Sunday Law.

EDITOR EXPRESS:
Will you please publish the Sunday Law of Oregon? Our state has a wholesome and proficient law as any state in the Union; and if the moral and religious people will not see that our laws are enforced, there is no use of further legislation.

All believe in the existence of a God, and if a child owes a duty to its parents, we consider that we owe a high duty to God, he who has given us a mother, tender mother and father. We believe that there is another life than this one; this life would not be so enjoyable unless there was. Therefore, we ought to set apart one day in the week to do our duty to him.

We are all American citizens. We love our country, America, and sincerely wish it a grand future. The true and real welfare of a state is the virtue of its citizens. A nation needs armies and fleets, but more necessary is honor and still more necessary is virtue. When crime permeates a state it is goodly to liberty, virtue and honor. All depends upon the policy and virtue of the inhabitants of the state. Every citizen who represses vice and promotes virtue does commendable work.

TIM TIPS.

Sec. 3300. If any person shall keep open any store, shop, grocery, ball alley, billiard-room or tipping-house, for purpose of labor or or traffic, or any place of amusement on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday or the Lord's day, such person upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5, or more than $50; provided, that the above provision shall not apply to the keepers of drug stores, doctor shops, undertakers, livery stable keepers, barbers, butchers and bakers, and all circumstances of necessity and mercy may be pleaded in defense which shall be treated as questions of fact for the jury to determine when the offense is tried by jury.

Sec. 1000. No person shall keep any open house or room in which intoxicating liquor is kept for retail on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or give or sell, or otherwise dispose of intoxicating liquors on that day. Any person violating this section shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $25 nor less than $10 for each offense, and such fines to be for the use of common schools in the county in which the offense was committed; provided that this section, so far as it prohibits keeping open a house or room, shall not apply to tavern-keepers.

New Sectional Map of Oregon.

The Oregonian, at great expense, has prepared a Sectional Map of Oregon, and offers it as a premium for subscriptions to the Weekly Oregonian. The map is corrected up to date, is 40x50 inches in size; scale, six miles to the inch. It is neatly finished and on rollers, ready to hang up on the wall. This is the finest map of Oregon ever issued, and should be in every household in the state. Anyone sending $5.00 will receive the Weekly Oregonian for fifteen months (if the subscription is received prior to January 1, 1892,) and one of these maps as a premium. ## MOUNTAIN HOME.

Beautiful weather.
Mr. Ira Phipps, of Lebanon, passed through Mountain Home on last Monday.

Prof. Arnold has charge of the singing-school at this place.

Rev. Milkey of Eugene has been holding meetings several nights the past week at Mountain Home, but I hear of none getting converted. Try again. You will catch them next time.

Miss Etta Fruit, of Rowland was visiting her folks the past week.

Several of our young folks attended the meeting at Healey, last Sunday.

I understand there has been somebody sneaking around in this vicinity, carrying various articles such as meat, potatoes, etc. If the thief gets caught the people will make it awful tropical for him.

I hear some complaints of our school teacher, of late, not giving satisfaction, but I think if all the people will attend to their own business the teacher will be all right.

Mrs. L. M. Gapper, of Sweet Home, visited relatives in Mountain Home, on last Saturday and Sunday.

We learn there was a picked play party at Ges. B. Smith's last Friday night.

Wm. Phillips got an increase of $2 per month on his pension, which was formerly $10 per month.

There was a rather wide rumour that came one time into our town. He went to work, as they report. And started a paper called, "Daily Express." It called along with cat-like tread a week or two but, alas! it's dead. The Editor, he did mourn his loss. And sued the publisher and paid the cost. They brought the case before Justice Hyde. For some cause or other 'twas cast aside. The case was then tried before Justice Isaac. Who treats all the cases and is partial against. He fixed the damages at $2 and cost. So this is the reason the paper was lost. We must live and learn for surely we can. So the editor went home a wiser man.

I. C. UNO.

HAPPY HOME.

LACOMB.

Have been having a good deal of rain, lately, and the roads are very muddy, almost impassible in some places. Every body is behind with their fall work.

Our school is progressing finely under the efficient management of G. W. Calavin. There was an entertainment at the school house, Thanksgiving evening.

It was rumored that Mrs. Loofborough was to be married to Mr. Clay yesterday. The boys were preparing to cheer her then. There is talk of another wedding in the near future.

A U. S. Marshal passed through our burg Sunday, looking for a man. We did not learn whether he found him or not.

Play parties are all the go; two last Friday night, one dance. It just poured rain, of course!
