We call attention to W. C. Davis' new ad which appears in this issue of the EXPRESS. Mr. Davis is successor to G. W. Simpson and when visiting Albany you should not fail to give him a call.

The Eugene ice works have been purchased by Mr. Henry Weinhard, the breweryman of Portland, who is to manufacture ice and will also dispense beer from the same establishment.

Fruit trees for sale at M. L. Forster's nursery, at bed-rock prices. Call and get my prices before buying elsewhere. Prune trees very cheap for the next thirty days. M. L. FORSTER, Tangent, Or.

Last week there was a bunch of keys found by John Cave and brought to the EXPRESS office, which we advertised. On last Monday Mr. Saltmarsh called at the office and got his keys, having read the item in the EXPRESS.

Two men in Tacoma some days ago discovered a sure way to beat the faro game. Wearing masks, they walked up to the layout as if to stake their money, and each poked a big revolver at the dealer and banker. Then they lifted about $1,700 from the bank, backed out, and got safely away with their plunder.

The Ladies Home Work Society of the First Presbyterian church gave a dime social at the residence of G. Lovelee on Friday evening, March 17. Over one hundred persons were present and a good time was enjoyed by all. The social we suppose was given in honor of the anniversary of the birth of St. Patrick.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

The Solo Press says that a Solo young lady attempted the other day to perform a hitherto believed impossible feat, and succeeded admirably in accomplishing it. The feat was to successfully moisten one of Postmaster General Wanamaker's bed blankets (Columbian postage stamps) at a single scoop. What a mouth she must have for pie, won't her husband be pitted, and above all, won't she be a rattling mother-in-law.

The EXPRESS desires to again remind its friends who are in arrears that we are in great need of our money. We cannot pay our debts without it. We hope everyone who is behind will come forward at an early date and settle.

There have been several dogs poisoned around here of late. While it is a good thing to get rid of some of the useless curs around here, a person is taking considerable chances to take the law into their own hands and kill them off.

At 1 o'clock Monday the case of the state against Thos. G. Price, convicted of adultery, was called. While the sentence might be a fine or imprisonment in the county jail the court made it six months in the state penitentiary, remarking that the offense was one against society that deserved punishment.

Miss Lizzie McNeal, a missionary who has been traveling in this country with a negro girl from Africa, aged 7 years, returned this week to Africa. We are sorry she could not take a few more of the black race along with her. Miss McNeal was in Lebanon last winter and made many friends.

To encourage cash trade, W. C. Davis, of Albany, has adopted a new system of cash discount coupons, and is giving his customers, in connection therewith, some really elegant sets of triple-plated silver. It will be to your interest to call on Mr. Davis before making your spring purchases.

Members of the Oregon Press Association will be given transportation to Chicago and return, next May, exclusive of Pullman car privileges, for the sum of $5. Editors who swear off now ought to be able to take the trip without serious inconvenience. A grip and some grub, a few blankets and a pledge of total abstinence and the excursionist will be fixed.—Welcome.

About March 30, the L. E. Blain Clothing Co. will remove into their elegant new quarters in the Flinn block, where they will have the finest clothing store in the valley. From now until that date they offer every thing at cost, except their spring stock. Those who want bargains and choice goods should call and make their selections.

Governor Penoyer last week granted a couple of pardons. They were in favor of Archie Howard and Wm. Thompson, who were sentenced from Wallawa county on March 1, 1892, each to serve a two year term for the crime of larceny. Their pardon was recommended by the district attorney who secured the convictions. These young fellows committed no crime greater than the pilfering of a few apples.

A son of Mr. Johnson, living about 7 miles south of Harrisburg, says the Courier, met with a serious accident Wednesday. He and another boy were out hunting and his associate's gun was accidentally discharged, the entire charge of shot taking effect in his left hand, tearing away three fingers and a portion of the hand. Dr. DuGlas dressed the wound and reports the boy doing as well as could be expected.

During the year 1892, there were incorporated in the state of Oregon 269 corporations, with a total capitalization of $98,960,250. There were 107 mercantile and manufacturing companies, eleven banks and investment companies, twenty-three gold, silver and other mining and smelting companies, two coal and iron companies, twenty-six light, heat, power and transportation companies, six building and loan associations, nine irrigation companies and eighty-five miscellaneous companies.—Statesman.

Everybody should attend the horse show in Lebanon, on April 8th.

