

Expressions.

Additional loads on first page. Go to Bach's for choice groceries. For bread call at the Star restaurant. The city election in Albany bids fair to be hotly contested. A. W. Grubb has rented Burkhart's residence on Depot street. A beautiful lot on Main street for sale by Peterson & Garland. Mrs. Rice's new building is receiving a neat coat of paint. F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, keeps railroad time. Mr. R. S. Roberts has been under the weather for several days. W. H. Booth M. D. physician and surgeon, Lebanon Oregon. Will & Stark, the leading jewelers, Albany, Oregon. Sodaville has good prospects of soon having a neat church. Portland is agitating the question of closing saloons on Sunday. When in town call at the variety store, Kirkpatrick's building. When you want a nice gold ring, call on Will & Stark, Albany, Oregon. Mr. Wm. Ralston was in the city last week, after a visit to his old home in the East. "Shut look into my window if you want to see something nice," is what Zahn says. Oyerman & Hunter the leading harness and saddlery dealers, Albany. C. A. Zahn carries a fine line of notions and confectionery. Give him a call. When in Albany call on Will & Stark, the leading jewelers and watchmakers. The state is now ready to furnish board and lodging for its youthful criminals in its new reform school. A nice $400.00 Piano given away by Klein Bros., on Christmas Eve., at their Boot & Shoe Store, Albany, Oregon. M. A. Miller now has the largest and completest stock of drugs and stationery ever brought to the city. Judge Pipe discharged Fred Beld from custody, on charge of attempting to defraud the government, the indictment being faulty. The sheriff of King's County, Wash., will have to hang Albert Freidricks, on Jan. 14th, for the murder of Scherbring. Senator Meyers seems to be familiarizing himself with national politics with a view to taking part in the coming election. A pleasant sociable was given at the residence of Mr. Wiley, last Friday night, by the young people's society of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. People are becoming interested in the cultivation of corn in this county. Experiments will be made this coming year and it is expected that a large increase of corn will be the result. We are informed there is to be, in the early spring, an interesting trotting race between Helderberg and J. L. S., two spirited animals belonging to Lebanon citizens. If suitable grounds can be procured tracks will be built for the occasion in the vicinity of Lebanon. Rev W M Houston, of Junction City, is preaching in the C P Church this week. Mr Houston is an able and plain speaker. "The truth shall make you free," if you know it. Come out to the meetings. Monday, Dec. 7, will be election day. But little interest seems to be manifested. There is some talk of non-naming a straight-out prohibition ticket. People who don't walk about our city, have no idea of the extent of its growth. Bridge avenue has a long list of new residences. Kirkpatrick's additions to the north-east end make a town of themselves. Ralston's addition in the south end has several new houses. Miller's and Cotton's additions in the west are showing activity. Taken all together, Lebanon is spreading herself in fine style. Attention to detail marks the successful merchant. The store which receives the bulk of trade is the one that deserves it because every effort is put forth to buy the right goods and buy them at the right prices, and sell them at an equitable profit. Baker's one-price cash store isn't one of the kind where the money is made only on articles the prices of which are unfamiliar to the consumer. He wants each article to bear its part of the burden of the expense of the business.

