

Expressions.

Additional locals on first page. Come in for job work.

J. L. Cowan, Esq., was in the city Tuesday.

For machine oil call on Cruson & Menzies

Bargains in real estate at Elson & Tivey's.

If you want a buggy or hack don't fall to see Cruson & Menzies.

Mr. W. B. Donaca is suffering with an inflamed eye.

For all kinds of Christmas goods go to Will & Stark, Albany.

The Presbyterians had an are light placed in their church this week.

S. Dudley, Dentist, Lebanon, Oreg. Office up stairs over City Drug store.

When in Albany don't fall to call on Will & Stark, the leading jeweler.

Miss Scott, of Albany visited Mr. Westfall's family last week.

Pumps and pipe down to Albany prices. F. C. AYERS & Co.

We are glad to report that little Grace Swan is improving.

Will & Stark is the place to buy jewelry. Albany, Oregon.

G. W. Wheeler and wife are visiting their son in Independence.

Go to the Fish & Poultry market to buy your fruits and vegetables cheap for cash.

Miss Beuna Kirkpatrick left Wednesday for Selma, Cal., where she will spend the winter.

Cash paid for all kinds of poultry, eggs and game, at the Lebanon Fish & Poultry market.

Miss Hattie Carothers, who is attending the blind school in Salem, spent Xmas with her mother in Lebanon.

The Brauer washer is the best washer in the world. We know whereof we speak. Go to E. Gann and get one.

Why is Benton flour like the gold coin? Because everybody wants it. D. B. Zehr.

Klein Bros. will sell you rubber goods cheaper than any house in the Valley. Call and get prices when in Albany.

Attention is called to the advertisement of T. L. Wallace & Co., who are leaders in the clothing business of the Willamette Valley.

Ladies visiting Albany should not fail to call at the Ladies' Bazaar and inspect their elegant line of holiday goods and dolls. They also carry a fine line of furs for ladies and children.

Farmers: S. N. Steele & Co., of Albany, Or., are now prepared to loan money from one to five years, in sums of $200 to $10,000. Call on or write them.

Information comes that Mr. J. Barr, a highly respected citizen of Linn county, dropped dead Monday of this week.

Hon. M. A. Miller, Linn County's youngest member of the Legislature, will leave for Salem this week. Many flattering and kindly wishes follow him to his place of duty.

Mrs. M. J. Hanrahan, of this city and Geo. W. King were married in Albany Wednesday of this week. They left immediately for Portland. The EXPRESS extends its best wishes.

The Salem Statesman's New Year's Edition reached us this week. It is by far the best New Year's edition ever came to this office, and is a credit to the Statesman and to Salem.

Miss Lizzie Reed who is attending medical lectures at the Willamette University, obtained a short respite from her studies and visited her parents and many friends in Lebanon last week.

A convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Linn county will meet in Lebanon on Friday, Jan. 13, at 2:30 p. m., continuing until Saturday afternoon. All young people who are interested in this work are earnestly requested to attend.

Rev. S. G. Irvine was worse again last week. O. H. Irvine, of McMinnville, with him, and the two younger sons, Elliott and Clem are also at his bedside. Hopes of recovery are given up, but the earnest prayers of all will go out that life may be spared as long as possible. Dr. Irvine has been one of the most active workers in the material and moral growth of the city of Albany, and every citizen will watch the ebbing of his life with the keenest regret and deepest solicitude.—Ex.

Clevelands baking powder. Liza Wallace is visiting friends and relatives in Lebanon.

The Editor made a visit to Portland Tuesday on business.

Miss Jessie Ralston drew the prize at the Indian show.

C. A. Elson went to Albany Tuesday on business.

Money to loan on gilt edge security at Elson & Tivey's.

The M. E. church will be lighted by an arc light hereafter.

Crusons & Menzies' accounts must be settled by or before December 31.

Mr. Chas. Stokes drew the gold watch on Xmas eve at the Kickapoo show.

The Oregonian issued an extra large New Year's number descriptive of Portland and vicinity.

Mr. Wm. Ashpaw, a brother of grandma Ralston, is visiting in Lebanon.

Mr. E. Parrish, of Sodaville, spent Xmas at home. He is attending medical lectures at Portland.

The Masonic lodge held their annual installation on Tuesday evening, Dec. 27. Supper was served by the ladies.

The Knights of Maccabees had their annual installation of officers last night and also had a big supper in the Odd Fellows Hall.

The electric light machinery was started up last Saturday evening. The six arcs on Main street improves the town wonderfully.

Chicken thieves are said to be numerous in Junction City. While the marshal was out looking for the thieves the other night they stole all of his chickens.

The EXPRESS desires to again remind its friends who are in arrears that we are in great need of our money. We cannot pay our debts without it. We hope everyone who is behind will come forward at an early date and settle.

Rev. J. C. Tepleton, who is secretary of the board of trustees of the Sodaville College, and also financial agent, was in town this week soliciting funds for that institution. He informs us that he is meeting with good success.

As last week was Xmas week the EXPRESS failed to make its appearance for the first time in three years, but the force had to take Christmas. Here we are on deck again, both Editor and Devil having sworn off from their bad habits for another year.

BUY YOUR HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES—FROM—MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, Albany, Ore.

Many citizens of Lebanon, when they saw Ed O'Neil step from the cars with a large package of gold, were as happy as school children when they hail Sats Claus. O'Neil came with the money to pay off the liens against the Lebanon & Santiam Canal. The sum was $5,000.

