Fruit trees for sale at M. L. Forster's nursery, at bed-rock prices. Call and get my prices before buying elsewhere. Prune trees very cheap for the next thirty days. M. L. FORSTER, Tangent, Or.

Judging from the number of trees that go out of town every day there will be a very large increase in the acreage of fruit near here this year. Our land is well adapted to fruit culture and experience has shown that diversified crops are far more profitable than large tracts all in one product. Fruits of almost every variety are being planted this year.

A resident of Salt Lake city has a copy of a mortgage made in Boise City in 1861. It was to secure $170, with interest at 10 per cent. month, the interest in case of default to be added to the principal and compounded semi-annually. The mortgage was never satisfied, and as it amounts, according to the terms, to $45,972,003, $20.50, and is still growing. There are grave fears that it will never be paid.—Ex.

Our county treasurer, Brice Wallace, was married in Portland last Saturday to Mrs. Mary L. Patterson, of that city, Judge Wood officiating. Many friends throughout this county and elsewhere will extend to them congratulations.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cowan left Saturday on a trip East. Mrs. Cowan will stop for visit in Denver. Mr. Cowan will go to Washington to attend the inauguration ceremonies of Grover Cleveland. It is said that Mr. Cowan is in the favor of the administration and will have a good deal of influence in some of the federal appointments in Oregon. He is a warm supporter of Mr. T. J. Black for the office of collector of customs at Portland.—Herald.

The Santiam Lumbering Co. of Mill City is now erecting a large and commodious building to replace the one broken down by the snow of last month. The new building is much larger and in every way superior to the old one. As soon as the O. P. is completed across the mountains, the company will be prepared to ship daily to that and other markets, 50,000 feet of first-class lumber.—Silo Press.

As the census of 1890, says the Guard, will probably prevail, Eugene will not come under the influence of the new school law, which makes cities of 4000 or over one independent district which must have five directors, who elect their own clerk and are authorized to incur a debt not to exceed $100,000. The act takes effect by a special emergency on the 1st day of March this year.

Ashtand Tidings: Chas Offenbacher, a young farmer living near Kulpi post-office in Applegate valley, was killed by one of the horses in his stable last Friday. In the stable there was a swinging pole, instead of a stall partition to separate the animals. The horse was kicking vigorously and struck this pole; the pole struck Mr. Offenbacher on the head, crushing the skull and causing almost instant death. Offenbacher was about 27 years of age and leaves a wife and one child.

The Pacific Northwest is steadily increasing its acreage of hops and the industry is growing. The Baltimore Sun says: There is no part of the world where this crop is greater than in the states of the Pacific Northwest. California and Oregon raise two-fifths of the entire product of the United States. Last year they marketed 80,000 bales, or 15,000,000 pounds. This is said to represent the product of 15,000 acres and an investment of $5,000,000. This acreage is rapidly increasing, and it is said that next year half the hops used in this country will be raised on the Pacific coast.

Andrew L. Arnold, on complaint of C. D. Compton and Thos. Large was brought to Albany and examined by Judge Duncan, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Wyatt, and Drs. Hill and Wallace, on a complaint of insanity. The commission after a thorough investigation declared him not insane, and he was discharged. Arnold is the man who burned the barn of A. R. McDonald. He is free on $500 bonds. His bondsmen though are considering the advisability of giving him up to the sheriff. The case is becoming somewhat interesting.—Democrat.

Atty. Watson, of Albany, was in the city this week.

BUY YOUR HARDWARE, STOVES AND RANGES—FROM—MATTHEWS & WASHBURN, Albany, Ore.

Last Friday Robt. McCartney, a bridge builder living at Wolf creek station, shot his wife accidentally in the hip with a 44-caliber Winchester. He was in the house showing his brother-in-law how to handle the gun, when the lady stepped in front of them just as it accidentally went off. The bullet tore along under the skin for a few inches but did not strike inward. The couple are rooming at Col. Curry's residence and Mrs. McCartney, who is a young woman of twenty, is recovering rapidly.—Grants Pass Courier.

A gentleman at Junction City says the people of that place and Cottage Grove intend to have revenge on Eugene for the part taken in the matter of the county division and are taking steps to remove the county seat from Eugene to Crewell. He says correspondence is now being had between the two places in regard to the matter. He thinks that by the people of these three towns, and those directly interested in the towns, standing together they can effect the change. Let her slide, Gallagher. They are thoroughly at outs with the Lane county members of the legislature who opposed the division matter.—Eugene Register.