Go to S. P. Bach for boots and shoes. S. P. Bach gives 16 oz. for a pound. A grand masque ball will be given in Albany, Xmas. The council ordered the Marshal to make all needed repairs in sidewalks. Dr. Booth has been unwell this week due to heavy demands upon his time. Come out to the union temperance meeting at the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday evening next. This week there seems to be fair indications of a considerable rise in wheat. Contractor Price has gone East. The work on the canal is in the hands of his son. Marshall Hoffman of Albany gets the reward offered by the Government for the arrest of an army deserter. Natalie Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stewart, of Albany, died last Monday. Chas. Wolverton, Esq., of Albany, is spoken of as a candidate for the republican nomination for congress, for this district. Buhl & Pugh have settled down to business in earnest, and will doubtless command their share of the trade. Remember you can buy an album of M. A. Miller, that will hold fifty pictures, for one dollar. The ladies of the Baptist church will give a supper at the Band Hall on Thanksgiving evening. Don't forget it. Will & Stark of Albany have the finest stock of clocks and watches ever brought to the valley. Go to Mrs. Rice's for cheap millinery. Largest stock and lowest prices. Felt hats, fifty cents. Dr. H. A. Leninger, dentist, of Albany, will be in Lebanon every Thursday, beginning Oct. 15th. Dr. Foley is the busiest man in town. Numerous patients, the presidency of the Canal Company and the office of Street Commissioner keep him bustling. S. M. W. Hindman is now the duly appointed, qualified and acting Justice of the Peace for Lebanon precinct, vice Squire Hyde resigned. If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back, bind on over the seat of pain a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. You will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller. When in Albany don't fail to call on the Ladies' Bazaar. They have the finest lot of Millinery goods ever brought to the valley. The Ladies' Bazaar, of Albany, keeps cloaks for Ladies, Misses and Children. When in Albany call and see them. F. M. French, jeweler, Albany, will give you the benefit of the big cut on watches. Call and examine goods and get prices. When in Albany call and see Hopkins Bros. They are the sole agents for the celebrated Superior cook stoves and ranges, the world's best. F. M. French, jeweler, Albany, keeps a large and complete stock of spectacles and eye glasses, and fits them by "Johnson's patent eye-meter." If you wish to erect a monument over the grave of any of your relatives before next decoration, call at once and get the reduction in prices now offered by E. W. Achison & Co., Albany Or. The large gift boot shows you where Klein Bros. hold forth. Try them on boots and shoes. They also do repairing and custom work, neatly and promptly. Albany, Ore. The new quartz mill of the Albany Company will begin operation in a few days. Thus far but little snow is reported in the mines, but considerable between them and Gatesville. It is not an easy matter to move a bank, judging from the care required in placing the safe in the vault of the new bank. Lebanon will soon have a bank building and outfit that will be a thing of beauty. We are putting in the city masons to which we are justly entitled. Our exchanges seem to think that Oregon's Governor scored one on the President by issuing his Thanksgiving proclamation before the President decided whether or not the Republican Party had anything to be thankful for. Penoyer is blamed by his friends—not for the enemies he has made—but for his peculiarities. State Supt. McElroy reports that the Schools in Eastern Oregon in fair condition. Eugene has been selected by the State Supt. as the place for holding the Teachers Institute, of the Second Judicial District, to be held Dec. 22th, to the 31st. The counties comprising this district are Lane, Curry, Coos, Benton and Douglas.

