

Lebanon Express.

FRIDAY, DEC. 25, 1891.

Expressions.

Additional items on first page. H. C. Klepper is on the sick list. Go to Bach's for choice groceries. W. H. Booth M. D. physician and surgeon, Lebanon Oregon. We are sorry to report Dr. Skipworth ill this week. Mr. J. M. Ralston was in town this week, on business. Sheriff M. Scott was in town this week, on business regarding the sale of the property of Thos. Prier. Overman & Hunter the leading harness and saddlery dealers, Albany. Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick was in Brownsville this week, on business. F. M. French, the jeweler, Albany, keeps railroad time. Hon. J. K. Weatherford was in the city the first of the week, on business for the canal company.

You must settle your account with Cruson & Menzie at once, either by cash or banker's note. When you want a nice gold ring call on Will & Stark, Albany, Oregon. Mrs. Lonsberry, of Tallman, was visiting her parents this week. If you want to buy a child's cloak, cheap, go to the Ladies' Bazaar at Albany.

Will & Stark, the leading jewelers, Albany, Oregon. Gold and silver watches at greatly reduced prices until Jan. 1st, at F. M. French's, Albany.

Frank Skipworth, who has been attending school in Portland, came home last Saturday to spend Christmas with his parents. The large gilt boot shows you where Klein Bros. hold forth. Try them on boots and shoes. They also do repairing and custom work, neatly and promptly. Albany, Ore.

If you wish to erect a monument over the grave of any of your relatives before next decoration, call at once and get the reduction in prices now offered by E. W. Ashburn & Co., Albany, Ore.

When in Albany call and see Hopkins Bros. They are the sole agents for the celebrated Superior cook stoves and ranges. The world's best.

F. M. French, jeweler, Albany, keeps a large and complete stock of spectacles and eye glasses, and fits them by "Johnson's patent eye-meter."

The A. O. U. W. of this city had a rousing meeting Tuesday evening, at which time they received some members.

F. M. French, jeweler, Albany, will give you the benefit of the big cut on watches. Call and examine goods and get prices.

The Express office has been doing a good bit of job work for the past week or so. We guarantee satisfaction.

The day Mr. Chas. B. Montague and wife left for Oregon City, in answer to a telegram announcing the death of Rev. Gibney's brother, who was visiting him out here.

The M. E. Church, Cumberland and Presbyterian Churches will unite and observe the week of prayer, according to the program of the Evangelical Alliance, commencing Jan. 4th.

Would you think it? Why they have surely been around after the editor and devil to take the part of Santa Claus, but from lack of suitable wearing apparel to be out in company we were compelled to decline.

Contractor Price left, Tuesday morning for Omaha, Neb., turning over everything here to his son Tom, the ditch Company having accepted him at a meeting Monday night, and agreed to give him until July 1st to complete the contract.

The heavy wind last Sunday blew off about 14 feet of the brick wall of the west side of Dr. Courtney's building. The total damage will be some where in the neighborhood of $200, of which Contractor Morgan lost $70. It is very much regretted that Dr. C. had so much ill luck with this contract. Probabilities now are that it will be suspended until spring.

Stowe returned and Suk...

Joe Meyers is quite sick. Go to Baker's for Groceries! Dance at the Band Hall to-night. Fresh roasted peanuts at Zahn's. S. P. Bach gives 16 oz. for a pound. Moroccan Wasson was in Albany one day this week.

A beautiful lot on Main street for sale by Peterson & Garland. J. L. Cowan mayor of Albany was in our city yesterday.

Dr. Booth moved his office this week up over the post-office. Mr. C. H. Ralston is on the sick list this week.

Mr. B. Cleaver left for Salem to-day to spend Christmas with relatives. Rev. E. E. Thompson returned home from Portland last Saturday evening.

Say, do you know that Buhl & Pugh carry a well selected line of Gent's furnishing goods? In buying Christmas presents you should not forget the editor and his devil.

Tramsters look out for ordinance number twenty in this issue of the EXPRESS.

The church at Sodaville is again nearing completion, and will soon be ready for dedication. The cold weather this week has greatly added to the number of those on the sick list.

When in Albany call at F. M. French's corner jewelry store, and see the fine display of Christmas goods.

The M. E. Church, South, has received the bell for their church. This makes five church bells, all to ring at once.

Cruson & Menzie will sell strictly for cash, and have put their prices down. Building contracts will be allowed thirty days from time of furnishing last bill of goods.

Misses Emma Kirkpatrick and Abbie Fry and Mr. Chas. Ralston, who are attending the Albany College, are here spending Christmas with their parents.

For the next sixty days we will sell combinations and monuments for 5 per cent less than our regular price. If you need anything in our line, give us a call. K. W. Ashburn & Co.

