RECORDERS GEO. RICE.
Treasurer J. A. ROBERTS.
MARSHAL PHIL SMITH.
COUNCILMEN G. W. CRUSON,
S. M. W. STELL,
C. H. BALSTON,
JOS. ELKINS.

City Council meets on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month.

Sociable of the VWeeks.

The Ladies of the M. E. Church will give a "Sociable of the Weeks" on Tuesday evening Nov. 24, at the Band Hall.

Each day of the week will be represented by a booth.

Monday's booth will be presided over by Lew Sing and his helpers.

Tuesday, by Aunt Dinah and her helpers.

Wednesday, by several feeble grandmothers, who will take charge of all the mending.

Thursday, the reception booth will be presided over by young ladies. Callers will be served with Royal Dutch Cocoa, ice-cream and cake.

Friday: General sweeping and dusting day. Maids armed with brooms, dusters, etc., will take charge of this booth.

Saturday: Baking and churning day. Cooks will have possession of this booth, and dispense hot coffee and a general lunch to those desiring it.

Each booth can be purchased in advance of the evening. A short musical and literary program will form an interesting part of the evening.

Entertainment and amusements will be Old Games and his man Friday with their plaster-of-Paris "figures." Come everybody. A good time promised. Admission 10 cents.

Teachers' Local Meeting.

A local teachers' meeting will be held at Union Hall in Lebanon on Friday evening and Saturday, the 20th and 21st of Nov., 1891. Prof. J. B. Horner, of Albany, will be present on Friday evening and will deliver a lecture that will be of importance to teachers and school officers. All teachers and school officers in the vicinity of Lebanon are earnestly requested to be present; also parents and the public in general are cordially invited to attend all the sessions.

S. M. Garland was in the county seat this week.

F. H. Benson, of Albany, was in our city on business, yesterday.

Anyone sending in communications will please sign their name.

Don't forget the union Thanksgiving service at the Baptist Church.

Mr. H. C. Moran, of Sweet Home, was visiting in town this week.

Mr. J. M. Ralston and wife, of Albany, was in Lebanon this week.

Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick and Mr. J. Wasson will leave Monday for Seattle.

Mr. John Burkhardt moved, this week, into his new residence just north of town.

Services at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and evening. Everyone welcome.

Wheat has advanced to 53 cents. This is the highest figure that has been reached this season, or for a good many seasons in the past.

Cruson & Menzie received the bill for their Rochester lamps to-day. There is nothing nicer than one of these lamps for a Christmas present.

Services each evening this week at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Members of the several churches are invited to come and help in the work.

The examinations for teachers' certificates, which received the finishing touches yesterday, resulted in four first-class certificates, eleven second and twelve third grades.

Mr. J. A. Powell was in town yesterday and made us a call. He informs us that there are some that still hunt on his farm regardless of trespass notices, and they will have to answer for it, if it is not stopped.

M. E. Church.—Services at 11 and 7 o'clock. Subject for morning, "The Lord's Supper." Evening, "The Millennium." Sunday school at 10. Epworth League at 8 o'clock. All welcome. TADMAS P. BOYD, Pastor.

The mass-meeting at the C. P. church on Monday evening, in the interest of prohibition, was largely attended and there was much enthusiasm. The audience was addressed by Revs. Boyd, Jacka and Houston, all of who made good speeches. Mr. Boyd is very severe on all the church members who signed the petitions for the saloons. His criticisms were just in the main, but very cutting and rather personal. The saloons were openly charged, by all the speakers, with violating the law, but not one specification was made, nor was there an effort made for anyone to swear out a complaint, nor was it stated that anyone was willing to file a complaint.

Attention!