Marshal Smith went to Albany Monday. Rev. Mr. Houston preached two very instructive sermons in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church last Sunday. Mr. Warner, Att'y Stowe and others went to the mountains last week, to kill deer. Last Tuesday Mr Phil Smith bought the livery stable of John Nichols, which includes the livery stable on Main street and one-third interest in all the rolling stock. Mr Smith then sold the ground which the stable now stands on to J. M. Ralston, including 72 feet front by 100 feet back. Mr Smith will move the stable back in the spring, and we understand Mr Ralston will put in four brick buildings two stories high. Mr. Chas. Gentry brought to this office, Monday morning, a twig of a blackberry bush which had some blossoms and blackberries on it. Think of blackberries the middle of November. Joseph Nixon left, Monday, for Eastern Washington. He goes in hopes of being improved by the dry climate of that section. We trust he may return well repaid for his trip. On the 3d day of November, Mr. R. R. Humphrey bought J. B. Wirt's interest in the saw-mill owned by him and Berrigan, on Hamilton creek. The new firm name will be Berrigan & Humphrey, who will pay all debts and collect all bills made by the old firm. Mr. Humphrey has had considerable experience in the saw-mill business, and they will no doubt make the mill a success. Miller, the druggist, is daily receiving an assorted line of holiday goods consisting of plush goods of every description, such as albums, dressing cases, Christmas cards and fine billes. All boots and shoes bought of Klein Bros., that rip or run over will be repaired free of charge, by them, at their Boot & Shoe Store in Albany, Ore. Crawford & Paxton of Albany, are making Cabinet Photographs for the low price of $1.50 per dozen. Call at their Gallery and see them when in Albany. When in Albany call and see the elegant piano that Klein Bros. will give away on Christmas Eve at their Boot & Shoe Store, Albany, Oregon. Having bought out the interest of Mr. Chas. Miller in the drug store, and accounts, I wish to balance up the books, and all persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Smith & Miller will please call and settle at once. N W SMITH. Klein Bros. carry the largest stock of boots and shoes in Linn county, and it will pay you to call and get their prices before buying your winter stock of boots and shoes. Try them and get a ticket on the elegant piano they will give away Christmas Eve. Albany, Oregon. Mr. F. T. Corless has started a monthly paper here. The name is to be "Oologist and Philatelist." It is a scientific paper, to be published monthly. The first edition will appear about the first of next month. His office is up stairs in Kirkpatrick's building, where he will do the printing. Mr. Corless has a regular curiosity shop, which would pay any one to look at. He seems to be a natural Oologist. Hon. A. Hackleman arrived here last Tuesday from Albany, bringing with him a fine trotting stallion, Alwood Breeze, which he will put on his Camp creek stock farm for breeding purposes. The horse is a fine bright bay, about 16 hands high, and is a very stylish looking animal. He is a standard bred horse, sired by Alwood and is from a good family of trotters. Mr. Hackleman has some of the best bred trotting horses in the country, and Alwood Breeze will be a valuable addition to his fine stock.—Ochooco Review. On Wednesday of last week G. W. Graves, brother of C. A. Graves of this place, was drowned at Newport, Oregon. Mr. Graves was foreman of the government works at Newport, and was swept off the tramway by a breaker and all efforts to rescue him proved unsuccessful. He had been informed that some of the pinks at the end of the tramway had become loose and went out to fix them with the above result. At last accounts his body had not been recovered. He leaves a wife and one son.—Ochooco Review. Wanted. I want at once, 30,000 lbs. bleached dried apples, 10,000 lbs. sun-dried apples, 30,000 lbs. dried pears and 30,000 lbs. dried prunes, for which I will pay the highest market price. G. W. SIMPSON, Albany, Or.

FOOT WEAR AND DRY GOODS At BAKER'S. For Dry Goods, Groceries, and Boots and Shoes, at reasonable prices, go to Hiram Baker's. WHEN VISITING ALBANY DON'T FAIL TO SEE THE MAMMOTH STOCK OF FALL CLOTHING L. E. BLAIN'S. NEW STYLES! NEW PRICES Also an Elegant Stock of Cloths in Merchant Tailoring Department with Frst-Class Tailoring. Our Trip to Albany The first of the week we made a quick trip to the county-seat, more for sight seeing than anything else. Among the first things that caught our eye was the large display of Superior stoves, both cook and heater, at Hopkins Bros.' and of course we had to stop, and before we knew it we were the happy purchasers of one of the best. The price was the lowest and the stove first-class in every respect. Hopkins Bros. are the people. When in Albany call and see them and see whether you want to buy or not. The "Home Work Society" of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Fair, in the Band Hall, Dec. 9, 10, and 11. A fine entertainment each evening, Dec. 9, The Magic mirror, tableaux, etc. Dec. 10, First Appearance of the Peak Sisters, tableaux. Dec. 11, The renowned Mrs. Jarley, with her celebrated waxworks, also tableaux. The ladies will have for sale many articles both useful and ornamental. Free to all Thursday and Friday afternoons. Admission, each evening 15 cts. Refreshments extra. One day last week two brothers, Dick and Lou Swartz, filled up on bad whiskey in Salem, and in the evening started for their home near Silverton. They were in a wagon together, and on the way were involved in a desperate fight, slashing each other with penknives, keeping up the fight for several miles, and until each was pretty badly slashed. As it was strictly a family row the Marion county officials have not caused any arrests to be made.

Table with train schedules for Southern Pacific Route, including destinations like Portland, Albany, and Coquille, with departure and arrival times.