License was issued this week for the marriage of J. Watson, of Tacoma, and Miss Julia Swank, of Linn county.

Rev. James Eva will preach at Waterville, March 25, at 11 o'clock a. m. and at Chendale school house, at 3 o'clock p. m.

I. Govro and two sons started yesterday morning for Rockford, Iowa, where they will make their future home.

Married, in Lebanon, Oregon, March 16, 1893, Mr. J. M. Fox and Miss Ora S. Baltimore, C. R. Lamar officiating.

Rev. Hickman and wife, who have been visiting Rev. Martin Hickman, of this place, left yesterday for Seattle where they will visit their son.

W. G. Obenauer, of Albany, was in Lebanon Tuesday. He had with him some specimens of his sectional maps of Linn county. The map shows the precincts showing their boundaries etc. The map is a splendid piece of work. It will be on sale at N. W. Smith's drug store. Mr. Obenauer came from Albany on a safety bicycle.

There will be services in the First Presbyterian church every Sunday, morning and evening. The evening sermon is especially intended for the young people. Young People's prayer meeting at 7 P. M. on Sundays. All are cordially invited to come and worship with us. Please make yourself known to the Pastor.

The Eugene Guard says: E. R. Skipworth has moved his law office into rooms 3 and 4 on second floor of Odd Fellows Temple. Mr. Skipworth has fitted these offices up in elegant shape and they present a neat and tasty appearance. Mr. Skipworth has a large and well selected law library and since his location in Eugene over four years ago has established a reputation as a lawyer of splendid ability, integrity and industry.

Married, on March 22, 1893, at the residence of P. Swank, near Craner station, Mr. Joe Watson, of Tacoma, and Miss Julia Swank, Rev. Pritchard, of Albany, officiating. The wedding took place at 3 o'clock p. m., after which a sumptuous dinner was served. Only a country wedding, but by the looks of dress and etiquette and elegant displays, one would think they moved in the upper ten. Over seventy-five guests were present.

The Welcome says that the industrious railroad commissioners are determined to earn their salaries. A man fell or jumped from a moving car at the Union depot and was killed. The coroner subpoenaed witnesses who told all about it. The railroad commissioners did not attend the inquest, and must hear the stories over again. The witnesses repeated their testimony—and the necessity for a railroad commission has been amply demonstrated. It found out that the man was dead.

They are dredging some very queer stuff at McNeal's basin, near Petaluma, Cal. It is a heavy clay, loaded with aluminum, and possessing a peculiar cohesive quality like India rubber. The dredge is able to slice off only a very thin shaving at a time. Chemists have taken some of the material for examination, believing that this peculiar clay can be easily turned by the aid of electricity into bright, untarnishable aluminum, which is now in great demand for manufacturing. If this be the case, the aluminum factories of the East may soon be transferred to the Pacific coast.

Last Sunday night, says the Roseburg Review, Bob Hamilton and Jim Cross met in O'Neil Bros. saloon, when Hamilton called Cross out the back door to speak to him. There they had some words about Cross calling on Hamilton's wife, who is now living separate from her husband. The words ending in blows, and Hamilton drew a pistol, and says he struck at Cross with it, when the pistol was discharged, the ball cutting through the lapels of his coat and entering his left arm, inflicting quite a severe wound. Hamilton had an examination before Justice Elliott on Tuesday, on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, and was held in bonds of $500 to appear before the next grand jury.

Cascade's Locks.

Definite information has been received here, says the Oregonian, that the sundry civil bill passed congress, carrying the full appropriation for the completion of the cascade locks. With the balance of the old appropriation on hand, Messrs. Day, the contractors for the locks have now in sight, ready to spend, or rather to earn, $1,555,003, less the engineering and the contingent expenses, which will not amount to much. They will have to hustle to earn all this money before the end of 1894, and will probably soon begin to make the dirt fly. This is a much larger sum than was ever available at any one time. Usually appropriations were $100,000, but lately there was one of $300,000.

If anybody wants to know anything about the stallion show, just call on the committee.

From now until March 30, we offer with the exception of our spring stock, everything at cost.

Only the other day a delegation of Episcopal bishops called on President Cleveland to urge him to oppose the enforcement of the Chinese restriction law. They were positively informed by the chief magistrate that it was his duty to enforce all the laws enacted by congress, so far as it lay in his power to do so.
