City Council meets on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month.

The report that a band of Apache Indians were on the war path in Arizona, sounds like some of the old times news items, but it does not carry the dimmy of old times, for Arizona is sufficiently peopled now to take care of themselves and the Apaches on the war path simply run their necks into the hangman's noose. Indian raids are about passed out of remembrance and the red man himself will soon follow.—Ex.

Out near the eastern end of the O. P. terminating at Coe's station, there has been for some time a strip of about ten miles of road that has not been used for want of repairs. As soon as the snow goes off this will be straightened up and put into good shape so that the road can be operated through the eastern terminus. Every car and engine on the road will be re-painted; the passenger coaches to be varnished and retouched and overhauled into the best shape possible.

From the regularly monthly report of Superintendent L. L. Rowland, of the state insane asylum, it is seen that on February 28th there were 582 male and 247 female patients at the asylum. During the month of March 19 males and 10 females were received, and at the close of March the total number receiving treatment was 837—584 males and 253 females. During the month there were discharged as recovered 1, improved 13, not improved 1, not insane 1, died 4, eloped 1; total 21. The number of officers and employes is 95 and the per capita daily expense to the state for March for the patients for March was 39.67-100 cents.

A horse dealer named William Wright from Livingston, Montana, was in Pendleton Wednesday evening says the East Oregonian. Mr. Wright's mission is to obtain prices on horses with the idea in view of shipping "them across the pond" for the use of the German army. About 200 head are wanted. They are intended for light cavalry use, and must be full of life and vigor and weigh between 850 and 900 pounds. A German count, now at Livingston, contemplates making the shipment, and Mr. Wright comes in his interests. The gentlemen left on the night train for the Heppner neighborhood.

Newcastle, Penn., is up in arms over an outrage which is supposed to have been perpetrated by members of the Mafia society, which is known to exist in that part of the country. A party of boys went out moon hunting the other night, and while in the woods they were attacked by a band of some twenty Italians, who fired on them and chased them about three miles. Several of the boys had their clothing cut by bullets, and one of them was seriously wounded, but managed to make his escape. Steps have been taken to arrest the Italians, and threats of lynching them are freely indulged in. The woods where the boys were hunting are thought to be the rendezvous of the Mafia, which has threatened to kill Mayor Brown and Detective Marshall for their part in effecting the arrest of an Italian murderer named Tepara.

The Salem Statesman says, Mr. C. R. Heughan has just struck a rich find of gold and coal on his place on Butte creek, Clackamas county. Several samples of gold have been brought to this city and have been examined by W. W. Martin, the jeweler, who pronounces them as being as fine a lot specimens as he ever examined. The find of gold was very large and the prospects grow brighter. The prospectors say the outlook for the mine is very bright. He has also discovered a large four-foot vein of coal in the same vicinity. A large quantity was shipped to the Oswego iron works and there tested. The examiners pronounce this coal as being the best ever tried in this district for the purpose of making steam and all heating purposes. As soon as the weather permits, a large number of prospectors will proceed to prospect the mine and there is no doubt, judging from the specimens shown, but it will prove a most successful and rich find.

It was not an April fool that Isaac Bean noticed yesterday morning when he opened his store. But it was an actual fact that some time during the night some one had pried the back doors of his store open and helped themselves to a quantity of tobacco and cigars. The total loss does not amount to over $20. There is no clue as yet to the perpetrators.—Albany Telescope.
