Waterloo Notes.

A few hours of sunshine brings everybody on the streets.

The building for the saloon is nearing completion.

Dr. Fellows is getting his building finished in nice style.

Mr. Clark will soon open a model restaurant and ice cream parlor in the tower story of the Fellows' building.

Some parties have rented Mr. Gross' ground under the big maple and will open the skating season in a few weeks.

There is some talk of a big celebration here on the 4th of July. Just what has been done towards it your correspondent cannot say yet.

Rev. Bowersox preached to a packed house. The sermon was a good one and the audience seemed to be appreciative.

We are to have preaching here for the next three Sunday's at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Sunday school here is growing in size and interest from week to week.

Several families have moved to town in the past few days.

The photo gallery will be completed and ready for business soon. Those who want pictures can be accommodated at home.

There are quite a number of hands at work in the factory and now as sheep shearing is so near at hand we hope there will not be any further delay in the further prosecution of the work.

Supt. Bundy paid the county seat a visit last week.

Every habitable house in or near town is now fully occupied.

Our new merchant seems to be building up a good trade.

The city council has ordered a number of the streets opened.

Gardening, though long delayed, is being pushed now when ever the sun shines.

Mr. J. B. Wert has moved into his new house on Gross street.

From the talk about building it seems as though the carpenters would soon all have work.

We hope to have both a school and a church before the end of the summer. Both are becoming a necessity.

The district school is fully attended and Prof. Jackson's time is fully occupied. X. Y.

Decoration day was well and appropriately observed at Lebanon this year. The G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. of V. met at their hall and then marched to the public square where they were joined by a large crowd of school children and citizens. Then led by the Lebanon Cornet Band they marched to the cemetery, under the command of C. B. Montague, marshal of the day. After the usual exercises of the G. A. R. F. M. Miller delivered a fine address. The graves were beautifully decorated.

The wounded Chinese, by the knife thrusts of Sullivan, are reported improving.

LEBANON WILL CELEBRATE

THE GRAND

FOURTH OF JULY

At a mass meeting held last night in Union Hall it was decided definitely that we should celebrate this year.

S. P. Bach, C. H. Ralston, Chas. Pugh G. W. Crumson and C. B. Montague were appointed as an executive committee and shall appoint all sub-committee's.

Lebanon has the name of having the best celebrations in the county, and we fell safe in saying that this year will not be an exception.

Last Saturday evening Marshal Morgan arrested Geo. Wheeler for leaving his horse loose on Main street. The case was tried before the City Recorder on Monday evening which resulted in Wheeler being fined the usual sum, $5 and cost, making $11 25 in all. While Wheeler violated an ordinance, we think it was not the intention of the men that passed the law to have it enforced in such cases as Wheeler's, when worse cases are happening every day in the city. One of which we have reference to is the city dray. We have been informed that they have not put on their brake for over a year. Another is the milk wagon, besides we see people leave their horses every day and go into the post office. Let the marshal pull them all alike or arrest none.

Leon, Lanning & Co. have failed and Judge Burnett has appointed J. R. Stockman as receiver of their property. The indebtedness amounts to $70,000, while the assets are $50,000. Capt. Lanning's whereabouts are unknown.

Baseball.

Quite an interesting, but one sided game was played on the Lebanon ground Tuesday afternoon between the Lebanon club and the Willamettes of Albany. Properly speaking the Albany club was a picked nine, there being four players from the League club and five from the Willamettes. As this was the first game of the season for our boys, they stood little show against the professional battery.

Chas Burns and Mat Stanley were the battery for the Willa's and Aldrich and O'Neil for Lebanon.

Emil Miller of Albany unspired the game in a fair manner, the only kicking being done by the League men who would have shown much better judgment by keeping still since they came out just for practice.

Burns proved entirely too much for most of the Lebanons, all they had to do being simply to "fan" the air and retire to the bench.

The first three or four innings proved close and interesting but after this the game was too one sided to be interesting. Some good plays were made by both sides and many poor ones.

