Miller, the druggist, is daily receiving an assorted line of holiday goods consisting of plush goods of every description, such as albums, dressing cases, Christmas cards and fine bibles.

Cruson & Menzie will sell strictly for cash, and have put their prices down.
 Building contracts will be allowed thirty days from time of furnishing last bill of goods.

S. P. Bach gives 10 oz. for a pound.

A beautiful lot on Main street for sale by Peterson & Garland.

M. A. Miller, the druggist, takes especial pleasure in supplying his customers with the best medicines obtainable. Among the many excellent preparations on his shelves may be mentioned Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or so promptly relieve the lungs. Then it intercepts any tendency towards pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to use and fully worthy of its popula-

Following specialties will be included during the performance of the Cabin by the Original Co. at Band Hall on Sat-

Insure your house with Peterson & Garland: Surveyor O'Connor is in town today.
 G. T. Cotton and wife visited Albany yesterday.
 Mrs. L. Foley was visiting in Albany this week.
 Attorney A. F. Stowe is in Portland this week on legal business.
 Don't fail to give Buhl & Pugh a call.
 They have a fine line of first-class goods.
 Misses Iva and Ola Smith went to Albany to-day to attend the theatre.
 Mr. I. C. Conn has been in town the most of the week, working on the bank.
 Mr. J. D. Walton, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, we are glad to report better.
 Mr. Chas. B. Montague was expected home to-day but failed to make connections.
 There were two ladies from Albany in town this week, getting up a music and elocutionary class.
 Buy you an acre in Babstons addition and build your wife a nice house.
 Save rent and be happy:
 PETERSON & GARLAND: Conductor Huston told us that yesterday there were less people traveled over his road than for some time before, that number being 88.
 Services at M. E. Church next Sunday morning, Subject "A call to backsliders." No preaching at night. Sunday school at 10. Epworth League at 3 P. M. All welcome.
 DIED.—At her home in Farmington, Wash., Dec. 7th, 1891, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Kate Gum, aged 26 years. Deceased was born and raised in this county and is a sister of Mrs. Phil Smith, of this city.
 Messrs. Middaugh, Pfaff and Goodman, the proprietors of the Original New Orleans Uncle Tom's Cabin Company promise to refund the money to any one, (on presentation of coupon at the box office after the show) if they don't give the grandest presentation of the drama ever witnessed in this city, also if the specialties are the selections and descriptive overtures by their superb orchestra are not alone worth the price of admission.
 One day this week N. Baum, of Portland, committed suicide. Mr. Baum was formerly a resident of this county and served as county clerk one term.
 The paper mill will begin to make paper now in a few days, probably tomorrow. They have already commenced cooking the straw and heating up the rollers, and getting the machinery in running order.
 Peterson & Garland sold two beautiful lots to Wm. Babston's addition to J. G. Boyle. Consideration, $450. Mr.
 Boyle is preparing to build now. They also sold to Isaac Coleman 11 acres of the Ridgway land, just beyond the slaughter house, at $35 an acre. They bought for their own use 4 1/2 acres adjoining. They also sold the Edwards property to P. M. Smith.
