baptist Church will give you a good supper at the Band Hall on Thanksgiving evening, for 25 cts. Oyster soup 15 cts.
Supper from 5 to 8 p. m.

Rev. Lamar left, Monday, for Turner, where he goes to hold a meeting. He expressed a regret in missing the meeting Wednesday evening, but could not be up it.

Dr. Spencer Dudley left, Monday, for Texas, where he goes to spend the winter with a sister that he has not seen for forty years. The doctor leaves many here who hope to see him return.

Stephen A. Cochell left in the office of Peterson & Garland some magnificent Irish potatoes. He has a hundred bushels like them, raised on the old chicken ranch formerly owned by Mr.
Long.

If at any time there shouldn't appear a local in the EXPRESS that you think should, don't blame the Editor, but yourself for it; for we have asked time and time again that you send in the news.

On last Saturday Mr. A. W. Grubbs' family, consisting of wife, little girl and boy, arrived here from Kansas.
It is useless to add that Joe wears a broader smile than usual.

Don't go to the trouble to run all over the town for what you want, but go direct to Buhl & Pugh and get what you want in the grocery line. Their stock is large and well selected.

Mr. A. C. Brown and Miss Lela Whitbee were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Sunday, Nov. 15, at the home of the bride, near Santiam post-office, Rev. Boyd officiating. The Express extends its congratulation.

For the next sixty days we will sell tomatoes and monuments for 5 per cent less than our regular price. If you need anything in our line, give us a call.
E. W. ACHESON & Co.

The leper case at the McKenale bridge has caused considerable comment. The unfortunate man who is the victim of the disease deserves little sympathy.
Aware of his condition and the disease that had fastened itself upon him, he was willing to link an innocent girl's life with his own with the probability of entailing the horrible disease on her and the offspring of the marriage.—Eugene Guard.

Circuit court adjourned Monday morning after settling one or two little cases. Of the fifteen men bound over to appear before the grand jury but one was sent to the penitentiary. This was McDonald who fraudulently obtained subscription money, and he was sentenced to one year. He was taken to Salem Monday morning. One is now serving a 250 days sentence in the jail, two have skipped, two were acquitted, and in four cases not true bills were returned. The horse thieves were not ready for trial and their case was continued until the next term of court, which will be held in March, and they will remain in jail until that time.
The McMurray contempt case was referred to Geo. B. Dorris to take testimony.—Eugene Register.