The score was 17 to 3 in favor of the Willa's.

The outsiders from both Albany and Lebanon used their vocal organs entirely too much in the way of guying the players.

The Albany players received good treatment at the hands of the Lebanon club and returned the same.

It is probable that another game will be played between the Willamettes and Lebanons when we anticipate the game will be more closely contested.

A cougar followed up some children above Crawfordsville while going home from school and frightened them. Hunters turned out and found and killed the hungry varmint.

PASTOR.

The critics admit that no violinist now before the public so thoroughly satisfies all classes of the music loving public as Remenyi. While he delights in pleasing the popular ear he is none the less appreciated by lovers of classic music, to whom his exquisite expression is a revelation. The great violinist will be seen for the first time in the Albany opera house Wednesday June 7. Price 50 cts to $1.

The state reform school is receiving recruits again. Monday the first colored boy admitted to the institution was received there from The Dalles. His name is James Patzen, his age is 13 years and he was committed there by County Judge Blakely. Sunday Sheriff Gauong of Clackamas county brought to the school Clayton Pierce, of Oregon City on a commitment from County Judge Meldrum. Monroe Brown of Portland was sent to the reformatory by Judge Munly and brought here Saturday by John McKernan of the boys' and girls' aid society. General incorrigibility is the offense in each one of these cases. Superintendent Smith has the boys at work clearing up some new land. He bought a stump puller to assist in the work. About ten acres will be cleared for the plow this season making a little more than 100 tillable of the total estate of the 377 acres. The school uses between 400 and 500 cords of wood a year and the cutting of it removes most of the timber from the tracts to be cleared.—Statesman.

J. C. Gordon returned to Lebanon last Monday. Clint says that he has enough of Oklahoma and Oregon is good enough for him. He intends to spend the summer in the mountains.

Notice.

We will commence a series of revival meetings at Union Hall, Lebanon, Sunday evening, June 4th at 8 p. m. lasting during the week. We expect Rev. Walker and wife, of Corvallis, to be with us. Come dear christians and let us work together for the salvation of your neighbors.

To the Public.

Lebanon, Or., May 30th 1893.
I have tried twenty Opticians and Oculists to obtain glasses, spending much money and obtaining no benefit. Prof. Gay examined my eyes and in ten minutes found the trouble, connected it with his trial lenses, sent and had compound lenses ground for me which gives me perfect sight. I find my eyes growing stronger with their use.

A Business Change.

Messrs. Read, Ponceok & Co., of Albany, have bought C. C. Hackleman's stock of goods, and will open up a branch store at this place. They took charge yesterday. They will add a large and well selected stock to this one and will open up a first-class store. Mr. W. F. Read and sister are now in the city getting every thing in readiness. The EXPRESS gladly welcomes this enterprising firm into our midst.

Runaway Accident.

Last Monday evening at Spicer, Mrs. J. W. Bell and niece, got into a buggy at their home to take a drive. The horse started up when they only had hold of one line, and they turned it around a time or two which frightened the horse and it started to run. Mrs. Bell jumped out as the horse started, but her niece stayed in and finally succeeded in running the horse into a fence and then jumped out. Dr. Booth, accompanied by Dr. Barker, were sent for, and when they arrived there, found that they had only a few sprains and bruises.

Suicide at Sweet Home.

Z. B. Moss, of Sweet Home, committed suicide last Friday by shooting himself. He and his wife started out to feed the chickens, when under some pretext he went back to the house, but instead of going to the house went directly through into the yard and took off his coat and placed the muzzle of a Winchester rifle near his heart and used a stick to touch the trigger. The ball tore the flesh out in a horrible manner, causing instant death. Mr. Moss was a pioneer of this county for a number of years. He was an old pioneer and highly respected. He leaves a wife and eleven children to mourn his death.

While Albert Morgan, of North Yamhill, was driving a stallion hitched to a cart, the animal became frightened and kicked, both hind feet striking Morgan squarely in the chest, knocking him out of the cart. It is believed no ribs were broken, but it is feared his lungs are injured.