The old council held its last meeting and the new council its first meeting last Tuesday night, when the former retired with a graceful valedictory from ex-Mayor Foley and the latter entered upon the duties with a pleasant speech from the new Mayor, Chas. Ralston. The officers were sworn in and the city government has changed hands once again.

Klein Bros., the only exclusive boot and shoe dealers in Albany, Ore. Every pair of boots and shoes bought of us, that rip, run over or soles come loose, will be repaired by us free of charge. All goods warranted as represented. Repairing of boots and shoes neatly and promptly done. A share of your patronage respectfully solicited. All mail orders receive prompt attention.

All parties indebted to Cruson & Menzies are hereby notified to settle the same within 30 days and save costs.

The Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co. gave their last performance on Wednesday evening, a large crowd being present. After the performance was over the drawing of the silver set took place. The coupons were gathered up in haste and a little girl was called from the audience and drew the coupons out. When the tenth one was drawn out—this being the winning number—it was found that Miss Jessie Ralston had drawn the set. This drawing like all their others heretofore was conducted strictly on the square. The Kickapoo's left Tuesday for Brownsville where they will remain two weeks. The EXPRESS speaks for them large houses.

If you use Clevelands once you will use it always.

Mrs. J. C. Bilyeu and Mrs. L. Bilyeu visited Jefferson this week.

Get a cook book free at Pugh & Wallace's.

Robert Montague visited Albany one day this week.

Clevelands cook books at Hiram Bakers.

The Monmouth Tribune is dead after an existence of nine weeks.

Mr. Bilyeu and family, of Seio, are in town visiting the family of J. C. Bilyeu.

Clevelands baking powder costs no more than other brands, and is an economical luxury.

You can't make any mistake by trying a can of Clevelands baking powder.

Mrs. W. W. Rowell, wife of the proprietor of the Russ house, and her sister, of Albany, were visiting Mrs. Steel this week.

Mr. Guy has had the petition taken down between the restaurant and the room formerly occupied by Mr. Fry, throwing the whole building into a restaurant.

R. Hull left Wednesday for Santa Palla, California, where he goes to spend the winter on account of poor health.

Clifford Stephens, a highly respected student of the University, was accidentally killed by electricity at Eugene on last Saturday night.

John Donaca returned yesterday from a visit to relatives at Ilwaukee. He reports having had a fine time.

Anyone wishing electric bells, burglar alarms, clocks and all kinds of electrical instruments and batteries for rheumatism, will please call on J. D. Moore at the hotel.

W. L. Jackson, of the Sweet Home public school, spent his vacation "on a toot" in Polk and Benton counties. He took in the Normal at Monmouth and the Agricultural college at Corvallis while gone.

According to the Albany Democrat there has been 196 marriages in Linn county during the year 1892. An increase of 28 over last year, which is a good healthy increase. There has been 12 divorces.

All parties knowing themselves to be indebted to me will please call and settle at once as I will be called away from home soon and I desire to balance my accounts before leaving. M. A. MILLER.

BAPTIST CHURCH—Preaching every Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Young People's meeting every Sunday at 6:45 P. M. Prayer-meeting every Wednesday at 8 P. M. C. R. LAMAR, Pastor.

The first license of 1893 was issued to Geo. W. King and Mrs. Matilda J. Hanrahan. License has also been issued to E. E. Gormely and Martha I. Gray.

RAGS WANTED.—Three cents a pound will be paid for clean white or colored cotton rags, delivered at the electric light station in this city.

Married, in this city, at the residence of the brides father, Jan. 1, 1893, by C. A. Elson, J. P., Mr. Frank Settle and Miss Pauline Bode, daughter of R. Bode, Esq., of Lebanon.

Cruson & Menzies have a few buggies and hacks left which they will sell at cost for cash for the next thirty days.

Before buying your fall and winter foot-wear you will do well by calling on Klein Bros., and get their prices on boots & shoes and in rubber boots and hose, as they carry the largest stock in Albany and will save you some good money. Give them a call and be convinced.

There will be services in the First Presbyterian church every Sunday, morning and evening. The evening sermon is especially intended for the young people. Young People's prayer meeting at 7 P. M. on Sundays. All are cordially invited to come and worship with us. Please make yourself known to the Pastor.

EDWARD ECCLESSTON.

The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, Ohio, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Miss., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it has never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 bottles for sale by M. A. MILLER.

The People Appreciate a Good Thing.

Our Great $10 Sale

Of Men's Fine Suits and Overcoats has proved a store fame for us. The month just past has been the biggest one since the opening of our new store. We're going to continue this Sale of Gentlemen's $10 All-Wool Suits and Overcoats in order that all of our out of town patrons may have an opportunity to examine these values.

Riches Take Wings,

But Poverty need never fear so long as we do business on the basis we do,

Whoever heard of anyone selling regular $17, $16 & $15 Gentlemen's Suits and Overcoats for $10?

It Will Cost You Nothing to see this grand stock of goods. There is a positive loss in not doing so.

T. L. Wallace & Co, The Largest Clothing Dealers in the Valley.

On Corner. ALBANY, OR

1885

1893.

The Oldest House

In Lebanon

Wishing YOU A HAPPY NEW YEARS.

Look out for us next week.

C. C. HACKLEMAN.