When in Albany call and see the elegant piano that Klein Bros. will give away on Christmas Eve at their Boot & Shoe Store, Albany, Oregon.

Don't go to the trouble to run all over the town for what you want, but go direct to Buhl & Pugh and get what you want in the grocery line. Their stock is large and well selected.

Go to Mrs. Rice's for cheap millinery. Largest stock and lowest prices. Felt hats, fifty cents. Remember you can buy an album of M. A. Miller, that will hold fifty pictures, for one dollar.

If you want to rent a house or buy a farm, call at C. A. Elson's real estate office. Heating stoves away down to cost at F. C. Ayer & Co.'s. Don't forget to catch a few dozens of the nice dress buttons, at Zahn's. They are going fast.

Buy you an acre in Ralston's addition and build your wife a nice house. Save rent and be happy. PETERSON & GARLAND.

On Tuesday the little seven year old daughter of Charles Devine, who lives just above Waterloo, had the sad misfortune to get one of her fingers cut off and another almost cut off. Dr. Lantersohn was called and dressed the hand.

And Thompson says, that if there are any persons in the town too poor to buy themselves a comb, that if they will come around he will give them a comb, but for God's sake not to steal any more from him.

C. A. Zahn, the confectionery dealer, says that he cannot afford to sell his goods at cost, while his family is in need of clothing and provisions for the remaining part of the winter. He asks of every one to allow him a certain per cent on his investment and daily labor. He thinks it is very unhealthy to sell goods at cost.

Mrs. Miller, wife of C. J. Miller, departed this life December 7th, 1891, she was in her twentieth year. She was a great sufferer before her death.

Go to Baker's for clothing! Go to S. P. Bach for boots and shoes. Come out to the Cumberland Presbyterian church to-night and get and give a present. Our honorable townsman, J. M. Wiley is confined to his bed with the Grippe. Miss Nona Miller left Monday, for Salem where she goes to spend Christmas with friends.

We are glad to note that W. C. Peterson was on the street Wednesday. Attorney A. F. Stowe returned from Portland yesterday. He had been at that place on legal business.

All boots and shoes bought of Klein Bros., that rip or run over will be repaired free of charge, by them, at their Boot & Shoe Store in Albany, Ore.

There is no danger from whooping cough when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It keeps the cough loose and takes expectation away. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

Charles Smith who is clerking in the sheriff's office at Albany, spent Sunday in the city with his parents. Klein Bros. carry the largest stock of boots and shoes in Linn county, and it will pay you to call and get their prices before buying your winter stock of boots and shoes. Try them and get a ticket on the elegant piano they will give away Christmas Eve. Albany, Oregon.

Big bargains in watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, Gold-headed canes and umbrellas, until New Year's, at F. M. French's, Albany.

The Ladies' Bazaar at Albany call for the largest assortment of dolls in the city. Excuse me ladies, for only having a few doll heads left, shall have another invoice soon, Zahn.

Pumps down to Albany prices. Black pipe 12 1/2 cts. At F. C. Ayer & Co.'s. Insure your house with Peterson & Garland.

Don't fail to give Buhl & Pugh a call. They have a fine line of first-class goods. At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church there are services each Sabbath morning and evening. Every one made to feel welcome.

The New Orleans Uncle Tom's Cabin Company played here last Saturday night to a good house, but to say the least the company did not come up to our expectations. They did not give a first-class show but the stage was too small for them.

BUY YOUR HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES FROM MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, Albany, Ore.

Matt Potter of this city, and Miss Laura Miller, aged 15 years, daughter of Manuel Miller, a carpenter, created a genuine sensation by leaving town together last Thursday. They went directly to Crescent City by the way of Grants Pass and were married on a steamer in the ocean. They went to Salem from there, and have written home that they will come here soon to receive the blessings of the stubborn parents of the girl.—Roseburg Review

M. A. Miller, the druggist, takes especial pleasure in supplying his customers with the best medicines obtainable. Among the many excellent preparations on his shelves may be mentioned Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or so promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency towards pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popular ity.

The breaking of the ferry cable whereby travel across the river at place has been suspended for days, has been very annoying. A new cable ordered and was on the way.

Go to Baker's for boots and shoes. We are glad to note that W. C. Peterson was on the street Wednesday. Attorney A. F. Stowe returned from Portland yesterday. He had been at that place on legal business.

All boots and shoes bought of Klein Bros., that rip or run over will be repaired free of charge, by them, at their Boot & Shoe Store in Albany, Ore.

There is no danger from whooping cough when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It keeps the cough loose and takes expectation away. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

Charles Smith who is clerking in the sheriff's office at Albany, spent Sunday in the city with his parents. Klein Bros. carry the largest stock of boots and shoes in Linn county, and it will pay you to call and get their prices before buying your winter stock of boots and shoes. Try them and get a ticket on the elegant piano they will give away Christmas Eve. Albany, Oregon.

