Seahol's Ferry.

Pleasant weather.

Farmers have begun spring work on a small scale.

Health is pretty good, notwithstanding we had one case of scarlet fever.

J. D. Bowell, D. B. Emrick & Taylor and W. J. Grimes made a business trip to Hillsboro this week.

Next Saturday evening will be the last "club dance" of the season.

Quite a number of horses have died in this county, of mind staggers, but none have been lost in this vicinity this winter, it being the first winter for several years that we could say as much for the health of our stock.

W. J. Grimes, deputy assessor for Washington county, expects to commence work next week.

Arbor Day.

The near approach of Arbor day, which is the second Friday of April, in the afternoon, has prompted State Superintendent McElroy to issue his annual Arbor day circular, which will be sent out in a few days to the teachers and county superintendents of the state. The circular this year consists of fifteen pages and contains a suggested programme for exercises to be conducted by the schools on this day. The circular is prefaced by these remarks:

"Arbor day, from being an humble expedient of one of our Western states, a few years ago, has become, it may be said, one of our national holidays. Its original design has been modified since its observance has been connected with our schools. It is now not only a day for tree planting, both for economic and aesthetic purposes, but its observance has been made the means of imparting much valuable knowledge in regard to plant and tree life, of cultivating in the young the faculty of observation, and kindling in their minds an interest in natural objects which will be a life-long source of pleasure. It is not too much to hope also, that this Arbor day festival, engaging our children in its observance so generally and so pleasantly with songs, recitations and planting of trees and shrubs around the schoolhouses and along the streets or in public parks, may have the effect of bringing forward soon a generation who will feel both the value and the beauty of trees, as hitherto they have not been felt in our country, and thus the reckless destruction of our forests, now going on with such threatening consequences, may be arrested before the calamities are upon us which have befallen other countries through the loss of their trees."—Statesman.

A Storm.

It is said that March is the month of storms. We were convinced that this is true last Friday evening about 7 o'clock, when without any warning our doors were opened and people of all size and age, 50 strong, began to rush in with baskets and sacks well filled with coffee, sugar, flour, meat, canned fruit, etc. The evening was pleasantly spent by young and old. Please accept our thanks for this expression of friendship and Christian regard. C. R. and M. J. LAMAR.

Die!

Mr. Joe. Most was born in Pa., in Oct., 1822, and died at his home, three miles north of Lebanon, March 16, 1893. He was 70 years and 5 months old. Mr. Most came to Oregon in 1845, from Burlington, Iowa, and took up a donation land claim on which he lived up to the time of his death. He was married to Miss Ione Ralston. He was a man of sterling worth, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He has been a great sufferer about five years, but bore his suffering with Christian fortitude, being fully resigned to the will of his Heavenly Father. He leaves a wife and three children and many friends to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held at his home, and the burial was at Albany, by the Masonic Order. May God's blessing rest upon the bereaved family. C. R. L.

Deceased was the father of nine children, eight of whom are still living. He was 46 years, 5 months and 5 days old, at the time of his death. Mr. Gatebell has lived here for about four years. His mother and sister arrived in this state from South Dakota and located here a few months ago. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lanar, in the Baptist church, and the remains were interred in the Dodge cemetery.

New Grocery.

I hereby announce to the people of Lebanon and vicinity that I have opened a grocery store in the building recently occupied by Benjamin Bros., on Main street, where I will be pleased to meet you all and shall endeavor by fair dealing, to win a share of your patronage. As I buy for cash and with a limited capital will be compelled to sell on the same basis. My stock is all new and fresh. No back numbers. Yours very truly, R. HULL.

It is said that when a native of Hawaii wishes to give evidence of his sorrow at the loss of a kinsman he goes to some secluded spot and tries to knock out one of his front teeth. In case it is his his maiden effort at mourning the bereaved not unfrequently bungles the job, and on looking over the debris often finds that he has knocked out a couple or more. If the grief-stricken party, however, lacks the nerve or distrusts his prowess to accomplish the tooth's displacement, a dear and obliging friend is always at hand to offer his assistance. As a result of this custom a man of middle age is often short so many teeth that gastronomers are embarrassed in masticating their food. American dentists will do a land office business in Hawaii if the United States annexes the islands.—Ex.

The city council held its first meeting in the new city hall at Corvallis Monday evening, at which time bids were opened for the $50,000 of water bonds that had been offered for sale and an ordinance was passed empowering the police judge to place a contract with a firm in (Trenton, O.), who has offered $2110 premium and accrued interest. Twenty-eight thousand dollars of this money will be used immediately in paying for the Corvallis Water Company's plant and the balance expended this year in extending and perfecting the system.

Last Monday night while Mrs. Grisham was absent from home, the young people, to the number of thirty-five, gathered in to give her a surprise. When she returned the surprise was complete. After all was still and the taffy was cooked, a merry time was had pulling taffy and playing games, and a general enjoyment, in which all partook. When near midnight all returned home well pleased with their evening's enjoyment.
