There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as occasion required, and always keep a bottle in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. DENNY, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

In apologizing for mistakes in a former issue, a Western editor says: "They are inexcusable, as all an editor has to do is to hunt news, clean rollers set type, sweep the floor, fold papers, write wrappers, make paste, mail papers, talk to visitors, distribute type, carry water, read proofs, correct errors hunt up the scissors and write editorials, dodge bills, dun delinquents and take cussings from everybody, and tell our subscribers that we need money."

The promptness and certainty of its cures has made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by M. A. Miller.

Mayor Friendly met Receiver E. W. Hadley and General Superintendent R. E. Mulcahy, who had come down to Portland especially to meet him. They said they intended running the steamer Messenger regularly to Eugene and would ship all Southern Oregon freight offered to this point and have the same forwarded by rail to their respective designations; and if the trade warranted it, they would build a new boat especially adapted to the upper river, during the summer.—Eugene Guard.

The Oregon-Telegraph-Telephone Co. applied to the city council at its last meeting for a 25-year exclusive franchise for their telephone line to run from Albany via Lebanon. The charter is so framed as not to permit the giving of an exclusive franchise to an enterprise, no matter what it may be. And, we might remark, that if Albany's experience is to be taken as a criterion, Brownsville's charter is not at fault in this respect. Our people invite any all enterprises to locate in our town, and promise them the same protection that is granted our merchants and other business men. We gladly welcome the advent of the telephone and look for it a good patronage from our people.—Brownsville Times.

The EXPRESS is under obligations to Dr. Lamberson for writing the telegrams for our bulletin board during the trial of Morg Wasson. The dispatches were appreciated by all of our citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Wasson and their connections have the sympathy of the entire community in the sad misfortune that has befallen them. No one can realize the great depth of their sorrow. Human sympathy can do but little to soften their grief. May God in his infinite mercy and goodness, tenderly and kindly strengthen them in the hour of their need, and may he not forget the stricken widow and the fatherless children.

T. M. Morrison, foreign immigrant agent, was in our city on the 25th of April, and again on last Monday, looking over the land in this vicinity, with the view of locating some of his people whom he represents. He represents a good class of people, being Scandinavians and Swedes, and says he will locate eight or ten families near Lebanon between now and fall. Mr. Morrison seems to be a rustler and will no doubt do all he undertakes.

Died.
At the residence of H. C. Klepper, on May 3, 1887, Mrs. A. Umphrey, age, 45 years and 4 months. After an lingering illness of softening of the brain.

Mrs. Umphrey crossed the plains with her parents in 1832 and located on sand ridge where she lived until she was married. Her maiden name was Lydia Frouk. She was married to Mr. Umphrey in 1838 and located 5 miles west of Lebanon where they have since lived. Mrs. Umphrey moved to town last fall to send her daughter to school. She was a member of the Southern Methodist church and was an earnest and devoted christian, and was loved and respected by all who knew him. She leaves a husband and two children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her death.

The funeral services will be conducted to-day (Friday) at 11 o'clock in the M. E. church South, by Rev. Turner, after which she will be buried in the Masonic cemetery.

J. F. Follett left Saturday for Chicago to attend the World's Fair.
While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was travelling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by M. A. Miller.