It is reported from Central Point, Jackson county, that the railroad company has entered into an agreement with F. T. Fradenburg, to carry passengers between that point and Crater lake, in the Cascade mountains. The distance from the railroad to the lake is eighty miles, a stage line is to be established between the two points. Mr. Fradenburg says the railroad has guaranteed him 1000 passengers at $5 each. He has already purchased sufficient stage coaches to accommodate this number of tourists, and his purpose is to erect a summer hotel at the lake.

W. W. Baker is still state food commissioner. The legislature elected Charles Holman, a son of Captain Charles Holman, under the new law to be state food and dairy commissioner for two years. A bill repealing the old law under which Holman was elected, was filed with secretary of state Friday night, so there is a vacancy, and the old state food commissioner will probably hold over according to the constitution, until his successor is appointed by the proper authorities. If Mr. Holman had been elected under the new law after going into effect, or had been named in the bill he would be in for a term of two years. As it is he is not.—Journal.

C. C. HACKLEMAN.

The Sweet Spring Post.

She came in daintily and laid a manuscript tied with a blue ribbon on the editor's desk. He looked up at her questioningly.

She looked pretty, and he continued to look.

"I write poetry sometimes," she said tremulously, but taking hope from his kindly look.

"I beg your pardon?" he said, catching his head over to one side, as if his off ear were out of repair.

"I write poetry sometimes, sir," she repeated softly and insinuatingly, as she pushed the blue ribbon a little nearer her hand.

She was just as pretty and sweet as ever, but his face grew hard.

"You do?" he said coldly.

"Yes sir," and she trembled again.

"Well you ought to be ashamed of yourself—good morning;" and the cold brutality of every-day life was on top again.—Newspaper Man.

Governor Penoyer last week appointed the new officers for Lincoln county, which are as follows: Sheriff, Geo A Landia, Newport; county judge, D B Blue, Yaquina; clerk, D F Jones, Toledo; commissioners, M L Trapp, Chitwood; J O Stearns, Walport; treasurer, Henry Dellinger, Toledo; assessor, Thos E Parker, Yaquina; school superintendent, Chas Booth Yaquina; coroner, Jas Russell Yaquina; surveyor, Josiah Gideou' Lower Alsea. The county on its birth, does not contain a single attorney. This will not last long. Look out for the advent of plenty of legal lights.

A funny man who asked, "where is the state of matrimony?" received the following explanatory answer: "It is bounded by hugging and kissing on one side, and cradles and babies on the other. Its chief products are population and broomsticks and staying out at nights. It was discovered by Adam and Eve while hunting a northwest passage out of Paradise. The climate is rather sultry until you pass the tropics of housekeeping, when squally weather sets in with sufficient power to keep all hands as cool as cucumbers. For the principal road leading to this interesting state consult the first pair of blue eyes you run across."

Miss Abbie Fry was in Lebanon over night Wednesday, coming out to witness the marriage of Rev. Eccleston and Miss Marks.

Placing the Hydrants.

The city council met last Tuesday evening in an adjourned meeting, and made a contract with Rawlings & Dubrulle for 15 double fire hydrants for the city, and ordered the city attorney to draw up an ordinance for the same. The hydrants are to be placed as follows on Main street: Hindman's corner, at the corner by Donaca's brick, St. Charles corner, Bilyen's corner, S. H. Myers' corner, F. M. Miller's residence corner, Klepp's corner. On Second street W. B. Donaca's corner, Southern Methodist church corner, G. Fry's corner. On Park street, one at Goan's corner, Ben Donaca's corner, Duckett's corner, and two on Grove street, at Wilson's planer and at J. A. Robert's corner.

Lena and Orpha Houston, of Selo, who have been in the city for three or four days, were jailed this afternoon on a five days sentence from Judge Edes, for roaming the streets. Their parents are divorced and seem to be on the high road to destruction. The younger one, Orpha, is only 13 years old. A young married man who has been furnishing them a room for immoral purposes is liable to receive a cordial invitation to leave the city.—Journal. The above probably means the girls and not the parents are on the high road to destruction. The girls were found Sunday night by policeman McClain and their brother in the suburbs of Albany, the latter taking them to their home near Selo.

W. B. Donaca returned home this week from Portland, his eyes being much improved, which his many friends will be pleased to learn.