Big bargains in watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, Gold-headed canes and umbrellas, until New Year's, at F. M. French's, Albany.

The Ladies' Bazaar at Albany call for the largest assortment of dolls in the city. Excuse me ladies, for only having a few doll heads left, shall have another invoice soon, Zahn.

Pumps down to Albany prices. Black pipe 12 1/2 cts. At F. C. Ayer & Co.'s. Insure your house with Peterson & Garland.

Don't fail to give Buhl & Pugh a call. They have a fine line of first-class goods. At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church there are services each Sabbath morning and evening. Every one made to feel welcome.

The New Orleans Uncle Tom's Cabin Company played here last Saturday night to a good house, but to say the least the company did not come up to our expectations. They did not give a first-class show but the stage was too small for them.

BUY YOUR HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES FROM MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, Albany, Ore.

Matt Potter of this city, and Miss Laura Miller, aged 15 years, daughter of Manuel Miller, a carpenter, created a genuine sensation by leaving town together last Thursday. They went directly to Crescent City by the way of Grants Pass and were married on a steamer in the ocean. They went to Salem from there, and have written home that they will come here soon to receive the blessings of the stubborn parents of the girl.—Roseburg Review

M. A. Miller, the druggist, takes especial pleasure in supplying his customers with the best medicines obtainable. Among the many excellent preparations on his shelves may be mentioned Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or so promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency towards pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popular ity.

The breaking of the ferry cable whereby travel across the river at place has been suspended for days, has been very annoying. A new cable ordered and was on the way.

Go to Baker's for boots and shoes. We are glad to note that W. C. Peterson was on the street Wednesday. Attorney A. F. Stowe returned from Portland yesterday. He had been at that place on legal business.

All boots and shoes bought of Klein Bros., that rip or run over will be repaired free of charge, by them, at their Boot & Shoe Store in Albany, Ore.

There is no danger from whooping cough when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It keeps the cough loose and takes expectation away. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller, druggist.

Charles Smith who is clerking in the sheriff's office at Albany, spent Sunday in the city with his parents. Klein Bros. carry the largest stock of boots and shoes in Linn county, and it will pay you to call and get their prices before buying your winter stock of boots and shoes. Try them and get a ticket on the elegant piano they will give away Christmas Eve. Albany, Oregon.

Big bargains in watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, Gold-headed canes and umbrellas, until New Year's, at F. M. French's, Albany.

The Ladies' Bazaar at Albany call for the largest assortment of dolls in the city. Excuse me ladies, for only having a few doll heads left, shall have another invoice soon, Zahn.

Pumps down to Albany prices. Black pipe 12 1/2 cts. At F. C. Ayer & Co.'s. Insure your house with Peterson & Garland.

Don't fail to give Buhl & Pugh a call. They have a fine line of first-class goods. At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church there are services each Sabbath morning and evening. Every one made to feel welcome.

The New Orleans Uncle Tom's Cabin Company played here last Saturday night to a good house, but to say the least the company did not come up to our expectations. They did not give a first-class show but the stage was too small for them.

BUY YOUR HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES FROM MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, Albany, Ore.

J. L. COWAN, BANK, LEBANON, O. Transacts a General Banking ACCOUNTS KEPT SUBJECT CHECK. Exchange sold on New York, San Francisco, and Portland and Albany, Oregon. Collections made on favorable terms.

Lowest Prices. Felt Hats for fifty cents, exorbitant her stock before elsewhere.

EAST AND SO VIA Southern Pacific THE MOUNT SHAMBA ROUTE. EXPRESS TRAINS LEAVE PORTLAND DAILY. 7:00 P.M. Lv Portland At 7:30 A.M. 12:30 P.M. Lv Albany At 1:30 P.M. 8:15 P.M. Lv San Francisco At 7:30 P.M.

Roseburg Station Daily. 5:30 A.M. Lv Portland At 4:00 P.M. 12:30 P.M. Lv Albany At 12:30 P.M. 8:15 P.M. Lv Roseburg At 6:20 A.M.

Pullman Buffet Sleepers, TOURS, and CARS. For accommodations of second class passengers included in special fares.

WEST SIDE DIVISION, BETWEEN PORTLAND AND CORVALLIS. Mail Train—Daily (except Sunday). 7:30 A.M. Lv Portland At 8:30 A.M. 12:30 P.M. Lv Corvallis At 12:30 P.M.

Express Train Daily (except Sunday). 4:30 P.M. Lv Portland At 4:30 P.M. 7:30 P.M. Lv Astoria At 7:30 P.M. R. KOEHLER, E.P.R. Agent.